(3) In any city which has been reclassified from a second to a first-class city and which has been governed under the city manager form of government prior to reclassification and retains the city manager form of government, at the first regular election at which the mayor or city [police] judge and commissioners are elected after the reclassification, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of the city four (4) commissioners and a mayor, or city [police] judge, as the case may be.

Every second year after the election at which commissioners were elected, and every fourth year after the election at which a mayor or police judge was elected, or a mayor and city [police] judge was elected in a city of the first class, a primary election and regular election shall be held in the same manner for the same offices.

(6) The city manager form of government shall become effective and go into operation upon the qualification and installation in office of the mayor, or city [police] judge, or both, as the case may be, and the commissioners.

(3) The commissioners shall elect all officers and appoint all employes of the sinking fund, prescribe their duties and fix their compensation. They may provide in bylaws for deductions to be made from the compensation of officers and employes for neglect of duty or violation of the bylaws. All officers and employes, except the treasurer and secretary and the president, shall hold office at the pleasure of the commissioners, as prescribed in the bylaws.

(4) Employes of the sinking fund designated by the board of commissioners, have the same power as peace officers, coextensive with the county in which the city is located, in the enforcement of all ordinances passed pursuant to KRS 92.281, 91.200 to 91.270, 137.410, 186.270, 186.281, or any other ordinance of a city of the first class, which levies a license tax and which is collected or paid to the sinking fund.

The method of payment of salaries to said deputies engaged in said work shall not be affected by such arrangement. If the office of the property valuation administrator is put to any additional expense by reason of the taking of such lists or schedules for city property, such additional expense shall be paid by the city. Nothing in this section shall be construed as an acceptance by the city of the assessment of the property valuation administrator on property located in the city, but for the sole purpose of convenience and economy.

(2) If any such person fails to return a true list under oath, the assessor may, according to the best information he can obtain, assess the property.

gives notice of same to the contracting party or licensee. The circuit court may hear evidence and determine whether or not the rates, charges or fees are, or are not, reasonable in amount. Appeal from the judgment of the circuit court may be prosecuted as any other civil appeal.

(3) The board shall likewise have power, from time to time, to fix rates, charges or fees by contract, or by publishing general rates, charges or fees for commercial vendors, concessionaires or other persons for the use or occupancy of terminal or other ground use facilities, under such terms or conditions as it may deem to be in the best interest of maintaining, operating or expanding necessary airport or air navigation facilities, and the public use thereof.

(4) The board may acquire by contract, lease, purchase, gift, condemnation or otherwise any real or personal property, or rights therein, necessary, for establishing, operating or expanding airports and air navigation facilities. The board may erect, equip, operate and maintain on such property, buildings and equipment necessary, desirable or appropriate for airport or air navigation facilities. The board may dispose of any real or personal property, or rights therein, which, in the opinion of the board are no longer needed for operating or expanding the airport or air navigation facilities.

(5) The board or any other governmental unit may by resolution reciting that the property is needed for airport or air navigation purposes direct the condemnation of any property, including navigation or other easements. The procedure for condemnation shall conform to the procedures set out in KRS 416.120, or in the alternative, as nearly as practicable to KRS 177.081 to 177.089.

(6) The board or any other governmental unit may from time to time make, adopt and enforce such rules, regulations and ordinances as it may find necessary, desirable or appropriate for carrying into effect the purposes of this chapter, including those relating to the operation and control of the airport, airport facilities or air navigation facilities owned or operated by such board or such other governmental unit. All rules, regulations and ordinances adopted pursuant to this section shall be published according to the provisions of KRS 424.130, and the board or other governmental unit adopting them shall keep a permanent record of such rules, regulations and ordinances available for public inspection, on the airport premises. Section 135. KRS 202.027 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any peace officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that an individual is mentally ill and probably will cause injury to himself or others if not immediately restrained may detain that person with or without a warrant. The peace officer shall, as soon as practical, take the person before a physician for an examination. If the physician then certifies in writing that the individual in his opinion (a) probably will cause injury to himself or others if not restrained, and (b) lacks insight or capacity to apply for his own hospitalization, and if facilities are available and an authorized staff physician agrees, the person may be lodged in a hospital rather than jail pending a hearing as provided in subsection (3) of this section. The peace officer so detaining shall comply with the Rules of Criminal Procedure insofar as they are not in conflict with KRS chapters 202, 203 or 210.

(2) Persons suspected of being mentally ill but who have not been detained under the provisions of subsection (1) of this section may be proceeded against upon the filing of a complaint before any judge of a circuit, county, or city [police] court where the person signing the complaint states under oath that the person to be restrained is in their opinion mentally ill and probably will cause injury to himself or others and shall furnish to the judge facts upon which the complainant relied in reaching the conclusion in accordance with the Rules of Criminal Procedure. If, from the complaint it appears to the judge there is probable cause to believe the person named is mentally ill and probably will cause injury to himself or others he shall issue a warrant of arrest for the person named.

(3) Where a person has been detained by a peace officer or pursuant to warrant he shall be taken before a judge of a circuit, county, or city [police] court without unnecessary delay as provided in RCr 3.02. However, if the court is in possession of evidence that such a procedure would be harmful to the defendant, the presence of the defendant at the hearing may be waived. If after the hearing, the court is of the opinion that the defendant should be restrained it may order him to be hospitalized in a state hospital or, other hospital agreeing to admit, for a period not to exceed seven (7) consecutive days. Where the defendant is not present at the hearing the court shall in its order refer to the medical evidence relied upon to waive the presence of the defendant.

(4) If it is the opinion of an authorized staff physician of the hospital after examination that no emergency exists or that space is not available, the hospital may refuse to admit. If the patient is not admitted, the authorized representative of the hospital shall notify the court at once in writing of the decision and include with the notification a summary of the examination.

(5) Hospitalization under this emergency provision shall be for a period of time not to exceed seven (7) consecutive days from the date of the emergency order. Bail will not be set but release shall be by writ of habeas corpus.

(6) If at the end of seven (7) consecutive days a formal application has not been made for an indeterminate hospitalization or sixty (60) day observation order, then the patient shall be discharged and the court issuing the hospitalization order notified of the date of release.

(1) When an officer or any reputable citizen files an affidavit with any circuit judge, county judge, city [police] judge or justice of the peace, describing premises or a vehicle, where alcoholic beverages are sold, disposed of or possessed in violation of this chapter, the judge or justice shall by his warrant cause the premises or vehicle to be searched for the detection of any alcoholic beverages which are possessed, or kept for disposition, in violation of this chapter.

(2) Any officer receiving such a warrant shall immediately execute it on the day it is received.

(3) If admission is not given on demand, the officers enforcing the warrant shall force an entrance into the premises or vehicle. If the officer finds that alcoholic beverages are being illegally sold, disposed of or possessed, he shall seize the alcoholic beverages, arrest the keeper or person in charge of the premises, vehicle or alcoholic beverages and carry the person arrested and the alcoholic beverages before the judge that has issued the warrant.

(4) No search warrant as provided for in this section shall be quashed if it and the affidavit on which it is based are sufficient on the face. If the search warrant is quashed no property taken by virtue of it shall be ordered returned unless the person from whose possession the property was taken both alleges and proves that he was in lawful possession of the property.

Section 137. KRS 242.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, for which no other penalty is herein provided, shall, for the first offense, be fined not less than twenty (20) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) and, if a natural person, imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days; for the second offense he shall be fined not less than forty (40) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200) and, if a natural person, imprisoned in the county jail for not less than sixty (60) nor more than one hundred and twenty (120) days; for the third and each subsequent offense he shall, if a natural person, be confined in the penitentiary for not less than one (1) nor more than two (2) years, and if a corporation, be fined not less than one thousand (1,000) nor more than two thousand dollars ($2,000).

(3) Quarterly courts, justices of the peace and city [police] courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court in the trial of all offenses committed under this chapter, where the penalty does not exceed a fine of one hundred dollars ($100) and imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding sixty (60) days.

Section 138. KRS 383.030 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If any person is liable for rent due not later than one year thereafter, whether payable in money or some other thing, the person to whom the rent is owing or his agent or attorney may file an affidavit before a justice of the peace, city [police] judge or a judge of the quarterly court of the county in which the tenement lies, stating that there are reasonable grounds for belief, and that he does believe, that unless an attachment is issued he will lose his rent. That officer shall then issue an attachment for the rent against the personal property of the person liable for the rent, to any county the person suing out the attachment may desire. But the attachment shall not issue until the plaintiff has given bond, with good surety, to indemnify the defendant should it appear that the attachment has been wrongfully obtained.

(2) Attachments for rent issued for a sum of fifty dollars or less, exclusive of interest and costs, shall be returned before the officer issuing the attachment. Those for a sum exceeding fifty dollars and not exceeding two hundred shall, at the option of the party attaching, be returned before either the quarterly or circuit court of the county whence it issued; and, if over two hundred dollars, to the circuit court; and in either case the proceedings thereon shall be the same as on other attachments according to KRS Ch. 425 and the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(3) The defendant may deny the tenancy or his liability to pay rent, as stated in the affidavit. He may repossess himself of the property by executing bond in a manner similar to that prescribed in KRS Ch. 425, subject to similar proceedings if forfeited, as is prescribed by KRS Ch. 425 and the Rules of Civil Procedure on such a bond.

(1) When rent is reserved in money a landlord or his agent may, before a justice of the peace, city [police] judge or a judge of the quarterly court in the county where the land lies, file an affidavit showing the amount of rent due and in arrears. That officer shall then issue a distress warrant, directed to the sheriff, marshal of the town or a constable of the county, authorizing him to distrain for the amount due, with interest and costs.

(2) A distress warrant may issue although the lease is not ended, but only for rent then due, and not after the lapse of six months from the time it was due.

Ten days' notice of the time and place of such application, and a copy of the schedule of the property he intends to surrender, shall be given to the adverse party or his agent or attorney, if in the county.

(2) The petitioner, when brought before the judge or justice, shall subscribe and deliver a schedule of his property that is liable for his debts, and take an oath or affirmation in substance as follows:

(3) Upon the delivery of the schedule properly verified, the judge or justice, unless it appears that the petitioner has acted fraudulently, may, by warrant, command the jailer to discharge the petitioner forthwith, and the warrant shall justify the jailer's action. The schedule, together with the petition and warrant, shall be returned to, and kept safely on file by, the county court clerk of the county in which the prisoner was confined.

(4) The provisions of KRS 426.400 to 426.420 shall apply to a person imprisoned by order of a court of chancery to compel the payment of money under a judgment of the court.

Section 142. KRS 426.450 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person against whom a judgment for money is rendered, except as provided in KRS 426.470, may, if an execution thereon has not been placed in the hands of a collecting officer, replevy the judgment for three months before the circuit court clerk or the judge of the inferior court entering the judgment, by giving bond with good surety to be approved by the officer.

(2) Any person against whom a judgment imposing a fine has been entered, or any person confined in jail for the nonpayment of a fine, may replevy the fine for three months before the circuit court clerk or the judge of the inferior court entering the judgment, by giving bond with good surety to be approved by the officer taking the bond. If the bond is not paid at maturity the court in which the judgment imposing the fine was entered may issue a capias pro fine against the principal or may enforce the judgment by execution on the replevin bond against the surety for satisfaction of the bond, interest and costs, or any part thereof remaining unpaid.

(3) The bond, varied to suit the particular case, may be in substance as follows: "This day the defendant AB, together with CD, his surety come before the Clerk of the .... Court, or before the presiding quarterly, city or city [police] judge or justice of the peace of .... County, and undertake that they will satisfy and pay EF or the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the judgment, including interest, if any, and costs amounting to $ ...., rendered against AB, by this Court, within three months with legal interest on the whole amount thereof from this date."

Section 143. KRS 431.150 is amended to read as follows:

If in any trial in a circuit, county, quarterly, justice's or city [police] court of this state, the defendant has been compelled to remain in jail, by reason of his inability to execute bond, to answer the charge in the court in which he is held, and, on trial had in such court, he has been found guilty and his punishment fixed at a fine or a term in the county jail, he shall, in the case of a fine, be given credit at the rate of two dollars per day for each day he was so compelled to remain in jail, and in the case of a jail sentence, shall be given credit on such sentence for the time he was so compelled to remain in jail. The court shall endorse on the judgment a credit for the number of days the defendant was so compelled to remain in jail, and, in the case of a jail sentence, shall make an entry on the commitment, and the defendant shall be discharged from the county jail when he has served the full term for which he was convicted less such credit of time as he is to receive as herein provided.

Section 144. KRS 436.220 is amended to read as follows:

Two justices of the peace, a county judge or a city [police] judge may cause any person charged with having no visible estate or lawful occupation but supporting himself for the most part by gambling, to be brought before them, and if the charge appears to be wellfounded, may require him to give surety for his good behavior in the sum of one hundred dollars for one year or commit him to prison until he gives it. If after the person gives the surety, he plays for or bets any money or thing of value during the year at any game, he shall be deemed to have broken his recognizance.

Section 145. KRS 439.070 is amended to read as follows:

(b) The defendant has never before been convicted of a felony in any state;

(c) The court is satisfied that the character of the defendant and circumstances of the case are such that he is not likely to engage in an offensive course of conduct again; and

(d) The public good does not require that the defendant suffer the penalty imposed by law.

(2) When the court thinks the sentence should no longer be postponed, it may cause a warrant to issue for the arrest of the defendant. Upon his arrest, the defendant may be sentenced and the sentence may be carried into immediate execution.

Section 146. KRS 439.177 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any misdemeanant, sentenced for a period of 30 days or more, may if sentenced by the city [police] court of a city of the first, second or third class, petition the judge of the sentencing court for parole privileges. Any misdemeanant, sentenced by the city [police] court of a city of the fourth, fifth, or sixth class or by any court other than in a city of the first three classes, may petition the county judge of the county in which he is held, for parole privileges.

(2) The county or city [police] court judge shall study the record of all persons petitioning for parole and, in his discretion, may:

(a) Cause additional background or character information to be collected or reduced to writing by the Department of Corrections;

(b) Conduct hearings on the desirability of granting parole;

(c) Impose on the parolee such conditions as he sees fit;

(d) Order the granting of parole;

(e) Issue warrants for persons when there is reason to believe they have violated the conditions of their parole and conduct hearings on such matters;

(f) Determine the period of supervision for parolees, which period may be subject to extension or reduction;

(g) Grant final discharge to parolees.

(3) The county or city [police] court judge shall keep a record of his acts, and shall notify the appropriate jail official of his decision relating to the persons who are or have been confined therein.

(4) Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof, and such orders shall be transmitted to the Department of Corrections.

(5) The period of time spent on parole shall not count as a part of the prisoner's maximum sentence except in determining the parolee's eligibility for a final discharge from parole as set out in subsection (7).

(6) Paroled prisoners shall be under the supervision of the department and subject to its decision for the duration of parole. Supervision of the parolee by the department shall cease at the time of recommitment of the prisoner to the jail as a parole violator, or at the time a final discharge from parole is granted by the county or city [police] court judge.

(7) When any paroled prisoner has performed the obligations of his parole during his period of active parole supervision the county or city [police] court judge may, at the termination of such period to be determined by the county or city [police] court judge, issue a final discharge from parole to the prisoner. Unless ordered earlier by the county or city [police] court judge, a final discharge shall be issued when the prisoner has been out of jail on parole a sufficient period of time to have been eligible for discharge from jail by maximum expiration of sentence had he not been paroled, provided before this date he had not absconded from parole supervision or that a warrant for parole violation had not been issued.

(8) The prisoner convicted of a misdemeanor and released on parole under the provisions of this statute shall be subject to all reasonable departmental rules and regulations.

Section 147. KRS 439.179 is amended to read as follows:

(b) Working at his employment; or
(c) Conducting his own business or other self-employment occupation including, in the case of a woman, housekeeping and attending the needs of her family; or
(d) Attendance at an educational institution; or
(e) Medical treatment.

(2) Unless such privilege is expressly granted by the court, the prisoner is sentenced to ordinary confinement. The prisoner may petition the court for such privilege at the time of sentence or thereafter, and, in the discretion of the court, may renew his petition. The court may withdraw the privilege at any time by order entered with or without notice.

(3) The jailer shall notify the Bureau of Employment Security, Kentucky Department of Economic Security, which shall endeavor to secure employment for unemployed prisoners under this section. If a prisoner is employed for wages or salary, they shall, by wage assignment, be turned over to the fiscal court which shall deposit the same in a trust checking account and shall keep a ledger showing the status of the account of each prisoner. Such wages or salary are not subject to garnishment of either the employer or the fiscal court during the prisoner's term, and shall be disbursed only as provided in this section; but for tax purposes they are the income of the prisoner.

(4) Every prisoner gainfully employed is liable for the cost of his board in the jail, at the amount established by law. If he defaults his privilege under this section is automatically forfeited. In those cases where the prisoner is confined for a breach of the bylaws or ordinances of a city, or for violation of a statute where the city gets the benefit of the fine, the board will be paid by the fiscal court to the city treasury. In those cases where the prisoner is confined for contempt, board shall be paid by the fiscal court to the state treasury. In all other cases the fiscal court shall receive the wages earned and disburse the funds as provided in subsection (5). The fiscal court may, by ordinance, provide that the county furnish or pay for the transportation of prisoners employed under this section to and from the place of employment.

(5) Unless otherwise ordered by the sentencing court or the county judge, the wages or salaries of employed prisoners shall be disbursed by the fiscal court on a monthly basis for the following purposes and in the order stated:

(b) Support of the prisoner's dependents, if any;
(c) Payment, either in full or ratably, of the prisoner's obligations acknowledged by him in writing or which have been reduced to judgment;
(d) The balance, if any, to the prisoner upon his discharge.

(6) If the prisoner was convicted in a justice or a city [police] court, the county judge shall have authority and jurisdiction to make all determinations and orders under this section as might otherwise be made by the sentencing court after the prisoner is received at the jail.

(7) The fiscal court may direct that its functions under subsections (3) or (5) or both be performed by any bonded county official. Such order shall remain in force until rescinded by the fiscal court.

(8) The Department of Corrections shall, at the request of the county judge, investigate and report on the amount necessary for the support of the prisoner's dependents.

(9) The jailer may refuse to permit the prisoner to exercise his privilege to leave the jail as provided in subsection (1) for any breach of discipline or other violation of jail regulations for a period not to exceed 5 days.

(10) Nothing in this statute shall be construed to affect KRS 64.150 which provides for the payment of fees to the jailer. In this section "jail" refers to all misdemeanant institutions, and "jailer" to the superintendent thereof, but, in counties of the first class, "jailer" designates the sheriff who serves as superintendent of the jail.

When such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state.

Section 149. KRS 440.270 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever any person within this state shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this state with the commission of any crime in any other state and, except in cases arising under KRS 440.210, with having fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another state that a crime has been committed in such other state and that the accused has been charged in such state with the commission of the crime, and, except in cases arising under KRS 440.210, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole and is believed to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding him to apprehend the person named therein, wherever he may be found in this state, and to bring him before the circuit judge, the judge of the county court or the city [police] judge of a city in the county in which he was arrested who may be available in or convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit, and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant.

(2) If and when such consent has been duly executed it shall forthwith be forwarded to the office of the Secretary of State of this state and filed therein. The judge shall direct the officer having such person in custody to deliver forthwith such person to the duly accredited agent or agents of the demanding state, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to such agent or agents a copy of such consent; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the rights of the accused person to return voluntarily and without formality to the demanding state, nor shall this waiver procedure be deemed to be an exclusive procedure or to limit the powers, rights or duties of the officers of the demanding state or of this state.

Section 151. KRS 441.270 is amended to read as follows:

The police matron or one of the assistant police matrons shall attend the circuit court and the city [police] court in the city whenever a female prisoner is brought before such courts, and shall have charge of the prisoner, subject to the orders of the court. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 96A is created to read as follows:
The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby finds and determines as a legislative finding of fact that the institution, acquisition, preservation and continuation of mass transportation facilities to serve the general public is vital to the health, safety and material well-being of the citizens and inhabitants of the Commonwealth, and that the preservation and continuation of operations of mass transit facilities at reasonable rates to the public constitutes a proper application of the police power, will result in decreased automotive congestion, safer and more efficient utilization of the public ways, and the safe and effective movement of persons and property, and will thereby serve the public safety, health, convenience, enjoyment and general welfare.
Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 96A is created to read as follows:
(1) As used in this Act, the term "Mass Transportation Program" shall mean the provision of necessary funds by Public Bodies to Transit Authorities created pursuant to KRS Chapter 96A with which to acquire, operate and preserve mass transportation facilities.
(2) Public Bodies which have been parties to the creation and establishment of Transit Authorities, or who constitute the membership of such Transit Authorities, may, acting either individually or jointly, submit to either (i) the electorates of such Public Bodies, or (ii) the electorate of the Transit Area encompassed by any such Transit Authority, but only in the manner and pursuant to the procedures set forth in this Act, one or more proposals for the approval of a Mass Transportation Program to be financed by additional voted levies of ad valorem taxes upon all taxable property in such Public Body or Public Bodies. Such additional voted levies of ad valorem taxes upon all taxable property in any such Public Body shall never exceed in the aggregate the limits prescribed by the Constitution of Kentucky for any such Public Body.

(3) Public Bodies which have been parties to the creation and establishment of Transit Authorities, or who constitute the membership of such Transit Authorities, may, acting either individually or jointly, submit to either (i) the electorates of such Public Bodies, or (ii) the electorate of the Transit Area encompassed by any such Transit Authority, but only in the manner and pursuant to the procedures set forth in this Act, one or more proposals for the approval of a Mass Transportation Program to be financed by voted levies of occupational license fees. Such voted levies of occupational license fees shall not exceed one percent (1%) of (a) salaries, wages, commissions and other compensation earned by persons for work done and services performed or rendered, and (b) the net profits of businesses, trades, professions or occupations from activities conducted in the Public Body, or the Transit Area, except public service companies, banks, trust companies, combined banks and trust companies, combined trust, banking and title companies, and in all other cases where a Public Body is prohibited by law from imposing a license fee.

As used herein, the term "motor vehicle" shall have the meaning ascribed by KRS 186.010(7)(a).

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 96A is created to read as follows:

(1) Any Transit Authority created pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 96A may, by resolution duly adopted by its Board in the manner prescribed by KRS 96A.060, request one or more of the Public Bodies which, upon the date of adoption of such resolution constitute members of such Transit Authority, either (i) to submit to their respective electorates, or (ii) to jointly submit to the electorate of the entire Transit Area encompassed by such Transit Authority a proposal for the approval or disapproval of a Mass Transportation Project. Such resolution shall set forth in detail, or shall incorporate by reference a detailed study in respect of, the Mass Transportation Program proposed for submission to such electorate or electorates, together with the proposed source or sources of funding thereof, subject to the limitations of this Act.

(2) Upon receipt of any such resolution of the Board of any such Transit Authority, the governing body of each Public Body to which such resolution is directed shall cause such resolution and the study for Mass Transportation Program contained therein to be carefully reviewed. The Public Body or Public Bodies may cause further studies to be made with respect to such request of such Transit Authority, and may require such Transit Authority to submit such further and additional date, statistics and information as may be required by such Public Body or Public Bodies in order to enable same to make a proper decision regarding any proposed Mass Transportation Program.

(3) In the event the governing body of any such Public Body shall determine that the public welfare requires the establishment of the Mass Transportation Program as proposed by such Transit Authority, the governing body of such Public Body may by resolution or ordinance determine that a proposal for the establishment of such Mass Transportation Program shall be submitted to the electorate of such Public Body. Such resolution or ordinance of such Public Body shall describe the Mass Transportation Program to be submitted to such electorate, together with the proposed source of funding therefor, which shall be expressed as either: (i) an ad valorem tax levy expressed as a certain maximum number of cents per each One Hundred Dollars ($100) of assessed valuation, subject to Constitutional limits; (ii) an occupational license tax, subject to the limitations of this Act; or (iii) an annual motor vehicle license tax, subject to the limitations of this Act.

In such event, the election on the proposition regarding such Mass Transportation Program shall be held simultaneously within such Transit Area by all such Public Bodies and the notice of the election shall be uniform.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 96A is created to read as follows:

Said election may, but need not, be held in conjunction with a regularly scheduled November election or a primary election as otherwise provided by law. The proposal to be submitted to the electorate of such Public Body or Public Bodies, or Transit Area of such Transit Authority, as the case may be, shall be so framed that any voter who wishes to vote in favor of the Mass Transportation Program and the financing source therefor may signify his approval by voting "yes", and any voter who wishes to vote against the Mass Transportation Program and the funding therfor may do so by voting "No".

(2) In the event any such Mass Transportation Program proposal is submitted to the electorate of any individual Public Body, such proposition and the source of funding therefor shall be approved if a majority of those voting on the proposal within the Public Body shall vote "yes".

(3) In the event any such Mass Transportation Program proposal is submitted to the electorate of any Transit Area of any such Transit Authority by simultaneous submission by all Public Bodies who are at the time of such submission members of such Transit Authority, such proposition and the source of funding therefor shall be approved if a majority of those voting on the proposal within the Transit Area of such Transit Authority shall vote "yes".

(4) Any additional voted levies of ad valorem taxes approved by electorates pursuant to this Act, shall in the case of individual Public Bodies, be added to and constitute legal tax levies of such individual Public Bodies within the meaning of the Constitution of Kentucky, and shall, in the case of votes taken in Transit Areas of Transit Authorities, constitute legal tax levies of each and every individual Public Body which is a member of any such Transit Authority within the meaning of the Constitution of Kentucky.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 96A is created to read as follows:

(1) The elections herein authorized shall, in the case of any individual Public Body, be called and held by the particular public officials of said Public Body responsible for the calling and holding of general elections. All ad valorem tax receipts, occupational tax receipts and mass transit license fee receipts derived in respect of any such elections shall be collected by the public officials of such Public Body statutorily responsible for such collection, and shall pending disbursement be held in a separate and special trust fund identified as the Mass Transit Trust Fund by said Public Body to be used solely and only for purposes of the Mass Transportation Program approved by the electorate of such Public Body, as hereinafter provided. Moneys therefrom shall be disbursed only upon order of the chief financial officer of such Public Body.

(2) In the event any election authorized by this Act is, pursuant to the provisions of this Act, to be submitted to the electorate of any Transit Area of a Transit Authority by all of the Public Bodies which are members of any such Transit Authority, and if one of such Public Bodies is a County which encompasses one or more additional Public Bodies, the Clerk of the County Court of such County (or the Clerk of each County Court in the event more than one County shall be a member of such Transit Authority) shall cause such election proposition to appear on the ballots or voting machine slips used in respect of the election on such proposition. All ad valorem tax receipts, occupational tax receipts and mass transit license fee receipts derived in respect of any such elections shall be collected by the proper public officials of such County or Counties statutorily responsible for such collection, and shall pending disbursement be held in a separate and special trust fund identified as the Mass Transit Trust Fund to be used solely and only for purposes of the Mass Transportation Program approved by the electorate of such Transit Area, as hereinafter provided. Said Mass Transit Trust Fund shall in such case be held in the custody of all Public Bodies which are members of such Transit Authority and moneys therefrom shall be disbursed only upon orders of the chief financial officers of all such Public Bodies.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 96A is created to read as follows:

Not less than annually any Transit Authority for the benefit of which a Mass Transportation Program has been approved by the electorate of any Public Body, or by the electorate of its Transit Area in the event all Public Bodies comprising the membership of such Transit Authority have submitted such Mass Transportation Program to the electorate of such Transit Area as provided by this Act, shall file with such Public Body or Public Bodies an annual budget of current expenses and an annual report, together with such other periodic reports and data as such Public Bodies may reasonably require and prescribe. Such annual budget may be approved or disapproved by such Public Body or Public Bodies, or may be caused by such Public Body or Public Bodies to be revised, amended, or otherwise altered in the sound discretion of such Public Body or Public Bodies. Provided, however, that no disbursement of any funds within any Mass Transit Trust Fund shall be made until such annual budget shall in its final form be approved by the governing bodies of all such Public Bodies.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 96A is created to read as follows:

(1) In addition to all other powers and rights granted by KRS Chapter 96A, Public Bodies are expressly authorized and empowered to enter into joint agreements and multi-municipal compacts with Transit Authorities, and all other units of government, both Federal and State, for the acquisition, maintenance and operation of mass transportation facilities. Any such agreements may provide for proportionate payments by such Public Bodies for transit purposes based upon any reasonable criteria. including, but not by way of limitation, population and actual mass transit services rendered.

(2) Any such joint agreement or multi-municipal compact may provide by its terms that notwithstanding the fact that a Mass Transportation Program, together with the source of funding therefor, has been approved by the electorate or electorates of one or more of such Public Bodies, any such Public Body may, in any annual period, in lieu of utilizing such source of funding as approved by the electorate of any such Public Body, use and apply for purposes of making payments or contributions under such joint agreement or multi-municipal compact any other funds of such Public Body legally available therefor. Provided, however, that any source of funding approved by the electorate in connection with the approval of such a Mass Transportation Program shall not, as a result of such permissive funding by any such Public Body from other legally available sources, be rendered void or nugatory.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 96A is created to read as follows:

The continued operation of mass transportation facilities within the Commonwealth of Kentucky for the benefit of the general public constitutes a matter of the most extreme public need and urgency, and the increasing inability of many cities and counties in Kentucky to operate or cause to be operated mass transportation facilities for the benefit of the general public and for the protection of the health, safety and welfare without the curtailment of other essential governmental functions constitutes a serious threat to the Commonwealth. Accordingly, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its approval by the Governor of Kentucky as prescribed by law.

(4) [(6)] In any case where the federal government or any of its agencies furnishes by loans or grants any part of the funds used in constructing public works, and if the federal government or its agencies prescribe predetermined prevailing minimum wages to be paid to mechanics and laborers employed in the construction of such public works and where KRS 337.505 to 337.550 is also applicable, those wages in each classification which are higher shall prevail.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

(1) Except as may otherwise be provided pursuant to this Act, every employer shall pay to each of his employes wages at a rate of not less than $1.25 an hour, beginning July 1, 1974 increasing to $1.50 an hour, beginning January 1, 1975.

(2) For any employe engaged in an occupation in which he customarily and regularly receives more than twenty dollars per month in tips from patrons or others, the employer may pay as a minimum fifty percent of the wage prescribed in subsection (1) of this section if he can establish by his records that for each week where credit is taken, when adding tips received to wages paid, not less than the minimum rate prescribed in subsection (1) was received by the employe. No employer shall use all or part of any tips or gratuities received by employes toward the payment of the statutory minimum hourly wage as required by this section. Nothing, however, shall prevent employes from entering into an agreement to divide tips or gratuities among themselves.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

No employer shall employ any of his employes for a work week longer than forty hours, unless such employe receives compensation for his employment in excess of forty hours in a work week at a rate of not less than one and one-half times the hourly wage rate at which he is employed. This provision does not apply to employes of retail stores engaged in work connected with selling, purchasing and distributing merchandise, wares, goods, articles or commodities or to employes of restaurant operations or to employes as defined and exempted from the overtime provision of the Fair Labor Standards Act in section 213(6) of Title 29, U.S.C.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

Regulations issued by the Commissioner under this Act may include, but are not limited to, regulations defining and governing bona fide executive, administrative or professional employes; regulations governing learners, apprentices, handicapped workers, sheltered workshop employes, and students, regulations governing outside salesmen; bonuses; part-time rates; special pay for special or extra work; allowances as part of the wage rates applicable under this Act for board, lodging and gratuities; other facilities or services furnished by employers and used by employes; and other special items usual in a particular employer-employe relationship.

Section 5. KRS 337.310 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All questions of fact arising under this Act and KRS 337.340 [KRS 337.210 to 337.360] except as provided in this section, shall be decided by the commissioner. There shall be no appeal from the decision of the commissioner on any question of fact, but there shall be a right of review by the circuit court. Either party may, within twenty (20) days after the rendition of a final order of the commissioner, by petition appeal to the circuit court that would have jurisdiction to try an action for breach of contract.

(2) The review is limited to determining whether or not:

(a) The commissioner or director acted without or in excess of his powers;

(b) The order or decision was procured by fraud;

(c) The order or decision is not in conformity to the provisions of this Act and KRS 337.340 [KRS 337.210 to 337.360]; and

(d) If findings of fact are in issue, whether they support the order or decision.

(3) The circuit court shall enter judgment affirming, modifying or setting aside the order or decision.

Section 6. KRS 337.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Every employer shall keep a record of:

[(a) The ages of all minors in his employ;]

(a) [(b)] The amount paid each pay period to each employe;

(b) [(c)] The hours worked each day and each week by each employe; and

(c) [(d)] Such other information as the commissioner requires.

(2) Such records shall be kept on file for at least one (1) year after entry. They shall be open to the inspection and transcript of the commissioner or his authorized representative at any reasonable time, and every employer shall furnish to the commissioner or his authorized representative on demand a sworn statement of them. The commissioner may require the statement to be upon forms prescribed or approved by him.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided herein, information secured from inspection of the records, or from the transcriptions thereof, or from inspection of the employer's premises by the Commissioner or his authorized representatives, shall be held confidential and shall not be disclosed or be open to any person except such information may be made available to:

(1) Officials concerned with, and for the purposes of administration of the laws relating to matters under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner;

(2) Any agency of this or any other state, or any federal agency for the purpose of enforcing this Act;

(3) To the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Division of the United States, Department of Labor.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

Every employer subject to any provision of this Act or of any regulations or orders issued under this Act shall keep copies of such summaries of wage and hour laws and regulations issued under this Act posted in a conspicuous and accessible place in or about the premises wherein any person subject thereto is employed. Employers shall be furnished copies of such summaries, orders and regulations by the state on request without charge. Failure to mail such summaries to an employer shall not relieve the employer from the duty of complying with the provisions.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any employer who pays any employe less than wages and overtime compensation to which such employe is entitled under or by virtue of this Act shall be liable to such employe affected for the full amount of such wages and overtime compensation, less any amount actually paid to such employe by the employer, for an additional equal amount as liquidated damages, and for costs and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be allowed by the court. Provided, that if, in any action commenced to recover such unpaid wages or liquidated damages, the employer shows to the satisfaction of the court that the act or omission giving rise to such action was in good faith and that he had reasonable grounds for believing that his act or omission was not a violation of this Act, the court may, in its sound discretion, award no liquidated damages, or award any amount thereof not to exceed the amount specified in this section. Any agreement between such employe and the employer to work for less than the applicable wage rate shall be no defense to such action. Such action may be maintained in any court of competent jurisdiction by any one or more employes for and in behalf of himself or themselves.

(2) At the written request of any employe paid less than the amount to which he is entitled under the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner may take an assignment of such wage claim in trust for the assigning employe and may bring any legal action necessary to collect such claim, and the employer shall be required to pay the costs and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be allowed by the court. The Commissioner in case of suit shall have power to join various claimants against the same employer in one action.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

Any standards relating to minimum wages, maximum hours, overtime compensation, or other working conditions, in effect under any other law of this state which are more favorable to employes than standards applicable hereunder shall not be deemed to be amended, rescinded or otherwise affected by this Act but shall continue in full force and effect until they are specifically superseded by standards more favorable to such employes by operation of or in accordance with this Act or regulations issued thereunder.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to interfere with, impede, or in any way diminish the right of employes to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing in order to establish wages in excess of the applicable minimum or to establish hours of work shorter than the applicable minimum under this Act.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 337 is created to read as follows:

If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application thereof, to persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Section 13. KRS 337.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any firm, individual, partnership or corporation that violates KRS 337.020 shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $100 for each offense. Each failure to pay an employe the wages when due him under KRS 337.020 shall constitute a separate offense.

(2) Any person who violates KRS 337.030 shall be fined not more than $500 for each violation.

(3) Any employer who violates KRS 337.050 shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $200 or imprisoned for not more than thirty (30) days, or both.

(4) Any person who violates KRS 337.060 shall be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned for not more than sixty (60) days, or both.

(5) Any employer who violates any provision of sections 2 through 12 of this Act, or willfully hinders or delays the Commissioner or his authorized representative in the performance of his duties under section 4 of this Act, or fails to keep and preserve any records as required under sections 6 and 8 of this Act, or falsifies any such record, or refuses to make any such record or transcription thereof accessible to the Commissioner or his authorized representative shall, upon conviction therefore be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.

[(5) Any employer or agent of an employer who fails to keep and present records as provided in KRS 337.320 or who falsifies such records, or who fails to keep posted a copy of the minimum fair-wage orders as required in KRS 337.330, or who in any way hinders the commissioner or his authorized representative in the enforcement of KRS 337.210 to 337.360 shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $100. Each day of violation of any of these provisions shall constitute a separate offense.]

(6) Any employer who pays or agrees to pay wages at a rate less than the rate applicable under sections 2 and 3 of this Act, or any wage order issued pursuant thereto, shall, upon conviction therefore, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.

[(6) Any person who violates subsection (1) of KRS 337.350 shall be fined not less than $50.00 nor more than $200.]

(7) Any employer who discharges or in any other manner discriminates against any employe because such employe has made any complaint to his employer, to the Commissioner, or to his authorized representative that he has not been paid wages in accordance with this Act or regulations issued thereunder, or because such employe has caused to be instituted or is about to cause to be instituted any proceeding under or related to this Act, or because such employe has testified or is about to testify in any such proceeding, shall be deemed in violation of this Act and shall, upon conviction therefor, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.

[(7) Any person who violates subsection (2) of KRS 337.350 shall be fined not less than $50.00 nor more than $200 or be imprisoned not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days, or both. Each day subsection (2) of KRS 337.350 is violated shall constitute a separate offense.]

[(8) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 337.370 to 337.400 shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $50.00 for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense he shall be fined not less than $50.00 nor more than $200 or imprisoned not less than ten (10) days nor more than ninety (90) days, or both.]

(8) [(9)] Any person who violates KRS 337.530 shall be fined not more than $100.

(9) [(10)] Any contractor or subcontractor who violates any wage or work hours provision in any contract under KRS 337.505 to 337.550 shall be fined not more than $100 for each offense, and said contractor or subcontractor shall make full restitution to all employes to whom he is legally indebted by reason of said violation. The prime contractor shall be jointly and severally liable with a subcontractor for wages due an employe of the subcontractor. For a flagrant or repeated violation the offending contractor or subcontractor shall be barred from bidding on, or working on, any and all public works contracts, either in his name or in the name of any other company, firm, or other entity in which he might be interested for a period of two (2) years from the date of the last offense. Each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense, and the violation as affects each individual worker shall constitute a separate offense.

(10) [(11)] Any public authority, public official, or member of a public authority who wilfully fails to comply or to require compliance with KRS 337.505 or 337.550 shall be fined not more than $100 for each offense. Each day of violation shall constitute a separate offense. Where a public authority, public official or member of a public authority wilfully or negligently fails to comply with KRS 337.505 to 337.550 and such failure results in damages, injury or loss to any person, such public authority, public official, or member of a public authority may be held liable therefor in a civil action.

(11) [(12)] Any person who fails to comply with KRS 337.070 shall be fined not less than $10.00, nor more than $100 for each offense and each day that such failure continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 341.380 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All benefits shall be paid through employment offices, or such other agencies as may be designated by regulations of the commission. Claims for all payments of benefits shall be made in accordance with regulations of the commission.

(2) The weekly benefit rate payable to an eligible worker for weeks of unemployment shall, except as provided in KRS 341.390, be an amount equal to one twenty-third of his base-period wages in that calendar quarter of his base period in which such wages were highest, except that no worker's weekly benefit rate shall be less than twelve dollars nor more than the maximum rate as determined in accordance with subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Prior to the first day of July of each year the commissioner shall determine the average weekly wage for insured employment by dividing the average monthly employment, as obtained by dividing the total monthly employment reported by subject employers for the preceding calendar year by twelve, into the total wages reported by such employers for such calendar year and dividing by fifty-two. Sixty percent [Fifty percent] of the amount thus obtained, adjusted to the nearest multiple of one dollar, shall constitute the maximum weekly benefit rate for those workers whose benefit year commences on or after the first day of July of such year and prior to the first day of July of the next following year.

(4) The maximum amount of benefits payable to any worker within any benefit year shall be the amount equal to whichever is the lesser of (a) twenty-six times his weekly benefit rate or (b) one-third of his base-period wages, except that no worker's maximum amount shall be less than fifteen times his weekly benefit rate. Such maximum amount, if not a multiple of one dollar, shall be adjusted to the nearest multiple of one dollar.

In no case shall an employe be required to take a lunch period sooner than three (3) hours after his work shift commences, nor more than five (5) hours from the time his work shift commences. This section shall not be construed to negate any provision of a collective bargaining agreement.

The Committee Amendment to the Committee Substitute to HB 535 is as follows:

HB 693, AN ACT relating to workmen's compensation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 342.316 is amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) The employer liable for compensation for occupational disease shall be the employer in whose employment the employe was last exposed to the hazard of the occupational disease during any period in which this section is applicable to a coal mine, an operator who acquired it or substantially all of its assets from a person who was its operator on and after January 1, 1973 shall be liable for, and secure the payment of, the benefits which would have been payable by the prior operator under this section with respect to miners previously employed in the mine if it had not been acquired by such later operator. At the same time, however, this subsection does not relieve the prior operator of any liability under this section. Also, it does not affect whatever rights the later operator might have against the prior operator. Said employer shall have the right to contribution from each previous employer, as determined in an independent civil action, wherein the employe was similarly exposed to the hazard of said occupational disease, in a sum equal to the ratio that each exposure employment time bears to the total exposure employment time except as otherwise provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (13) of this section.

(b) The time of the beginning of compensation payments shall be the date of the employe's last injurious exposure to the cause of the disease, or the date of actual disability, whichever is later.

(2) (a) The procedure with respect to the giving of notice and determination of claims in occupational disease cases and the compensation and medical benefits payable for disability or death due to such disease shall be the same as in cases of accidental injury or death under the general provisions of this chapter except that notice of claim shall be given to the employer as soon as practicable after the employe first experiences a distinct manifestation of an occupational disease in the form of symptoms reasonably sufficient to apprise him that he has contacted such disease, or a diagnosis of such disease is first communicated to him, whichever shall first occur.

(b) The procedure with respect to filing of claims shall be as follows:

1. The application shall set forth the work history of the applicant with concise description of injurious exposure to a specific occupational disease together with the names and addresses of employer or employers with the approximate date of employment to the nearest month and year, supported by affidavit of the applicant's last employer of six months or more. The affidavit shall set forth the applicant's period of employment, the applicant's average weekly wage, and the type of work performed by the claimant, and shall be signed by an authorized agent of the employer and in the event the affidavit cannot be obtained the voluntary submission of any other documents such as payroll stubs, W-2 forms or social security forms, shall be deemed competent to prove the period of employment. The application shall also contain an authorization for any party defendant to obtain from the Social Security Administration the employment and earnings record of the claimant. The application [and] shall also include [with the application] two written medical reports supporting his claim. These medical reports shall be made on the basis of comprehensive clinical examinations and shall contain full and complete statements of the results thereof. The reports shall be made by duly licensed physicians. The clinical examinations shall include x-ray examinations. However, the failure of an x-ray examination to disclose the presence of an occupational disease shall not affect the legal presumption referred to in subsection (5) of this section.

2. The filing of a properly executed application for adjustment of claim, accompanied by the two medical reports described in subparagraph 1. of this paragraph, shall satisfy the requirements of the presumptive clause set out in subsection (5) of this section and the burden of proof shall immediately thereafter shift to the employer and the Special Fund.

3. Immediately upon receipt of said application for adjustment of claim, the board shall notify the affected employer, the Special Fund and all other party defendants [any other interested party] of such claim and shall furnish them with a full and complete copy of the claim.

4. Upon receipt of notice of claim the employer, the Special Fund, and any other party defendant [interested party] shall have the right as provided under KRS 342.021 to have the claimant examined by competent medical experts.

5. Within sixty days of the filing of the claim the employer, the Special Fund, and any other party defendant [interested party] shall notify the board and the claimant whether the right to have the claimant examined is being exercised and in the event such right is being exercised the notice shall state the name and address of the physician and the time of the appointment for the examination of the claimant and in the event the diseased employe is deceased his medical report shall be forwarded to such physician. All expenses shall be paid by the party requesting the examination on presentation of a verified bill, and within thirty (30) days after such examination a report shall be transmitted by the physician to the employer, the Special Fund, the claimant and any other party defendant. Within sixty (60) days after such examination the Special Fund or the employer or any other party defendant shall notify the board whether the claim will be resisted and if the Special Fund, employer or other party defendant elects to resist the reasons for resisting shall be stated in detail. Failure to so notify the board shall result in an award for the claimant. [whether or not the claim will be resisted. If the claim is not resisted, then the board shall within ten days enter an order and award for the claimant.] If the claim is resisted, the board shall set a date for a hearing and shall notify all parties thereof.

In litigated claims the regular procedures prescribed by the Workmen's Compensation Board shall be followed.

6. No claim for compensation for occupational pneumoconiosis or silicosis shall be awarded under this section until such time as claimant has established exposure to the hazards of the disease for at least 180 working days within the Commonwealth of Kentucky. Said 180 days must be within the 365 days immediately preceding the day of last exposure.

(3) The right to compensation under this chapter for disability resulting from an occupational disease shall be forever barred unless a claim is filed with the Workmen's Compensation Board within three years after the last injurious exposure to the occupational hazard or after the employe first experiences a distinct manifestation of an occupational disease in the form of symptoms reasonably sufficient to apprise him that he has contracted the disease, whichever shall last occur; and if death results from the occupational disease within said period, unless a claim therefor be filed with the Workmen's Compensation Board within three years after such death; provided, however, that notice of such claim shall be deemed waived in case of disability or death where the employer, or his insurance carrier, voluntarily makes payment therefor, or, if the incurrence of the disease or the death of the employe, and its cause was known to the employer. Provided, however, that the right to compensation for any occupational disease shall be forever barred unless a claim is filed with the Workmen's Compensation Board within five years from the last injurious exposure to the occupational hazard, except that, in cases of radiation disease, a claim must be filed within 20 years from the last injurious exposure to the occupational hazard.

(4) The amount of compensation payable for disability due to occupational disease or for death from such disease, and the time and manner of its payment, shall be the same as provided for accidental injury or death under the general provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, but in no event to exceed such amounts as were in effect at the time of the last injurious exposure, and provided further, that the time of the beginning of compensation payments shall be the date of the employe's last injurious exposure to the cause of the disease, or the date of actual disability, whichever is later, and provided further, that in case of death where the employe has been awarded compensation or made timely claim within the period provided for in this section, an employe has suffered continuous disability to the date of his death occurring at any time within 20 years from the date of disability, his dependents, if any, shall be awarded compensation for his death as provided for under the general provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act and in this section.

(5) Where the occupational disease is a compensable pneumoconiosis and there has been employment exposure for 10 years or more to an industrial hazard sufficient to cause the disability of pneumoconiosis there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the disability or death was due to the compensable pneumoconiosis.

(6) Where the employe is suffering or suffered from a chronic dust disease of the lung which (a) when diagnosed by chest roentgenogram, yields one or more large opacities (greater than one centimeter in diameter) and would be classified in category A, B, or C in the International Classification of Radiographs of the Pneumoconioses by the International Labor Organization, (B) when diagnosed by biopsy or autopsy, yields massive lesions in the lung, or (c) when diagnosis is made by other means, would be a condition which could reasonably be expected to yield results described in paragraph (a) or (b) if diagnosis had been made in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a) or (b), then there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that he is totally disabled due to pneumoconiosis or that his death was due to pneumoconiosis, as the case may be.

(7) In case of disability or death from silicosis, coal workers' pneumoconiosis, or any other compensable pneumoconiosis, complicated with tuberculosis of the lungs, pulmonary emphysema or other pulmonary dysfunction and there has been employment exposures to harmful dust or industrial hazards reasonably competent to produce such accompanying disease or dysfunction, there is a rebuttable legal presumption that all resultant disability therefrom is work related and compensable, and compensation shall be payable as for the uncomplicated disease, provided, however, that the disease or dysfunction was an essential factor in causing such disability or death.

(8) If an autopsy has been performed, no testimony relative thereto shall be competent unless the employer or his representative has available findings and reports of the pathologist or doctor who performed the autopsy examination.

(9) No compensation shall be payable for occupational disease if the employe at the time of entering the employment of the employer by whom compensation would otherwise be payable, falsely represented himself, in writing, as not having been previously disabled, laid off, or compensated in damages or otherwise, because of such disease, or failed or omitted truthfully to state to the best of his knowledge, in answer to written inquiry made by the employer, the place, duration and nature of previous employment, or, to the best of his knowledge, the previous state of his health.

(10) No compensation for death from occupational disease shall be payable to any person whose relationship to the deceased, which, under the provisions of this chapter would give right to compensation, arose, subsequent to the beginning of the first compensable disability, save only to after-born children of a marriage existing at the beginning of such disability.

(11) Whenever any claimant misconceives his remedy and files an application for adjustment of claim under the general provisions of this chapter and it is subsequently discovered, at any time before the final disposition of such cause, that the claim for injury, disability or death which was the basis for such application should properly have been made under the provisions of this section, then the application so filed may be amended in form or substance, or both, to assert a claim for such injury, disability or death under the provisions of this section, and it shall be deemed to have been so filed as amended on the date of the original filing thereof, and such compensation may be awarded as is warranted by the whole evidence pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. When such amendment is submitted, further or additional evidence may be heard by the board when deemed necessary. Nothing this section contains shall be construed to be or permit a waiver of any of the provisions of this chapter with reference to notice of time for filing of a claim, but notice of filing a claim, if given or done, shall be deemed to be a notice of filing of a claim under provisions of this chapter, if given or done within the time required herein.

(12) When an employe has an occupational disease that is covered by this chapter, the employer in whose employment he was last injuriously exposed to the hazard of the disease, and the employer's insurance carrier, if any, at the time of the exposure, shall alone be liable therefor, without right to contribution from any prior employer or insurance carrier; except as otherwise provided herein.

(13) (a) The employer liable for compensation for occupational diseases, other than silicosis or any other compensable pneumoconiosis, which developed to the point of disablement only after an exposure of five or more years, or for silicosis and any other compensable pneumoconiosis, shall be the employer in whose employment the employe was last exposed to the hazard of such occupational disease. In those cases where disability or death are not conclusively proven to be the result of such last exposure all compensation shall be paid out of the Special Fund for all claims filed prior to January 1, 1973; and 75 percent shall be paid by the Special Fund and 25 percent by the employer for all claims filed thereafter. Provided, however, that where there is an award in which a specified percent of the compensation shall be paid by the Special Fund and a specified percent by the employer, all compensation shall be paid by the Special Fund, and the Special Fund shall be reimbursed for such payments by the employer or his carrier on a quarterly basis. In all other cases of occupational diseases, other than silicosis or any other compensable pneumoconiosis, which developed to the point of disablement only after an exposure of five or more years, or for silicosis and any other compensable pneumoconiosis, the compensation for disability or death due to such diseases shall be paid jointly by the employer and the Special Fund, and the employer shall be liable for sixty percent of the compensation due and the Special Fund shall be liable for forty percent of the compensation due. Provided, however, that when there is a joint award against the carrier or self-insured employer and the Special Fund under this section, all of the compensation awarded shall be paid by the carrier or self-insured employer, and the carrier or self-insured employer shall be reimbursed for such payments from the Special Fund on a quarterly basis and under such regulations as the board may provide for such purpose.

(b) In all claims for compensation partially payable by the Special Fund the Commissioner of Labor, as custodian of said fund, shall be designated as co-defendant.

(c) In all agreements for the payment of compensation and awards the amount payable by the employer and the amount payable out of the Special Fund shall be separately stated. An award against the employer shall be for only the percentage of the total compensation which the employer is obligated to pay. A separate award shall be made against the Special Fund for the balance of the compensation payable. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the Commissioner of Labor, as custodian of the Special Fund, from entering into agreements to pay the compensation for which it is liable; provided, however, that where compensation is payable by both the employer and the Special Fund, the commissioner shall not enter into an agreement unless the employer is a party to the agreement.

(14)(a) In all cases where a permanent partial disability is awarded, due to an occupational disease, and the claimant subsequently is employed and due to such employment the occupational disease is aggravated into a totally disabling condition, the excess percentage of disability over and above the percentage of disability awarded to the claimant immediately prior to his subsequent employment shall be the liability of and payable from the Special Fund.

(b) Where the above paragraph is applicable the procedures followed shall be those as outlined in KRS 342.125.

(c) In those cases where an employe has been granted a permanent partial award due to an occupational disease and has subsequently been re-employed said partial permanent award shall not be considered for apportionment purposes under KRS 342.120.

Section 2. KRS 342.320 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All fees of attorneys and physicians, and all charges of hospitals under this chapter, shall be subject to the approval of the board. No attorney fees shall be allowed or approved against any party not represented by said attorney, nor shall any attorney fee be allowed or approved exceeding an amount equal to 20 per cent of the amount recovered as actuarily determined on past and future benefits according to the American Experience Table of Mortality and the Remarriage Tables of the Dutch Royal Insurance Institute. In occupational disease claims, no fee for an attorney shall be allowed or approved exceeding a total amount equal to 20 percent of five years life expectancy of the claimant, regardless of the number of years the claimant's life expectancy is actually determined to be, and where an award is made to a claimant in a non-resisted claim as established under the provisions of KRS 342.316(2)(a) (5) the attorney fee shall not exceed $750. Provided, however, the board, in making an allowance of attorney fees, shall in each case examine the record to ascertain the extent of the services rendered, and fix a reasonable fee for the services rendered, not to exceed the maximum authorized by this section. The board may reduce the attorney's fee to an amount commensurate with the services performed, or may deny or reduce an attorney's fee upon proof of solicitation of employment.

(2) No attorney's fee in any case involving benefits under this chapter shall be paid until the fee is approved by the board, and any contract for the payment of attorney's fees otherwise than as provided in this section shall be void. The entire attorney's fee in a lump sum shall be paid directly to the attorney of record, and the board in allowing or approving an attorney's fee, as provided in this section, shall order the payment of same directly to the attorney, commuting sufficient of the final payments of compensation payable under the award to a lump sum for that purpose.

(3) The General Assembly declares that by the enactment of subsections (2) (b) and (7) of KRS 342.316, it is the legislative intent to encourage settlement and prompt administrative handling of such claims and thereby reduce expenses to claimants for compensation under the provisions of KRS 342.316, and the board shall give due regard to such legislative intent in the handling of uncontested claims and the allowance of attorney's fees therein.

HB 348, AN ACT providing for judicial review of administrative orders.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 276 is created to read as follows:

Any party to a proceeding before the Railroad Commission who is aggrieved by a final order entered by the Commission in such proceeding may, within twenty (20) days after being served with the order, or within twenty (20) days, after being served with an order disposing of an application for rehearing or modification, if such applications shall be permitted under the Commission's rules, appeal such final order to the Franklin Circuit Court. No order of the Commission shall become final or appealable so long as there is pending before the Commission a properly filed application for rehearing or modification.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 276 is created to read as follows:

The appeal shall be taken by filing in the Franklin Circuit Court a complaint against the Commission stating the grounds of the appeal, to which complaint a copy of the order appealed from shall be attached. Injunctive relief may be sought and granted in the manner provided by law.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 276 is created to read as follows:

Immediately upon being served with the summons on the complaint, the Commission shall deliver to the Clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court a complete, stenographically recorded transcript of all proceedings had and testimony taken before the Commission, duly certified by the reporter. The cost of preparing and certifying the transcript, which shall not exceed the rates allowed the official court reporter, shall be paid to the Commission by the party taking the appeal, and taxed as part of the costs, to be paid as directed by the court upon final determination of the action. Copies of the transcript shall be furnished at cost to any party to the proceedings.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 276 is created to read as follows:

The Commission's answer shall be served within twenty (20) days after service of the summons and may take the form of a general denial.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 276 is created to read as follows:

(1) In all proceedings in the Franklin Circuit Court, the burden of proof shall be upon the party seeking to vacate or set aside the Commission's order, which order shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. No evidence other than that presented to and heard by the Commission shall be introduced except such evidence as the court is satisfied, by sworn testimony, could not have been discovered and produced before the Commission by the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(2) All such appeals shall be advanced on the docket and disposed of expeditiously.

(3) Any party may appeal from the final judgment of the Franklin Circuit Court to the Court of Appeals in the manner provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 6. KRS 276.370 is repealed.

The Committee Substitute to HB 348 is as follows:

HB 348, AN ACT providing for judicial review of orders of the Kentucky Railroad Commission.

Section 1. KRS 276.370 is amended to read as follows:

The Kentucky Railroad Commission may compel obedience to its lawful orders by mandamus, injunction or other proper proceedings in the Franklin Circuit Court, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, and such proceedings shall have priority over all pending cases. Any enforcement proceedings as provided herein shall not be brought, or, having been brought, shall be stayed during the pendency of any judicial review of the award or order pursuant to Section 276.375.

[The railroad commission shall fix such reasonable time as it deems proper in which the persons affected by an award or order entered by it shall notify the commission of their intention to comply with the award or order. If, at the expiration of that time, the persons have failed to file with the commission a statement in writing that they will proceed to comply with the order or award, or if after filing such a statement they fail to comply with the order or award, the chairman of the commission shall file a copy of the award or order, and of the evidence heard by the commission, in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county that would have jurisdiction of the controversy under the governing provisions of the statutes, and the clerk shall enter the case on the docket for trial. Summons shall be issued as in other cases, requiring the person against whom the award was rendered or the order made to appear within the time allowed in ordinary cases and show cause why the award or order should not be complied with. If the person summoned fails to appear, judgment shall be rendered by default and the same proceedings had thereon as in other ordinary cases. If a trial is demanded, the findings of the commission shall be prima facie evidence as to the facts found, and no evidence other than that heard by the commission shall be introduced by either party, except such evidence as the court is satisfied, by sworn testimony, could not have been produced before the commission by the exercise of reasonable diligence. In all other respects the case shall be tried and the judgment and proceedings thereon shall be the same as in other ordinary cases. The commission or any party may appeal from the judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals. All proceedings in court under this section shall have precedence over all other actions except criminal prosecutions.]

Section 2. KRS 276.375 is created to read as follows:

This section may be referred to as the "Railroad Commission Judicial Review Act."

(1) This Act governs judicial review of final decisions of the Kentucky Railroad Commission only.

(2) Any party to a proceeding before the Kentucky Railroad Commission (hereinafter referred to in this Act as the Commission) who has exhausted all administrative remedies available within the Commission, and who is aggrieved by a final decision of the Commission, is entitled to judicial review of such final decision under this Act, but not otherwise.

(3) The Commission may, in accordance with its General Rules of Practice, and if sufficient reason therefor be made to appear, grant applications for rehearing, reargument, modification or reconsideration of its orders.

(4) If after rehearing, reargument or reconsideration of a decision or order, it shall appear that the original decision or order is in any respect unjust or unwarranted, the Commission may reverse, change or modify the same accordingly. Any decision or order made after rehearing, reargument or reconsideration, reversing, changing or modifying the original determination shall be subject to the same provisions with respect to rehearing, reargument or reconsideration as an original order.

(5) Where application for rehearing, reargument, reconsideration or modification of a decision or order of the Commission is made in accordance with the provisions of this section and the rules and regulations of the Commission, and the decision or order has not yet become effective, the decision or order shall be stayed or postponed pending disposition of the matter by the Commission. If the decision or order has become effective, the making of such an application shall not excuse any person from complying with or obeying the decision or order or operate to stay or postpone the enforcement thereof, without the special order of the Commission. Provided, however, that the Commission must act on such petition within 20 days of its filing with the Commission and the failure to so act results in such petition being denied as a matter of law and the decision or order in question thereupon becomes final and subject to judicial review pursuant to the provision of this Act.

(6) When an application for rehearing, reargument, reconsideration or modification of any Commission decision or order shall have been made and shall have been denied, either expressly or as a matter of law, or after rehearing, reargument or reconsideration, otherwise disposed of by the Commission, a suit to review, enjoin, suspend or set aside such decision or order, in whole or in part, may be brought under the provisions of this Act, but not otherwise.

(7) Suits to review, enjoin, suspend, or set aside final Commission decisions or orders are instituted by filing a petition in the Franklin Circuit Court within 20 days after the party bringing such suit is served with the decision or order sought to be reviewed, enjoined, suspended or set aside, within 20 days of the day a decision or order becomes final under KRS 276.375 (5) or within 20 days after the party bringing such suit is served with an order disposing of a petition for rehearing, reargument, reconsideration or modification. Copies of the petition shall be served upon the Commission and all parties to the Commission proceeding sought to be reviewed.

(8) All actions specified in Section 276.375 (7) shall be brought by or against the Kentucky Railroad Commission.

(9) Any party or parties in interest to the proceedings before the Commission, in which a decision or order is made, may appear as parties on their own motion and as of right, and be represented by their counsel, in any action involving the review of such decision or order or any part thereof.

(10) The pendency of an action to review, enjoin, set aside or suspend any order of the Commission shall not of itself stay or suspend the operation of the order, but the court may, in the manner provided by law, and subject to the provisions of Section 276.375 (11) hereof, restrain or suspend, in whole or in part, the operation of the order pending the final hearing and determination of the action.

(11) Subject to the exceptions enumerated in this subsection, injunctive relief may be sought and granted in the manner provided by law. Provided, however, that in no event or under any circumstances shall any court, clerk of court, or county judge grant or issue any temporary restraining order or temporary injunction during the pendency of any action under this section unless and until the party requesting such restraining order or temporary injunction has given adequate bond as required by Kentucky Rule of Civil Procedure 65.05, the provisions of any other sections of Kentucky Revised Statutes, Rules, or cases to the contrary notwithstanding. The court, clerk of court, or county judge shall have no power or discretion to relieve any applicant for a temporary restraining order or temporary injunction from the requirement of posting such bond. Provided, further, that no temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction enjoining or restraining the collection of increased rates and charges, shall be issued in cases where the Commission has approved, authorized or required tariffs of increased rates or charges, when one of the provisions of such tariffs requires the railroads collecting such increased charges to refund to the persons paying such charges the difference between the rate or charge collected and the rate or charge finally approved, authorized or required by the Commission. In all such cases, the Commission decision or order shall become effective pending review under this section.

(12) Within 30 days after the service of the petition, or within such further time as may be allowed by the court, the Commission shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. The cost of preparing and certifying the record (which shall not exceed the rates allowed the official court reporter) shall be paid to the Commission by the party taking the appeal, and taxed as part of the costs, to be paid as directed by the court upon final determination of the action. Copies of the record shall be furnished at cost to any party to the proceedings. By stipulation of all parties to the proceedings, the record may be shortened. A party unreasonably refusing to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs.

(13) If, before the date set for hearing, application is made to the court for leave to present additional evidence, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there were good reasons for failure to present it in the proceeding before the Commission, the court may order that the additional evidence be taken before the Commission upon conditions determined by the court. The Commission may modify its findings, conclusions, decisions or orders by reason of the additional evidence and shall file that evidence and any modifications, new findings, new conclusions, new decisions or new orders with the reviewing court.

(14) The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury and shall be confined to the record of the proceeding before the Commission. In cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the Commission, not shown in the record, proof thereon may be taken in the court. The court, upon request, shall hear oral argument and receive written briefs. In all review actions under this section, the burden of proof shall be borne by the party seeking to enjoin, suspend, set aside or vacate the Commission's decision or order, in whole or in part.

(15) The reviewing court shall:

(a) Compel Commission action unlawfully withheld or unreasonably delayed; and

(b) Hold unlawful and set aside Commission action, findings, conclusions, decisions and orders found to be

1. Arbitrary or capricious, characterized by abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with the law;

2. Contrary to constitutional right, power, privilege or immunity;

3. In excess of statutory jurisdiction or authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right;

4. Deficient because of the Commission's failure to observe procedures required by law; or

5. Unsupported by the preponderance of the reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the record as a whole.

In making the foregoing determinations, the court shall review the whole record or those parts of it cited by a party, and due account shall be taken of the rule of prejudicial error.

No person, corporation or association shall hold or conduct any standardbred horse race meeting for any stake, purse, or reward within the Commonwealth of Kentucky without securing the required license from the commission, and paying to the commission the license fee which the commission may in its discretion prescribe.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 230 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any person desiring to conduct standardbred horse racing within the Commonwealth of Kentucky during any calendar year shall first apply to the commission for a license to do so. The application shall be filed at the commission's general office on or before a day fixed by the commission. The application shall specify the location of the track and the days on which racing is desired to be conducted or held and shall be in the form and contain such other information and data as the commission may, by rule, require.

(2) The commission shall as soon as practicable, but in no event later than February 1 in any calendar year award dates for racing in the Commonwealth during the year. In the event scheduled racing is cancelled by reason of flood, fire, inclement weather, or other causes the commission may award after February 1 additional racing dates to make up for those dates cancelled by such flood, fire, inclement weather, or other causes. The commission may issue such license to conduct a standardbred horse race meeting to any association making the aforesaid application if the commission finds that the proposed conduct of racing by such association would be in the best interest of the public health, safety, and welfare of the immediate community as well as to the Commonwealth, and if by reason of financial stability, track location, traffic flow, facilities for the public, facilities for racing participants and horses, character and reputation for honesty of all persons identified with the association, competence of proposed racing officials and association employes, absence of conflict with other race meetings in time and patronage area, sentiment of the community in which such association proposes to conduct a race meeting, and capability to comply with the rules and rulings of the commission, the licensing of such association would serve to nurture, promote, develop, or improve the standardbred industry in the Commonwealth. As a condition precedent to the issuance of such license, the commission may require a surety bond or other surety conditioned upon the payment of all taxes due the Commonwealth, together with the payment of operating expenses including, but not limited to, purses and awards to owners of horses participating in races.

(3) Every license issued under this section shall specify among other things the name of the person to whom issued, the address and location of the track where the standard race meeting to which it relates is to be held or conducted, and the days and hours of the day when the meeting will be permitted.

(4) A license issued under this section is neither transferable nor assignable and shall not permit the conduct of a standarbred horse race meeting at any track not specified therein. However, if the track specified becomes unsuitable for standardbred horse racing because of flood, fire or other catastrophe or other causes, the commission may, upon application, authorize the meeting, or any remaining portion thereof, to be conducted at any other suitable track available for that purpose, provided that the owner of such track willingly consents to the use thereof.

(5) The commission may at any time require the removal of any official or employe of any association in those instances where it has reason to believe that the official or employe has been guilty of any dishonest practice in connection with standardbred horse racing or has failed to comply with any condition of his license or has violated any law or any rule or regulation of this commission.

(6) The fee for a license issued under this section shall be in such amount as prescribed by the commission.

(7) Every standardbred horse race not licensed under this section is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and the commission may obtain an injunction against the same in the circuit court of the county where the unlicensed race is proposed to take place.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 230 is created to read as follows:

Every person not required to be licensed under Section 9 of this Act who desires to participate in standardbred horse racing in the Commonwealth as a horse owner, trainer, driver, apprentice driver, agent, stable employe, racing official, association employe, mutual clerk or employe of a person or concern contracting with the association to provide a service or commodity and which requires their presence on association grounds during a race meeting, or veterinarian, farrier, horse dentist, or supplier of food, tack, medication, or horse feed, shall first apply to the commission for a license to participate in such activity on association grounds during a race meeting. No person required to be licensed by this section may participate in any activity required to be licensed on association grounds during a race meeting without a valid license therefor. The commission may issue a license if it finds that the financial responsibility, age, experience, reputation, competence, and general fitness of the applicant to perform the activity permitted by a license, are consistent with the best interests of standardbred horse racing and the maintenance of the honesty, integrity, and high quality thereof. Such license shall be issued for the calendar year in which it is issued and may be renewed by the commission. The license shall be valid at all standardbred horse race meetings in the Commonwealth during the period for which it is issued unless suspended or revoked under the rules and regulations prescribed by the commission under this Act.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 230 is created to read as follows:

All licenses granted by the commission:

(1) Shall be in writing;

(2) Shall be subject to all rules, regulations and conditions as may from time to time be prescribed by the commission;

(3) Shall contain such conditions as may be considered necessary or desirable by the commission for purposes of this Act; and

(4) Shall not extend beyond the end of the calendar year for which it was issued, but the commission may renew any license and any such renewal shall not be construed to be a waiver or condonement of any violation which occurred prior to such renewal and shall not prevent subsequent proceedings against the licensee therefor.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 230 is created to read as follows:

(1) Every license granted under this Act is subject to revocation or suspension by the commission in any case where it has reason to believe that any provision of this Act or rule, regulation or condition of the commission affecting it has not been complied with or has been broken or violated. The commission in the interest of honesty and integrity of standardbred horse racing may prescribe rules and regulations under which any license may be denied, suspended or revoked.

(2) If any license is denied, suspended or revoked the commission shall state publicly its reasons for the suspension or revocation and shall cause an entry of such reasons to be made on its record book. The action of the commission in denying, suspending or revoking any license issued by it, or the imposition of any fine or penalty, is final except that such action is subject to appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court. The action of the commission shall remain in full force and effect until reversed or modified by a valid final order of the Franklin Circuit Court.

(3) No court may enjoin any order of the commission denying, suspending or revoking any license or imposing fine or penalty, pending appeal to the Franklin Circuit Court.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 230 is created to read as follows:

(1) The commission and each party may appear in the proceedings in the circuit court on an appeal.

(2) In case of appeals, no new or additional evidence may be introduced in the circuit court except as to fraud or misconduct of some person engaged in the administration of this chapter and affecting the order; the court shall hear the case upon the certified record or abstract thereof, and shall dispose of the case in a summary manner, its review being limited to determining whether or not the commission acted without or in excess of its power, the order was procured by fraud, the order is in conformity to the provisions of this chapter, and the findings of fact in issue are supported by any substantial evidence.

(3) The commission shall as soon as practicable after being served with summons file a copy of the record, the cost of such record to be taxed as costs upon appeal. In lieu of filing such record, an abstract thereof may be filed if agreed to by all parties to the hearing.

(4) The record shall consist of the initial determination of the commission or its representative, the transcript of the hearing before the commission and the decision of the commission. No pleadings other than the record shall be required of the commission, but the commission may in its discretion file such pleadings as it may choose within the time allowed by law in similar civil actions.

(5) The court shall enter judgment confirming, modifying or setting aside the order or, in its discretion, remanding the case to the commission for proceedings in conformity with the directions of the court.

(6) Any party may appeal from the circuit court to the Court of Appeals in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, and subject to the rules of that court such appeal shall be advanced on the docket.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 230 is created to read as follows:

The provisions of this Act are intended to be statewide and exclusive in their effect and no city, county or other political subdivision of state government shall have the power or authority to make or enforce any local laws, ordinances or regulations on the subject of standardbred horse race meetings. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 278 is created to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, no person, partnership, public or private corporation or combination thereof shall begin the construction of any facility to be used for the generation of electricity to or for the public for compensation without having first obtained from the Public Service Commission a certificate of Environmental Compatibility. This requirement shall not apply to such facilities for which an application for a certificate of convenience and necessity has been filed with, or granted by, the Public Service Commission prior to the effective date of this Act.

(2) Prior to making application for such a certificate such person, partnership, public or private corporation or combination thereof shall submit to the Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection and any local pollution control district exercising concurrent jurisdiction with the Department a statement of Environmental Compatibility of the proposed site.

(3) The statement of Environmental Compatibility shall contain such information as the Department (and local pollution control district) considers necessary in making its report to the Commission including but not limited to the following:

(a) A complete description of the proposed project;

(b) Comments on the effects of air pollutants from the proposed facility on public health and welfare, the effects of the proposed facility on the waters of the Commonwealth, the treatment, handling and disposal of solid waste from the proposed facility, noise pollution if any, and other adverse environmental effects which cannot be avoided.

(4) The Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection (and any local pollution control district exercising concurrent jurisdiction with the Department) shall within 60 days after receiving the statement of Environmental Compatibility report to the Public Service Commission any recommendation on or objections to the proposed facility. The Commission upon request by the Department may extend said 60 day period for an additional 30 days.

(5) On receipt of the report from the Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection (and the local pollution control district) or if the period for filing said report has expired without the receipt of such report, the Commission shall conduct a public hearing on the application which shall be open to all interested persons. For the purpose of this paragraph an "interested person" shall mean any person whose living environment would be affected by the construction of the proposed facility.

(6) In granting or denying the application for a certificate of Environmental Compatibility, the Commission shall consider the community needs, the industrial development, customer requirements and the economics of the facility, all of which shall be balanced against any adverse environmental factors.

Section 2. A new section of KRS 278 is created to read as follows:

(1) When application required by KRS 278.020 is made to the Commission for a certificate that public convenience and necessity require the construction of a new electric transmission line of 400 kilovolts or more, during the thirty days immediately preceding the public hearing on such application provided for in KRS 278.020(1), the Commission shall, on at least four days, publish notice of such hearing in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the counties and municipalities within which such transmission facility is proposed to be located in whole or in part. The Commission shall not issue such a certificate for a new electric transmission line of 400 kilovolts or more unless the Commission shall first determine that the proposed route of the line will reasonably minimize adverse impact on the scenic and environmental assets of the general area concerned, consistent with engineering and other technical and economic factors appropriate for consideration in determining the route of the line. At the said public hearing provided for in KRS 278.020(1), all persons residing on or owning property affected by the proposed transmission facility may be heard.

Section 3. KRS 278.020 is amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of an application for such a certificate, and after a public hearing of all parties interested, the commission may issue or refuse to issue the certificate, or issue it in part and refuse it in part. Unless exercised within one year from the grant thereof, exclusive of any delay due to the order of any court or failure to obtain any necessary grant or consent, the authority conferred by the issuance of the certificate of convenience and necessity shall be void, but the beginning of any new construction or facility in good faith within the time prescribed by the commission and the prosecution thereof with reasonable diligence shall constitute an exercise of authority under the certificate.

(2) No utility shall exercise any right or privilege under any franchise or permit, after the exercise of that right or privilege has been voluntarily suspended or discontinued for more than one year, without first obtaining from the commission, in the manner provided in subsection (1) of this section, a certificate of convenience and necessity authorizing the exercise of that right or privilege.

(3) No utility shall apply for or obtain any franchise, license or permit from any city or other governmental agency until it has obtained from the commission, in the manner provided in subsection (1) of this section, a certificate of convenience and necessity showing that there is a demand and need for the service

Section 2. KRS 175.500 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The authority is hereby authorized to provide, at one (1) time or from time to time, for the issuance of its turnpike revenue bonds for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of any one or more turnpike projects undertaken pursuant to an agreement and lease. The principal of and the interest on such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds provided for such payment. The bonds of any issue may be in one or more series and any one or more such series may enjoy equal or subordinate status with respect to the pledge of funds from which they are payable, shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding six and one-half per cent (6 1/2%) per annum, shall mature at such time or times not exceeding forty (40) years from their date or dates, all as may be provided by the authority, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the authority prior to the issuance of the bonds. The authority shall determine the form of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places for payment of principal and interest, which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the commonwealth. The bonds shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the chairman of the authority, and the seal of the authority or a facsimile thereof shall be affixed thereto and attested by the manual signature of the secretary of the authority, and any coupons attached thereto shall bear the facsimile signature of the chairman of the authority. In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall have and are hereby declared to have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments under the negotiable instruments law of the commonwealth. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the authority may determine, and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest. The authority may sell such bonds in such manner, either at public or private sale, and for such price as it may determine will best effect the purposes of this chapter, but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than six and one-half per cent (6 1/2%) per annum computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding, however, from such computations the amount of any premium to be paid on redemption of any bonds prior to maturity.

(2) The proceeds of the bonds of each issue shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the turnpike project or projects for which such bonds shall have been issued, and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, as the authority may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust indenture securing the same. If the proceeds of the bonds of any issue, by error of estimates or otherwise, shall be less than such cost, additional bonds may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of such deficit, and, unless otherwise provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust indenture securing the same, shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds first issued. If the proceeds of the bonds of any issue shall exceed such cost, the surplus shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund or funds for such bonds or any account or accounts therein as the authority shall have provided in the proceedings or trust indenture authorizing and securing such bonds.

(3) Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the authority may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds shall have been executed and are available for delivery. The authority may also provide for the replacement of any bonds which shall become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost. Bonds may be issued under the provisions of this chapter without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board, bureau or agency of the commonwealth other than the General Assembly as provided in KRS 175.450(3), and without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things, except as specifically required by this chapter.

There shall be provided by the County Board of Elections to each precinct the original registration form of each voter entitled to vote in that precinct. This form shall be for comparative signature purposes.

vote. The oath shall be in such form as prescribed by the State Board of Elections and twenty printed copies shall be included in the election supplies of each precinct.

(3) The subscribed oaths shall be returned to the county clerk who shall deliver them to the grand jury on the first day of the next term of circuit court.

(4) The Commonwealth's attorney and county attorney shall investigate each of the oaths and cause to be summoned before the grand jury the witnesses they or either of them, deem proper, and the grand jury shall make a thorough investigation of all votes so cast, and return indictments against all persons illegally voting. The foreman of the grand jury shall return to the county clerk all of the oaths upon which no indictments are found. The clerk shall safely keep them as a part of the records of his office, and shall produce any or all of them, when required, to any subsequent grand jury.

Section 39. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) The voter shall be instructed by the officers of election, with the aid of the instruction cards and the mechanical model, in the use of the machine, if the voter so requests.

(2) No voter shall be permitted to receive any assistance in voting at the polls unless he makes and signs an oath that, by reason of inability to read English, or by reason of blindness or other physical disability he is unable to vote without assistance. Upon making and filing with the judges such oath, the voter shall retire to the voting machine, with the judges, and one of the judges shall then, in the presence of the other and the voter, operate the machine as the voter directs. The disabled person applying to vote may, if he prefers, be assisted by a person of his own choice who is not an election officer. The clerk shall swear the person accompanying the disabled or blind voter to operate the voting machine in accordance with the directions of the disabled or blind voter, and the disabled or blind voter and the person sworn shall then enter the voting booth and the one so sworn shall operate the machine for the disabled or blind voter as he directs. No voter shall be assisted under this subsection unless the judges and the sheriff of election are satisfied of the truth of the facts stated in the oath. The voter shall state in his oath the specific physical disability that requires him to receive assistance, and the judges of election shall enter in writing, on a record of assisted voters, the voter's name and the specific physical disability which required him to receive assistance.

(3) No voter shall be permitted to occupy the voting machine more than two minutes if other voters are waiting to use it.

(4) In primary elections, before a voter is permitted to use the voting machine, a judge of the election shall adjust the machine so that the voter will only be able to vote for the persons for whom the voter is qualified to vote.

(5) If the machine is so constructed as to require adjustment after one person has voted before another person may vote, the judges of election shall so adjust it after each person has voted.

(6) The election officers shall constantly maintain a watch in order to prevent any person from voting more than once.

(7) In elections for president and vice president, if a voter is eligible to vote only for the office of president and vice president a judge of the election shall adjust the machine so that the voter will only be able to vote for president and vice president.

Section 40. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) A voter may, at any general or special election, cast a write-in vote for any person whose name does not appear upon the ballot label as a candidate, by writing the name of his choice upon the appropriate device for the office being voted on provided on the voting machine as required by Section 26 of this Act.

(2) Two election officers of opposing parties shall upon the request of any voter instruct such voter on how to cast a write-in vote.

Section 41. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) At the count of the votes in any such precinct, any candidate and any representatives to witness and check the count of the votes therein, who are hereby authorized to be appointed as is provided in subsection (6) of this section, shall be admitted and be permitted to be present and witness the count.

(2) As soon as the polls are closed, and the last voter has voted, the judges shall immediately lock and seal the operating lever or mechanism of the machine so that the voting and counting mechanism will be prevented from operation, and they shall then sign a certificate stating: (a) that the machine has been locked against voting and sealed; (b) the number of voters, as shown on the public counters; (c) the number registered on the protective or accumulative counter or device, if any; and (d) the number or other designation of the voting machine, which certificate shall be returned by the judges of election to the officials authorized by law to receive the same. The judges shall then compare the number of voters, as shown by the counter of the machine, with the number of those who have voted as shown by the protective or accumulative counter or device.

(3) The judges, in the presence of the representatives mentioned in subsection (1), if any, and of all other persons who may be lawfully within the polling place, shall then make visible the registering counters, and, for that purpose, shall unlock and open the doors, or other covering concealing the same, giving full view of all the counter numbers. The judges shall, under the scrutiny of such representatives, and in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the machine, read and announce, in distinct tones, the results as shown by the counter numbers for each candidate and for and against each question voted on. The counters shall not be read consecutively along the party rows or columns, but shall always be read along the office columns or rows, completing the canvass for each office or question before proceeding to the next. The vote as registered shall be entered by the judges, in ink, on quadruplicate return sheets, and also on a general return sheet and statement, all of which, after the canvass is completed, shall be signed by the judges. The total vote cast for each candidate, and for and against each question, and the votes written in, shall then be entered on the general and quadruplicate return sheets and statement. There shall also be entered on the general return sheet and statement the number of voters who have voted, as shown by the lists of voters, and the number who have voted on each machine, as shown by the public counters, and also the number registered on the protective or accumulative counter or device on each machine immediately after the closing thereof and sealing of the machine. The number or other designation of each machine used shall also be entered thereon. In the case of primary elections, quadruplicate return sheets shall remain exposed to view until the said returns and all other reports have been fully completed.

(4) The proclamation of the result of the votes cast shall be announced distinctly and audibly by one of the judges of election, who shall read the name of the vote cast for each candidate and the vote for and against each question submitted. During such proclamation ample opportunity shall be given to any person lawfully present to compare the results so announced with the counter dials of the machine, and any necessary corrections shall then and there be made by the judges, after which the doors or other cover of the voting machine shall be closed and locked and the return sheet shall be signed by each of the judges of election. If any judge shall decline to sign such return, he shall state his reason therefor in writing, and a copy thereof, signed by him, shall be enclosed with such return. Each of the return sheets shall be enclosed in an envelope, which shall be securely sealed, and each of the judges shall write his name across the fold of the envelope. One of the quadruplicate return sheets, along with the general return sheet and precinct list, shall be directed to the county board of elections of the county in which the election is being held, one to the county clerk of the county in which the election is being held and one to the local governing body of each of the two dominant political parties. Said envelope shall have endorsed thereon a certificate of the election officers, stating the number of the machine, the precinct where it has been used, the number on the seal, and the number on the protective or accumulative counter or device at the close of the polls. Following the tabulation of all votes cast in the election, including absentee votes, the county board shall immediately mail the tabulation result, the general return sheets and the precinct lists from each precinct to the State Board of Elections.

(5) As soon as possible after the completion of the count, the election officers shall return to the county board of elections the keys to the voting machine received and receipted for by them, and the clerk of the county court in which the precinct is located shall have the voting machine properly boxed or securely covered and removed to a proper and secure place of storage.

(6) In primary elections, each candidate or group of candidates may designate to the county board of elections a representative to witness and check the vote count. In regular elections, the governing authority of each political party, each candidate for member of board of education, independent candidate or independent ticket may designate a representative to the county board of elections to witness and check the vote count.

Section 42. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

The general return sheet, triplicate return sheets, and statement, shall be printed to conform with the make of voting machine used. The designating number and letter, if any, on the counter for each candidate shall be printed thereon opposite the candidate's name. Immediately after the vote has been ascertained, the statement thereof shall be posted on the door of the polling place. Thereupon, each of the judges shall take into his possession two (2) of the above-mentioned return sheets, sealed up in its envelope as aforesaid, and shall forthwith deliver the said return sheets to the respective officers and persons to whom they are addressed, as aforesaid, and shall take receipts therefor. The judges representing each of the two (2) dominant political parties shall take the envelope addressed to the local governing authority of the party with which said respective judges are affiliated, also, one (1) of the judges shall take and deliver the envelope addressed to the board and the other judge shall take and deliver the envelope addressed to the county clerk.

Section 43. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) For a period of fifteen (15) days following any primary election, and for a period of thirty (30) days following any general or special election, the voting machine shall remain locked against voting, except that it may be opened and all the data and figures therein examined, upon the order of any court of competent jurisdiction, or judge thereof, or by direction of any legislative committee authorized and empowered to investigate and report upon contested elections affected by the use of such machine, and such data and such figures shall be examined by such court, judge or committee in the presence of the officer having the custody of such machine. In the event of a contest of election the court in which such contest is pending or the committee before which said contest is being heard may upon motion of any party to said contest issue an order requiring that said voting machines shall remain continuously locked for such further time as may be reasonable or necessary, with due regard for the preparation of said machines for a succeeding primary, general or special election, but in no event shall such order compel that said machines remain locked to a time within thirty (30) days next preceding any such approaching primary, general or special election.

(2) During the period when such machine is required to be kept locked the keys thereto shall remain in the possession of the county board of election commissioners. After such period it shall be the duty of the county board of election commissioners to return such keys to the custody of the county clerk.

Section 44. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

The canvass and returns provided for in Section 41 of this Act shall constitute the official returns of the precinct, unless within ninety-six (96) hours after the close of the polls a candidate shall in writing request the county board of elections to check and recanvass the voting machines of any precinct or any number of precincts. When such a request has been made the election commission shall immediately assemble and recheck and recanvass each machine and make a proper return thereof to the county court clerk, in which event the canvass and return shall become the official returns for the election. In making the recanvass the board shall make a record of the number of the seal upon the voting machine and without unlocking the machine against voting, recanvass the vote cast thereon. If, upon a recanvass, it is found that the original canvass of the returns has been correctly made from the machine, and that there still remains a discrepancy unaccounted for, the board with the assistance of the county clerk, shall unlock the voting and counting mechanism of the machine, and shall proceed thoroughly to examine and test the machine to determine and reveal the true cause, if any, of the discrepancy in returns of the machine. Each registering counter shall be reset at zero before it is tested, after which it shall be operated at least one hundred (100) times. After the completion of the examination and test, the county clerk shall then and there prepare a statement, in writing, giving in detail the result of the examination and test and statement which shall be witnessed by the persons present, and shall be filed with the board. If, upon recanvass, it appears that the original canvass of the returns by the election officers was incorrect, the returns and all papers being prepared by the board shall be corrected accordingly, except that there shall be no change in the vote of any candidate from that originally certified unless such candidate was actually notified. At the recanvass, each political party represented on the board may appoint a representative there to be its governing body, and also each candidate to be voted for may be present either in person or by a representative or both.

Section 45. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) The county executive committee of any political party having a ticket to elect at any regular election, may designate not more than two challengers to be present at and witness the holding of the election in each precinct in the county. The challengers shall be entitled to stay in the room or at the door. The challengers shall be registered voters of the county in which the election is held, shall be appointed in writing signed by the chairman of the committee and shall produce written appointments on demand of any election officer.

(2) Any school board candidate, independent candidate, or independent ticket at the regular election may designate not more than one challenger to be present at and witness the holding of the elections in each precinct in the county. The challenger shall be entitled to stay in the room or at the door. The challenger shall be a registered voter of the county in which the election is held, shall be appointed in writing by the chairman of the committee, independent candidate or candidates representing a ticket, and shall produce written appointment on demand of any election officer.

(3) Not later than thirty days prior to an election at which Constitutional amendments or other public questions are to be submitted to the vote of the people, any committee that in good faith advocates or opposes an amendment or public question may file a petition with the clerk of the county asking that the petitioners be recognized as the committee entitled to nominate inspectors and challengers to serve at the election at which the Constitutional amendment or public question is to be voted on. If more than one committee alleging itself to advocate or oppose the same amendment file such a petition, the county board of elections shall decide, and announce by registered mail to each committee not less than twenty days immediately preceding the election, which committee is entitled to nominate the challengers and inspectors. Such decision shall not be final, but any aggrieved party may institute proceedings in the county court, and upon hearing the county judge shall determine which of such committees shall be recognized as the one to select inspectors and challengers at the election.

(4) The committee shall file the names of the persons nominated by it with the clerk of the county at least five days before the election. The county board of elections shall, within two days thereafter, certify the nominees of the committee for the respective precincts to serve as challengers and inspectors at the election where any Constitutional amendment or public question is to be voted upon. If more than one amendment or question is to be voted upon, the county board of elections may designate, on the petition of the committee, one person for each amendment and question to serve as inspector at the election and one person for each amendment and question to serve as challenger at the election.

(5) The challengers and inspectors shall perform their duties in the same manner and be subject to the same privileges as other inspectors and challengers at an election.

(6) Each political party is entitled to have not exceeding two challengers at each precinct during the holding of the primary election. Any group of bona fide candidates, as defined in Section 107 of this Act, of the same political party equal to twenty-five percent of all the candidates for that party to be voted for in a county in any primary, including state, district and all other candidates, may recommend to the county committee or governing authority of the party for the county a list of persons whom they desire to have appointed as challengers in each precinct in the county. If more than two such lists are furnished, the committee or governing authority, in making appointments of challengers, shall alternate between the several lists so furnished so as to give to each list an equal amount or proportion of the appointments, but in no event shall there be appointed more than one challenger for any precinct from any one list. The list of challengers shall be presented to the chairman or secretary of the party committee of the county not less than seven days before the date on which the primary is to be held, and the committee or the chairman thereof shall make the appointments and certify to same at least four days before the date on which the primary is held. The appointment of challengers shall be certified in all respects as challengers at regular elections, except as otherwise provided in this section, and the challengers shall be registered voters of the county in which the primary is held, shall be subject to the same penalties and possess the same rights and privileges as challengers at regular elections, except that the challengers of one political party shall not be entitled to challenge persons who offer to vote for candidates of any other party in the primary. The provisions of this section shall be enforceable against the chairman of the political party committees by a mandatory summary proceeding instituted in the circuit court. The order of the court may be reviewed by the Court of Appeals as provided for the granting or dissolving of temporary injunctions.

Section 46. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) The absent voter shall mark his ballot, seal it in the inner envelope and then in the outer envelope and mail it to the county clerk. The absent voter shall sign the outer envelope in order to validate the absent ballot. It shall be received by the clerk before 3 p.m. standard time on election day in order to be counted.

(2) The clerk shall deposit all of the returned ballots in a locked ballot box immediately upon receipt without opening the outer envelope. The ballot box shall be locked with three locks. The keys to the box shall be retained by the three members of the central absentee ballot county board, if one is appointed, or by the members of the board of elections, and the box shall remain locked until the ballots are counted.

(3) The clerk shall keep a list of all persons who return their voted absentee ballots, and send a copy of that list to the state board after election day.

Section 47. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) The challenge of an absent voter's ballot must be in writing and in the hands of the county clerk before 3:00 p.m. on election day.

(2) The county board of elections shall count the absentee ballots. The board may appoint a central absentee ballot counting board of not less than three (3) members, who shall be qualified voters and no more than two-thirds (2/3) of which shall be members of the same political party, to count the ballots at the direction of the county board of elections.

(3) Beginning at 3 p.m. on election day the board may meet at the clerk's office to count the absentee ballots. Candidates or their representatives shall be permitted to be present. The board shall open the boxes containing absent voters' ballots and remove the envelopes one at a time. As each envelope is removed, it shall be examined to ascertain whether the outer envelope is in proper order and has been signed by the absent voter. All unsigned absentee ballots shall be rejected automatically. The clerk shall compare the signature on the outer envelope with the signature of the voter that appears on the registration card. If the outer envelope is found to be in order the clerk shall read aloud the name of the absent voter. If the vote of such voter is not rejected on a challenge then made as provided in subsection (4), the clerk shall then open the envelope and remove the inner envelope and place it unopened in a ballot box which has been provided for the purpose.

(4) When the name of an absent voter is read aloud by the clerk, the vote of such voter may be challenged and the challenge thereto may be determined and the vote accepted or rejected by the board as if the voter was present and voting in person, but if the outer envelope is regular, and substantially complies with the provisions of this chapter, they shall be considered as showing that the absent voter is prima facie entitled to vote. If the vote of an absent voter is rejected pursuant to the challenge, the outer envelope shall not be opened, and the clerk shall write on the envelope the word "rejected".

(5) After the challenges have been made and all the blank inner envelopes have been placed in a ballot box, the box shall be thoroughly shaken so as to redistribute the ballots in the box. The board shall then open the ballot box, remove the absentee ballot from the inner envelopes and count the absentee ballots on a form provided by the state board.

(6) The county clerk shall retain the ballots and the inner envelopes for thirty (30) days, at which time they shall be burned by the county board of elections. If a contest or recount proceeding is instituted during said thirty-day period, the ballots shall not be burned but shall be disposed of as directed by the court in which such proceeding was instituted.

Section 48. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) The cost of all elections held in any county shall be allowed by the fiscal court and paid by the county treasurer except as otherwise provided by law. In any election when candidates for city office are voted upon, the city shall bear its proportionate share of the cost of the election.

(2) When the cost of any election has been allowed by the fiscal court and paid by the county treasurer, and within 60 days following the date of the election, the county treasurer shall certify the amount of such expenses, indicating each item of expense separately, together with a statement of the number of precincts in the county, the date and kind of election to the state board of elections. The certification shall be filed within 90 days after the election. Upon receipt of the certification and upon being satisfied as to the correctness thereof, the state board of elections shall issue its warrant upon the State Treasurer in favor of the county treasurer for one-half of the amount of the expenses but not exceeding in any event an amount equal to fifty dollars for each precinct in the county. All sums paid under this section shall be in addition to any sum paid by the state for ballot paper in elections.

(3) Payments to any county under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall be terminated if and whenever it fails to renew a lease, contract, or lease and option with the State Property and Buildings Commission executed in connection with the acquisition of voting machines by the commission for the use of such county; and payments to any county shall be terminated whenever such county fails to pay any part of the rentals required for any effective period of the lease.

Section 49. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

As used in Sections 49 to 61 of this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(5) "Sinking fund reserve" means a fund to be set aside and held separate and apart from all other funds of the state or of the commission, to be held as a reserve against any default in principal or interest payments on such bonds, and to be earmarked, to the extent not otherwise used, to payment of requirements on such bonds during the latest years of maturities thereof, as may be specified in the instruments provided for in Sections 49 to 61 of this Act;

(6) "Cost" means the cost of purchase of voting machines, any advertising expenses in connection therewith, the cost of freight and transportation, the cost of preparing, issuing, selling or exchanging first mortgage revenue bonds as provided for in Sections 49 to 61 of this Act, any capitalized interest expense during an initial period of not exceeding twelve (12) months, to any extent needed during a period necessary to obtain delivery of any voting machines, a sinking fund reserve, and shall further embrace and include all expenses, including legal fees, in connection therewith;

(7) "Voting machine" means a mechanically operated device used for counting and recording votes which complies with specifications enumerated in Section 26 of this Act.

Section 50. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

The commission shall purchase voting machines meeting all of the specifications and requirements of this chapter for each county contracting for same as provided in Sections 49 to 61 of this Act, and shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To determine the comparative needs and demands for voting machines by the various counties in the state;

(2) To expend such portions of the capital outlay appropriations made available to it by the commonwealth of Kentucky, as may be specified by law, for the purpose of acquiring voting machines, and for matching federal funds as same may be available under any federal law now existing or hereafter enacted, for the purchase or acquisition of voting machines;

(3) To purchase, lease (with option to renew), rent, pledge the revenues of, or mortgage such voting machines as the commission may find to be necessary, upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration as may appear to the commission to be fair and reasonable;

(4) To issue and sell its first mortgage revenue bonds in order to carry out any of the foregoing.

Section 51. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

For the purpose of defraying the cost of any voting machine project, the commission may borrow money from any agency of the federal government or it may issue and sell its voting machine first mortgage revenue bonds, after adopting a resolution specifying the proposed undertaking, the amount of bonds to be issued, and the maximum rate of interest the bonds are to bear, not exceeding six and one-half per cent (6 1/2%) per annum. Such first mortgage revenue bonds may be issued, sold or exchanged as provided for in Sections 49 to 61 of this Act, or as provided in KRS chapters 56 or 58, or by other laws.

Section 52. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

Whenever the fiscal court of any county shall request the commission to finance the acquisition of a specified number of voting machines under Sections 49 to 61 of this Act, the county and the commission may then proceed to acquire such voting machine project as follows:

(1) The commission shall advertise for and receive proposals for the purchase of voting machines in sufficient number to supply the amount agreed to be furnished to such county. The commission also may advertise for bids for a contract for the acquisition of voting machines with the provision that payment for such machines shall be made in bonds issued under Sections 49 to 61 of this Act;

(2) The commission may then enter into a contract for the purchase of such voting machines from the best bidder, subject to satisfactory financing arrangements being made;

(3) The parties shall enter into an agreement to be known as a "contract, lease and option," which shall provide, aliunde, the following:

(a) The commission shall issue its bonds to finance the project, which bonds shall be secured by a chattel mortgage lien against the project and by a pledge of all rentals and revenues therefrom;

(b) The commission shall lease such project to the county for a term of not exceeding one (1) year from the estimated date of completion of the project, with the county having the exclusive right and option to extend the term of the lease from year to year, for periods of one (1) year at a time, for an agreed period, not exceeding twenty (20) years;

(c) The rentals prescribed therein for the original term and for each of the full number of years for which the lease may be extended shall be not less than the amounts required in each of such years to amortize the total cost of the project, as evidenced by the amount of bonds issued to defray the cost thereof, and may include, in any specified years, such additional amounts as the parties may deem advisable to create or supplement any special funds;

(d) The county shall agree, in each effective year of the lease, to maintain the voting machines;

(e) Whenever the commission has been paid sufficient funds, or has sufficient funds on hand, to retire or redeem all of the bonds issued to finance such voting machines through rental payments by the county, or whenever all of such bonds have been retired or redeemed by any lawful method, the commission shall convey and transfer to the county an unencumbered title to such voting machines, and shall transfer to the county any balances then remaining in the sinking fund, in the sinking fund reserve, and in any other funds maintained in connection with the project;

(f) That in the event of failure by the county to renew the lease or failure to pay any of the rentals prescribed therein, said contract, lease and option shall be immediately terminated, and all rights of the county thereunder and to the leased voting machines shall be terminated and forfeited to the commission, subject to the provisions of Section 56 of this Act;

(g) Any other reasonable provisions and stipulations deemed necessary and desirable;

3. An assignment to the trustee, for the benefit of the bondholders, of all rentals payable to the commission under the contract, lease and option;

(d) The rights of bondholders in the event of default, which rights may include the appointment of a receiver, with powers similar to those set out in KRS 58.060, and may include the rights generally of holders of chattel mortgages under the laws of the state of Kentucky.

Section 53. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

All bonds issued under the provisions of Sections 49 to 61 of this Act shall have the qualities of negotiable instruments, and shall not be subject to taxation. If any of the officers whose signatures appear on the bonds or coupons cease to be such officers before delivery of the bonds, the signatures shall nevertheless be valid for all purposes the same as if the officers had remained in office until delivery. The bonds shall be payable solely from the revenues or proceeds derived from the project, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of the commission or of any of the counties executing any of such leases, within the meaning of any constitutional provisions or limitations; and it shall be so stated on the face of each bond.

Section 54. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

Any appropriations by the legislature for voting machine purposes may be applied directly toward the cost of such voting machine projects, may be deposited by the commission in the sinking fund reserve, or may be applied to redeem bonds in advance of maturity in accordance with the bond proceedings. All money received from the proceeds of any bonds issued under Sections 49 to 61 of this Act shall be used solely in payment of the cost of such voting machine projects as defined in Sections 49 to 61 of this Act.

Section 55. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

If the commission shall create a sinking fund reserve, as defined in Section 49 of this Act, out of the proceeds of the sale of any bonds, such reserve, including such additional amounts as may be deposited therein from other sources, shall be maintained by the commission separate and apart from all other funds of the commission, except that sums shall be transferred therefrom to the sinking fund if and to any extent required at any time to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any of said bonds, or whenever the total amount on deposit in said reserve fund is sufficient to retire or redeem all of the principal and interest requirements on the outstanding bonds, but no transfer or withdrawal shall be made for any other purpose. It may be provided that in the event of any withdrawals from the sinking fund reserve, any deficiency in the amount agreed to be maintained therein shall be restored by the commission as soon as revenues are sufficiently available to enable it to do so. Such sinking fund reserve may be invested in obligations of the United States government having maturities not in excess of five (5) years, or may be invested or deposited in accounts insured by the United States government, until needed, as the commission may determine.

Section 56. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

(1) The commission may issue a separate bond issue to finance the cost of a voting machine project for any individual county, may finance the cost of voting machine projects for two (2) or more counties by one or more bond issues, and may receive and act on bids for more than one bond issue at the same time.

(2) Separate records shall be maintained by the commission with reference to rentals payable by the two (2) or more counties whenever bonds of a single issue are issued to finance two (2) or more projects, provided that a failure by any individual county to renew a lease executed under Sections 49 to 61 of this Act, or to pay a prescribed rental for any effective period thereof, shall not have the effect of terminating other leases of other voting machine projects of other counties which have not failed to renew their leases or to pay the prescribed rentals thereunder, and rights of bondholders prescribed in Section 52 of this Act are subject to the foregoing.

Section 57. A new section of KRS Chapter 117 is created to read as follows:

Upon termination or cancellation of the lease of any voting machine project, the commission shall immediately take appropriate action to cause such project to produce revenues or proceeds from other sources, and shall apply any amounts in the sinking fund and in the sinking fund reserve, to prevent any of the bonds from being in default.

If it appears upon the trial of the contest that such provisions have been violated by the contestant or by others in his behalf with his knowledge, the contest action shall be dismissed and the contestant shall have no further right to maintain the same. If no such violation by the contestant, or by others in his behalf with his knowledge, appears, and it appears that such provisions have been violated by the contestee or by others in his behalf with his knowledge, the nomination or election of the contestee shall be declared void. In the case of primary elections, if any candidate who is a party to the contest proceedings has not violated the provisions of Sections 179, 181, 182 or 193 of this Act, and all candidates who received more votes than he did are also parties and are found to have violated those provisions, such candidate shall be declared nominated.

Any candidate for nomination to office at a primary election held under the provisions of Sections 97 to 115 of this Act, for whom a number of votes was cast equal to not less than fifty per cent (50%) of the votes cast for the successful candidate for nomination to such office, may contest the right of the successful candidate, and of any other candidate for nomination to such office, to such nomination, by filing a petition in the circuit court within fifteen (15) days from the day of the primary election, stating the specific grounds relied upon for the contest, and causing a summons to be issued, returnable in ten (10) days. In the case of candidates for offices for the state at large, the petition shall be filed in the Franklin Circuit Court; in the case of other candidates it shall be filed in the circuit court of the county in which the contestee resides. The summons may be personally served on the contestee in any county, or it may be served by leaving a copy at his home with a member of his family over sixteen (16) years of age, or by posting a copy on the door of his residence. The contestee shall file his answer within ten (10) days after service of summons. The answer may contain grounds of contest in favor of the contestee and against the contestant, but the grounds must be specifically set out. Any candidate who would have been qualified to bring a contest action under this section, who is a party to a recount proceeding brought under Section 162 of this Act, may, by filing an answer in the recount proceeding within the time allowed by this section for filing grounds of contest, set forth grounds of contest against the petitioner in the recount proceeding. No ground of contest by either party shall be filed or made more definite by amendment after the expiration of the time allowed by this section for filing the original pleading. The contestant may file a reply within five (5) days after answer is filed, which shall complete the pleading, and any affirmative matter in the reply shall be treated as controverted. Upon return of the summons, properly executed, to the office of the circuit clerk of the county in which the action is pending, the clerk shall immediately docket the cause and notify the presiding judge of the court that the contest has been instituted, and the judge shall proceed to a trial of the cause within five (5) days after the issue was joined. In circuit court districts having more than one (1) circuit judge the judge who shall hear the cause shall be determined by lot.

Section 159. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

Each party to a contest instituted under Section 158 of this Act shall be entitled, in the production of evidence to be used on the trial thereof, to all the remedies allowed in cases at law and in equity. In trying the contest the court shall hear and determine all questions of law and fact without the intervention of a jury, and may examine the witnesses orally or require or permit the parties to take the evidence by depositions. If the evidence is taken orally either party may require it to be taken by the official reporter for the court, to be taken and transcribed and paid for as evidence in other civil actions. The court may require the contestant, or the person who has the burden of proof under the issue joined, to complete his proof in not less than fifteen (15) days after service of summons, and the contestee, or the person not having the burden, to complete his proof in not less than ten (10) days filing an answer. Each party may be given one (1) day additional for producing evidence in rebuttal and no greater time shall be extended, unless the court is satisfied that the ends of justice demand it. The court shall, immediately after the evidence is concluded, consider the contest and determine it. If it appears from an inspection of the whole record that there has been such fraud, intimidation, bribery or violence in the conduct of the election that neither contestant nor contestee can be adjudged to have been fairly nominated, the court may adjudge that there has been no election, in which event the nomination shall be deemed vacant. The judgment of the court shall be filed in the office of the circuit court clerk, and shall have the same force and effect as a judgment rendered by the court in term time.

Section 160. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any party may appeal to the Court of Appeals from a judgment entered under Section 159 of this Act. The appeal shall be in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that the notice of appeal shall be filed and a supersedeas bond executed in the circuit court, and the record shall be filed in the Court of Appeals, within ten (10) days after the entry of the judgment. The entire original record shall be filed and no designation of record shall be required.

(2) Upon the filing of the record, the clerk of the Court of Appeals shall immediately deliver it to the chief justice, and the contest shall have precedence over all other business and causes then pending in the Court of Appeals and shall be heard and disposed of as speedily as the exigencies of the case will permit. If the Court of Appeals is in vacation at the time the record is filed, the chief justice shall call together the judges or a majority thereof, who shall hear and determine the appeal in the same manner and with the same effect as if heard and tried by the court in regular session.

(3) The Court of Appeals in its discretion may issue its mandate forthwith after rendering its decision, but it shall be without prejudice to the right of the losing party to file a petition for rehearing or the power of the court to recall the mandate should the petition be sustained.

(4) If the judgment is reversed and the case remanded for trial or further action, the proceedings shall continue in the circuit court in like manner as when originally filed, beginning ten (10) days after the filing of the mandate with notice to the adverse party.

Section 161. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

In the case of offices for which certificates of nomination are required to be filed with the secretary of state, the result of the final judgment in the contest of a primary election shall be certified to the secretary of state; in the case of offices for which certificates of nomination are required to be filed with the county clerk, the result shall be certified to the county clerk. The secretary of state shall certify to the proper county clerks the names of the candidates awarded nominations as certified to him by the court, and the county clerk shall place upon the ballots for the regular election the names of the candidates so certified to him by the secretary of state and the names of the candidates awarded nominations as certified to him by the court, in place of the candidates whose nominations were successfully contested.

(1) Any candidate who was voted for at a primary election held under Sections 97 to 115 of this Act may request a recount of the ballots by filing a petition so requesting, with the same court that contest petitions are required to be filed with, within fifteen (15) days after the day of the primary election, or, if such candidate is qualified to bring a contest proceeding under Section 158 of this Act, by including a request for a recount in his petition instituting the contest proceedings, and any candidate who is a contestee in a contest proceeding under Section 158 of this Act may request a recount in his answer filed in the contest proceeding, but in such case the answer must be filed within five (5) days after the service of process on the petition. When a request for a recount is made the election commissioners whose duty it is to issue certificates shall be made parties defendant. The party requesting the recount must execute bond with approved surety for the costs of the recount, in an amount to be fixed by the circuit judge. Upon the bond being filed, the clerk shall immediately notify the circuit judge of the request and the filing of the bond, and the judge shall at once enter an order directing the ballots, boxes and all papers pertaining to the election to be transferred to the circuit court, and fix a day for the recount proceedings to begin. A copy of the order shall be served upon the parties or their counsel in the same manner as notices are required to be served, which shall be deemed sufficient notice of the proceeding. On the day fixed, the court or judge in vacation shall proceed to recount the ballots if their integrity is satisfactorily shown and shall complete the recount as soon as practicable, and file and enter of record the results thereof, and direct the election commissioners whose duty it is to issue the certificates to issue the same to the party entitled thereto as shown by the recount.

(2) Any party may appeal from the judgment to the Court of Appeals, in the same manner as provided in Section 160 of this Act, all of the provisions of which statute shall be applicable.

(3) If a proceeding for recount is asked and prosecuted in a contest proceeding, it shall not await the preparation or trial of the contest in the circuit court or in the Court of Appeals. The action of the courts shall be final, concluding the parties as to the question of a recount of the ballots, and certificates shall then be issued to the parties entitled thereto.

Section 163. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

Any candidate for election to any state, county, district or city office (except the office of governor, lieutenant governor, member of the general assembly, and those city offices as to which there are other provisions made by law for determining contest elections), for whom a number of votes was cast equal to not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the number of votes cast for the successful candidate for the office, may contest the election of the successful candidate, by filing a petition in the circuit court of the county where the contestee resides, unless the officer is one (1) elective by the voters of the whole state, in which case the petition shall be filed in the Franklin Circuit Court. The petition shall be filed and process issued within thirty (30) days after the day of election; it shall state the grounds of the contest relied on, and no other grounds shall afterwards be relied upon. The contestee shall file an answer within twenty (20) days after the service of summons upon him. The answer may consist of a denial of the averments of the petition and may also set up grounds of contest against the contestant; if grounds are so set up they shall be specifically pointed out and none other shall thereafter be relied upon by the party. Any candidate who would have been qualified to bring a contest action under this section, who is a party to a recount proceeding under Section 166 of this Act, may, by filing answer in the recount proceeding within the time allowed by this section for filing grounds of contest, set forth grounds of contest against the petitioner in the recount proceeding. A reply may be filed within ten (10) days after the answer is filed; its affirmative allegations shall be treated as controverted, and no subsequent pleading shall be allowed.

Section 164. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

(1) A contest instituted under Section 163 of this Act shall proceed as equity actions. Upon return of the summons properly executed to the office of the circuit clerk, he shall immediately docket the case and notify the presiding judge of the court that the contest has been filed. The judge shall proceed to a trial of the cause without delay. In courts having more than one (1) judge, the judge who shall try the case shall be determined by lot. The court may be convened at any time, irrespective of the regular term, for the purpose of trying the case or any proceeding therein and shall complete the same as soon as practicable. The action shall have precedence over all other cases.

(2) The evidence in chief for the contestant shall be completed within thirty (30) days after service of summons; the evidence for the contestee shall be completed within twenty-five (25) days after filing of answer, and evidence for contestant in rebuttal shall be completed within seven (7) days after the contestee has concluded; Provided That for cause the court may grant a reasonable extension of time to either party.

(3) All ballots, stub books and other papers concerning which there is any ground for contest may be removed to the court in which the action is pending.

(4) If it appears from an inspection of the whole record that there has been such fraud, intimidation, bribery or violence in the conduct of the election that neither contestant nor contestee can be judged to have been fairly elected, the circuit court, or the Court of Appeals, on appeal, may adjudge that there has been no election. In that event the office shall be deemed vacant, with the same legal effect as if the person elected had refused to qualify. If one of the parties is adjudged by the court to be elected to the office, he shall, on production of a copy of the final judgment, be permitted to qualify or be commissioned.

Section 165. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

Any party may appeal to the Court of Appeals from a judgment entered under Section 163 of this Act, in the same manner as provided in Section 160 of this Act, all of the provisions of which statute shall be applicable.

Section 166. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any candidate who was voted for at a regular election for any of the offices to which Section 163 of this Act applies may request a recount of the ballots by filing a petition so requesting, with the same court that petitions of contest are required to be filed with, within ten (10) days after the day of the election, or, if such candidate is qualified to institute a contest proceeding under Section 163 of this Act, by including a request for a recount in his petition instituting the contest proceedings, but in the latter case the petition must be filed within ten (10) days after the day of the election. Any such candidate who is a contestee in a contest proceeding under Section 163 of this Act may request a recount in his answer filed in the contest proceeding, but only if the answer is filed within ten (10) days after the day of election. If a request for a recount is made, the election commissioners whose duty it is to issue certificates of election shall be made parties defendant. The party requesting the recount must execute bond with approved surety for the costs of the recount, in an amount to be fixed by the circuit judge. Upon the bond being filed, the clerk shall immediately notify the circuit judge of the request and the filing of the bond, and the judge shall at once enter an order directing the ballots, boxes and all papers pertaining to the election to be transferred to the circuit court, and fix a day for the recount proceedings to begin. A copy of the order shall be served upon the parties or their counsel in the same manner as notices are required to be served, which shall be deemed sufficient notice of the proceeding. On the day fixed, the court or judge in vacation shall proceed to recount the ballots if their integrity is satisfactorily shown and shall complete the recount as soon as practicable, and file and enter of record the results thereof, and direct the election commissioners whose duty it is to issue the certificates to issue the same to the party entitled thereto as shown by the recount.

(2) Any party may appeal from the judgment to the Court of Appeals, in the same manner as provided in Section 160 of this Act, all of the provisions of which statute shall be applicable.

(3) If a proceeding for recount is asked and prosecuted in a contest proceeding, it shall not await the preparation or trial of the contest in the circuit court or in the Court of Appeals. The action of the courts shall be final, concluding the parties as to the question of a recount of the ballots, and certificates shall then be issued to the parties entitled thereto.

Section 167. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

(1) No application to contest the election of a governor, lieutenant governor or member of the general assembly shall be heard unless written notice, signed by the party contesting, is given. The notice shall state the grounds of the contest, and none other shall afterwards be heard as coming from that party, but the contestee may make defense without giving counternotice.

(2) In the case of the governor or lieutenant governor, the notice must be given within thirty (30) days after the final action of the state board of elections. In the case of a member of the general assembly, the notice must be given within fifteen (15) days after the final action of the county board of election commissioners or the state board of elections, whichever canvasses the returns.

(3) Immediately after the notice, either party may proceed to take proof by depositions, under the same rules and regulations that govern the taking of depositions in actions in equity, except that no commission shall be required for taking a deposition out of the state. The depositions shall be sealed up by the officer taking them, and directed to the clerk of the senate or clerk of the house, as the case may require. The depositions properly taken shall be read as evidence before the board or branch of the general assembly having jurisdiction of the case, and such board or branch may call for and hear other proof. The taking of depositions to be used before a board or branch of the general assembly shall close ten (10) days before the next meeting of the general assembly, or, if in session when the notice is given, when the taking is ordered to close.

(4) The costs of the proceeding shall be adjudged against the unsuccessful party, and a certificate thereof shall be given by the clerk of the senate or the clerk of the house, as the case requires. A judgment for the costs may be obtained after five (5) days' notice in a circuit or county court.

Section 168. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

When the election of a governor or lieutenant governor is contested, a board for determining the contest shall be formed and shall proceed in the following manner:

(1) On the third day after the organization of the general assembly that meets next after the election, the senate shall select three (3) of its members, and the house of representatives shall select eight (8) of its members, and the eleven (11) so selected shall constitute a board to try the contest, seven (7) of whom shall constitute a quorum. In making the selection, the name of each member present shall be written on a separate piece of paper, every piece being as nearly similar to the other as possible. Each piece shall be rolled up so that the names thereon cannot be seen nor any particular piece ascertained or selected by feeling. The whole, so prepared, shall be placed by the clerk in a box on his table, and after it has been well shaken and the papers therein well intermixed the clerk shall draw out one (1) paper, which shall be opened and read aloud by the presiding officer, and so on until the required number is obtained. If any person so selected swears that he cannot, without great personal inconvenience, serve on the board, or that he feels an undue bias for or against either of the parties, he may be excused by the house from which he was chosen from serving on the board, and if it appears that a person so selected is related to either party, or is liable to any other proper objection on the score of his partiality, he shall be excused. Any deficiency in the proper number so created shall be supplied by another draw from the box. The members of the board so chosen shall be sworn by the speaker of the house of representatives to try the contested election, and give true judgment thereon according to the evidence unless dissolved before rendering judgment.

(2) The board shall, within twenty-four (24) hours after its selection, meet, appoint its chairman, and assign a day for hearing the contest, and may adjourn from day to day as its business requires. If any member of the board wilfully fails to attend its sessions he shall be reported to the house to which he belongs, and that house shall thereupon, in its discretion, punish him by fine or imprisonment, or both.

(3) The board may send for persons, papers and records and issue attachments therefor signed by its chairman or clerk, and may issue commissions for taking proof.

(4) If it appears that the candidates receiving the highest number of votes given have received an equal number, the right to the office shall be determined by lot, under the direction of the board. If the person returned is found not to have been legally qualified to receive the office at the time of his election, and the first two (2) years of his term have not expired, a new election shall be ordered to fill the vacancy. If a person other than the one returned is found to have received the highest number of legal votes given, he shall be adjudged to be the person elected and entitled to the office.

(5) No decision shall be made but by the vote of six (6) members of the board. The decision of the board shall not be final nor conclusive, but shall be reported to the two (2) houses of the general assembly, in joint session, for the further action of the general assembly. The speaker of the house shall preside at the joint session, and the general assembly shall then determine the contest. If no decision of the board is given during the then session of the general assembly, it shall be dissolved, unless by joint resolution of the two (2) houses it is empowered to continue longer.

(6) If a new election is required, it shall be immediately ordered by proclamation of the speaker of the house, to take place on a day not less than thirty (30) days nor more than six (6) weeks thereafter.

(7) When a new election is ordered or that incumbent is adjudged not to be entitled to the office, his power shall immediately cease, and if the office is not adjudged to another it shall be deemed to be vacant.

Section 169. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

When the election of a member of the general assembly is contested, the branch to which he belongs shall, within three (3) days after its organization, and in the manner provided in Section 168 of this Act, select a board of not more than nine (9) nor less than five (5) of its members to determine the contest. Such board shall be governed by the same rules, have the same power, and be subject to the same penalties as a board to determine the contested election of governor. It shall report its decision to the branch of the general assembly by which it was appointed, for its further action.

Section 170. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any elector who was qualified to and did vote on any public question, other than a constitutional amendment or a question of local option under chapter 242, submitted to the voters of any county, city or district for their approval or rejection may contest the election or demand a recount of the ballots by filing a petition, within thirty (30) days after the election, with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the election was held, which court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters in such cases. The petition shall be against the county, city or district in which the election was held, and shall set forth the grounds of contest or reason for requesting a recount. The grounds of contest may be the casting of illegal votes, the exclusion of legal votes, the unfair or illegal conduct of the election, tampering with the returns, the alteration of the certificates of the results, bribery, fraud, intimidation or corrupt practices, or any conduct or practice tending to frustrate, obstruct or interfere with the free expression of the will of the voters. A copy of the petition shall be posted at the courthouse door and at one or more public places in the county, city or district in which the election was held. Summons shall be served on the defendant as in equity actions.

(2) Upon the petition being filed, the circuit clerk shall forthwith order the county board of election commissioners and the county clerk of the county involved in the contest to preserve and hold the ballots cast at the election on the question subject to the order of the circuit court, and if the circuit court of the county in which the contest is filed is not in session at the time the petition is filed, the clerk shall immediately notify the circuit judge of the filing of the petition. The court or judge shall, within five (5) days after the petition is filed, determine whether there are sufficient grounds stated to justify the contest, and shall thereupon require the contestants to give bond for costs, and fix a time for the defendant to answer, not exceeding twenty (20) days.

(3) If the county, city or district affected fails to defend the action, any elector may become a defendant by filing an answer or other proper pleading within thirty (30) days after the filing of the petition, and by giving security for the costs in an amount to be fixed by the court. Any elector may join and assist the defendant in resisting the action by filing an application to do so and by giving security for such proportion of the costs as may be adjudged against him.

Section 171. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

If a recount of the ballots is requested in a proceeding instituted under Section 170 of this Act, and the court or judge has determined that the petition presents sufficient grounds, the court or judge shall immediately order the ballots of the precincts in which the recount is demanded sent to the courthouse of the county, in a manner designated in the order, and shall designate two (2) commissioners to assist in the recount. One (1) of the commissioners shall represent the contestant and one (1) the contestee. The attorneys representing the parties may be present at all hearings and at the recount of the ballots. The court shall pass on all disputes respecting ballots and shall ascertain the result of the election after counting all legal ballots.

Section 172. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

(1) If it appears in a proceeding instituted under Section 170 of this Act that the result as certified is not correct, the correct result shall be ascertained and declared by the court and certified to the county board of election commissioners, and the judgment shall supersede the official returns. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the election, or the returns thereof, were materially affected by fraud, duress, bribery, intimidation or corrupt practices, the entire election and the returns thereof shall be declared void and ineffective for any purpose. Costs shall follow the judgment as in equity cases.

(2) An appeal to the Court of Appeals may be prosecuted by the unsuccessful party in the same manner as in other contested election cases. No appeal shall lie from the recount of the ballots, but any questioned ballots may be made a part of the record and the ruling thereon by the circuit court may be reviewed, revised or reversed by the Court of Appeals.

Section 173. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any elector who was qualified to and did vote on any constitutional convention, constitutional amendment or statewide public question submitted to the voters of the state for their ratification or rejection may contest the election or demand a recount of the ballots by filing a petition, not more than fifteen (15) days after the official canvass and the announcement of the vote for the state by the state board of elections, with the clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court, which court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters in such cases. The petition shall set forth the grounds of the contest. The contestant may file with the clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court and the secretary of state a notice of his intention to contest the election before the announcement of the official count by the state board of elections and thereupon the secretary of state shall forthwith notify all the county boards of election commissioners in the counties involved in the contest to hold the ballots cast at the election on the question subject to the order of the Franklin Circuit Court. The notice shall be served by the secretary of state by mailing a true and certified copy of the notice of contest, and the order to hold the ballots subject to the order of the court, by registered mail to the sheriffs of the counties in question, and the sheriffs shall forthwith acknowledge receipt thereof.

(2) If the Franklin Circuit Court is not in session at the time the petition of contest is filed, the clerk of the court shall immediately notify the judge of the filing of the petition. The judge shall, within five (5) days after the filing of the petition of contest, determine whether there are sufficient grounds stated to justify the contest, and shall thereupon require the contestants to give bonds for costs. All of the hearings relating to the contest shall be held in the courthouse of Franklin County.

(3) The clerk of the Franklin Circuit Court shall cause a notice of the contest to be published pursuant to KRS chapter 424, setting out the substance or the grounds of contest alleged by the contestants.

(4) Any elector who participated in the election on the convention, amendment or statewide public question may make himself a party as contestee in the action by filing his petition to be made a party not later than five (5) days after the contest is instituted, and by giving bond of the costs as required of the contestant. If no elector makes himself a party to the contest, the commonwealth's attorney for the Franklin Circuit Court shall attend the trial of the cause, and he may file such motions and pleadings in the cause on behalf of the commonwealth as will insure a fair and honest determination of the contest.

(5) All laws relating to contested elections for state offices shall apply with equal force to contests of the character contemplated by this section, except as otherwise provided in this section and in Section 174 of this Act.

Section 174. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

(1) If a contest instituted under Section 173 of this Act involves the recount of ballots, and the court or judge has determined that the petition of contest presents sufficient grounds, the court or judge shall immediately order the ballots of the counties and precincts in which the recount is demanded sent to the courthouse at Frankfort, in a manner designated in the order. The court or judge may appoint two (2) special commissioners to help make the recount, who shall receive three dollars ($3.00) per day and their actual traveling expenses, when approved by the judge of the Franklin Circuit Court. The attorneys representing the contestant and the commonwealth's attorney representing the contestee may be present at all hearings on the recount. The contestant and contestee shall each be entitled to appoint one (1) inspector, who shall be allowed to witness the recount.

(2) The result of the recount of ballots shall be reported to the court or judge within three (3) days after it has been completed, together with all the disputed ballots and any ballots not counted. After inspecting and passing on the disputed and uncounted ballots, the court or judge shall add such of them as are found to be legal to the number of legal ballots determined by the recount. If the court or judge finds that any ballots were procured by fraud, duress, bribery, intimidation, or for valuable consideration, they shall be rejected as illegal and void. If there has been such error, fraud or other irregularity as to make it impossible to ascertain the correct result in any precinct, the ballots from that precinct shall be thrown out and considered void. The vote from a precinct shall not be counted if the contestants prove that there was bribery or intimidation of the electors in that precinct and the court finds that the contestants were in the minority in that precinct and were not in any way implicated in the bribery or fraud complained of.

Section 175. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

An appeal to the Court of Appeals may be prosecuted by any party to a contest instituted under Section 173 of this Act in the same manner as in other contested election cases.

Section 176. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

The compensation of witnesses and officers taking depositions, and their powers and duties, shall be the same in election contest cases as in actions in equity.

Section 177. A new section of KRS Chapter 119 is created to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any candidate in any primary or general election to agree not to file a suit contesting the election, or to agree to dismiss or cease prosecuting such suit after it has been filed, in consideration of the payment or promise to pay to him, or to any other person, of any money, deputyship, clerkship, employment, or anything of value by such successful candidate or by any other person. Any person who violates this section shall be ineligible thereafter to hold, or become a candidate for nomination or election to, any public office in this state, or to have his name printed on any official ballot in a primary or general election. Any qualified voter may maintain an action to enjoin the printing of the name of a person upon the official ballots for any primary or general election, on the ground that such person has violated this section, and in such action the violation may be proved by parol evidence.

Section 178. A new section of KRS Chapter 120 is created to read as follows:

Section 181. A new section of KRS Chapter 120 is created to read as follows:

Section 182. A new section of KRS Chapter 120 is created to read as follows:

No candidate for nomination or election to any state, county, city or district office shall expend, pay, promise, loan or become pecuniarily liable in any way for money or other thing of value, either directly or indirectly, to any person in consideration of the vote or financial or moral support of that person. No such candidate shall promise, agree or make a contract with any person to vote for or support any particular individual, thing or measure, in consideration for the vote or the financial or moral support of that person in any election, primary or nominating convention, and no person shall demand that any candidate make such a promise, agreement or contract.

However, the provisions of KRS

123.095 shall apply to all candidates for public office.

Section 185. A new section of KRS Chapter 120 is created to read as follows:

The registry shall be composed of five (5) members appointed by the governor as provided herein. The registry shall remain independent of any other agency or department of state government.

The state central committees of the two (2) parties shall each submit a list of three (3) names to the governor and the appointments shall be made from these lists. In the event of a vacancy in the office of chairman, the appointment shall be made in the same manner as the original appointment. All appointments to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term or until a successor is appointed and qualified.

(5) The list to be submitted to the governor for the office of chairman, or to fill a vacancy in that office, shall not be compiled at a time when a vacancy exists in any of the other four (4) offices.

(6) The members of the registry shall be at least twenty-five (25) years of age and shall be registered voters of Kentucky.

(7) The registry shall fix the place and time of its regular meetings by order duly recorded in its minutes. No action shall be taken without a quorum present. (h) Distribute upon request, for a nominal fee, copies of all summaries and reports;

(j) Hold public hearings, investigate any violations in reporting, and issue subpoenas for the production of documents and the attendance of witnesses.

(3) Promptly after the final date for filing statements and reports the registry shall notify all persons who have become delinquent in filing the same, and shall make available a list of such delinquents for public inspection. The registry shall also report to the attorney general and the commonwealth's attorneys such list.

Section 187. A new section of KRS Chapter 120 is created to read as follows:

(2) A bad conduct discharge shall not be adjudged unless a complete record of the proceedings and testimony before the court has been made, and counsel qualified pursuant to KRS 35.130 [under law] was detailed to represent the accused.

(3) (a) Any enlisted member of the national guard or active militia who is not a member of the same unit as the accused is eligible to serve on general and special courts-martial for the trial of any enlisted member, but he shall serve as a member of a court only if, before the conclusion of a session called by the military judge under KRS 35.195 prior to trial or, in the absence of such a session, before the court is assembled for the trial of the accused, the accused personally has requested in writing that enlisted persons serve on it. After such request the accused shall not be tried by a general or special court-martial the membership of which does not include enlisted persons in a number comprising at least one-third (1/3) of the total membership of the court, unless eligible members cannot be obtained on account of physical conditions or military exigencies. [If within the command of the convening authority there is present and not otherwise disqualified a commissioned officer who is a member of the bar of the highest court of this state and of appropriate rank and grade, the convening authority shall appoint him as president of a general or special court-martial. Although this requirement is binding on the convening authority, failure to meet it in any case does not divest a military court of jurisdiction.]

Under such regulations as the adjutant general may prescribe, the convening authority *for each general or special court-martial shall cause a complete record to be kept of all proceedings and testimony before the court. (1) For the preparation, maintenance and revision of a position classification plan for all positions in the classified service, based upon similarity of duties performed and responsibilities assumed, so that the same qualifications may reasonably be required for and the same schedule of pay may be equitably applied to all positions in the same class. After such classification has been approved by the board, the commissioner shall allocate the position of every employe in the classified service to one (1) of the classes in the plan. Any employe affected by the allocation of a position to a class shall, after filing with the commissioner of personnel a written request for reconsideration thereof in such manner and form as the commissioner may prescribe, be given a reasonable opportunity to be heard thereon by the commissioner;

(2) For a pay plan for all employes in the classified service, after consultation with appointing authorities and the commissioner of finance. Each employe shall be paid at one (1) of the rates set forth in the pay plan for the class of position in which he is employed;

(3) For open competitive examinations to test the relative fitness of applicants for the respective positions. The commissioner shall continue to receive applications and examine candidates on a continuous basis long enough to assure a sufficient number of eligibles to meet the needs of the service, and shall add the names of successful candidates to existing eligible lists in accordance with their respective ratings. The commissioner shall be free to use any investigation of education and experience and any test of capacity, knowledge, manual skill, character, personal traits, or physical fitness which in his judgment serves the need to discover the relative fitness of applicants;

(4) For the granting of appropriate preference in original entrance examinations to qualified persons who have been members of the armed forces of the United States [in time of war], and who were honorably discharged , or who have served not less than three years in the Kentucky National Guard and are continuing to serve, or who have been honorably discharged after at least three years' service . Such preference shall be in the form of points added to the final passing grades of such persons on original entrance examinations, Provided That they otherwise qualify and are entitled to appear on the list of those eligible for appointment. Eligibility lists shall expire automatically at the end of two (2) years, unless the life of a list is extended by action of the personnel board for a period not to exceed one (1) additional year;

(7) For the rejection of candidates or eligibles who fail to comply with reasonable requirements of the commissioner in regard to such factors as age, physical condition, training and experience, or who have been guilty of infamous or disgraceful conduct; who are addicted to alcohol to excess or to narcotics, or who have attempted any deception or fraud in connection with an examination;

(8) For the appointment of a person whose score is included in the three (3) highest scores earned on the examination;

(9) For a period of probation not to exceed one (1) year before appointment or promotion may be made complete, and during which period a probationer may be discharged or reduced in class or rank, or replaced on the eligible list. The appointing authority shall, within thirty (30) days prior to the expiration on an employe's probationary period, notify the commissioner in writing whether the probationary employe is recommended for permanent status. Only if the appointing authority certifies to the satisfactory nature of the probationary employe's services, shall permanent status be conferred;

(10) For emergency employment for not more than thirty (30) days with or without examination, with the consent of the commissioner;

(15) For lay-offs by reasons of lack of funds or work, or abolishment of a position, or material change in duties or organization, and for reinstatement of employes so laid off, giving consideration in both lay-offs and re-employment to qualifications, performance records, conduct and seniority in service;

(16) For imposition as disciplinary measures of a fine of not more than ten (10) days' pay or for suspension from the service without pay for not longer than thirty (30) days;

(17) For discharge or reduction in rank or grade only for cause, after the person to be discharged or reduced has been presented with the reasons for such discharge or reduction stated in writing, and has been allowed a reasonable time to reply thereto in writing, or, upon request, to appear personally with counsel and reply to the head of the department or his deputy. The statement of reasons and the reply shall be filed as a public record with the commissioner;

(18) For establishment of a plan for resolving employe grievances and complaints;

Section 23. KRS 39.450 is amended to read as follows:

The governor of this state is hereby authorized and directed to execute a compact on behalf of the commonwealth of Kentucky with any of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER COMPACT

The contracting states solemnly agree:

[ARTICLE I]

The purpose of this compact is to provide mutual aid among the states in meeting any emergency or disaster from enemy attack or other cause (natural or otherwise) including sabotage and subversive acts and direct attacks by bombs, shellfire, and atomic, radiological, chemical, bacteriological means, and other weapons. The prompt, full and effective utilization of the resources of the respective states, including such resources as may be available from the United States government or any other source, are essential to the safety, care and welfare of the people thereof in the event of enemy action or other emergency, and any other resources, including personnel, equipment or supplies, shall be incorporated into a plan or plans of mutual aid to be developed among the civil defense agencies or similar bodies of the states that are parties hereto. The directors of civil defense of all party states shall constitute a committee to formulate plans and take all necessary steps for the implementation of this compact.

[ARTICLE II]

It shall be the duty of each party state to formulate civil defense plans and programs for application within such state. There shall be frequent consultation between the representatives of the states and with the United States government and the free exchange of information and plans, including inventories of any materials and equipment available for civil defense. In carrying out such civil defense plans and programs the party states shall so far as possible provide and follow uniform standards, practices and rules and regulations including:

(a) Insignia, arm bands and any other distinctive articles to designate and distinguish the different civil defense services;

(b) Blackouts and practice blackouts, air raid drills, mobilization of civil defense forces and other tests and exercises;

(c) Warnings and signals for drills or attacks and the mechanical devices to be used in connection therewith;

(d) The effective screening or extinguishing of all lights and lighting devices and appliances;

(e) Shutting off water mains, gas mains, electric power connections and the suspension of all other utility services;

(f) All materials or equipment used or to be used for civil defense purposes in order to assure that such materials and equipment will be easily and freely interchangeable when used in or by any other party state;

(g) The conduct of civilians and the movement and cessation of movement of pedestrians and vehicular traffic, prior, during and subsequent to drills or attacks;

(h) The safety or public meetings or gatherings; and

(i) Mobile support units.

[ARTICLE III]

Any party state requested to render mutual aid shall take such action as is necessary to provide and make available the resources covered by this compact in accordance with the terms hereof; provided that it is understood that the state rendering aid may withhold resources to the extent necessary to provide reasonable protection for such state. Each party state shall extend to the civil defense forces of any other party state, while operating within its state limits under the terms and conditions of this compact, the same powers (except that of arrest unless specifically authorized by the receiving state), duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the state in which normally employed or rendering services. Civil defense forces will continue under the command and control of their regular leaders but the organizational units will come under the operational control of the civil defense authorities of the state receiving assistance.

[ARTICLE IV]

Whenever any person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by any state evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical or other skills, such person may render aid involving such skill in any party state to meet an emergency or disaster and such state shall give due recognition to such license, certificate or other permit as if issued in the state in which aid is rendered.

[ARTICLE V]

No party state or its officers or employes rendering aid in another state pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission in good faith on the part of such forces while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith.

[ARTICLE VI]

Inasmuch as it is probable that the pattern and detail of the machinery for mutual aid among two or more states may differ from that appropriate among other states party hereto, this instrument contains elements of a broad base common to all states, and nothing herein contained shall preclude any state from entering into supplementary agreements with another state or states. Such supplementary agreements may comprehend, but shall not be limited to, provisions for evacuation and reception of injured and other persons, and the exchange of medical, fire, police, public utility, reconnaissance, welfare, transportation, and communications personnel, equipment and supplies.

[ARTICLE VII]

Each party state shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members of the civil defense forces of that state and the representatives of deceased members of such forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this compact, in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such state.

[ARTICLE VIII]

Any party state rendering aid in another state pursuant to this compact shall be reimbursed by the party state receiving such aid for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests; provided, that any aiding party state may assume in whole or in part such loss, damage, expense, or other cost, or may loan such equipment or donate such services to the receiving party state without charge or cost; and provided further that any two or more party states may enter into supplementary agreements establishing a different allocation of costs as among those states. The United States government may relieve the party state receiving aid from any liability and reimburse the party state supplying civil defense forces for the compensation paid to and the transportation, subsistence and maintenance expenses of such forces during the time of the rendition of such aid or assistance outside the state and may also pay fair and reasonable compensation for the use or utilization of the supplies, materials, equipment or facilities so utilized or consumed.

[ARTICLE IX]

Plans for the orderly evacuation and reception of the civilian population as the result of an emergency or disaster shall be worked out from time to time between representatives of the party states and the various local civil defense areas thereof. Such plans shall include the manner of transporting such evacuees, the number of evacuees to be received in different areas, the manner in which food, clothing, housing, and medical care will be provided, the registration of the evacuees, the providing of facilities for the notification of relatives or friends and the forwarding of such evacuees to other areas or the bringing in of additional materials, supplies, and all other relevant factors. Such plans shall provide that the party state receiving evacuees shall be reimbursed generally for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred in receiving and caring for such evacuees, for expenditures for transportation, food, clothing, medicines and medical care and like items. Such expenditures shall be reimbursed by the party state of which the evacuees are residents, or by the United States government under plans approved by it. After the termination of the emergency or disaster the party state of which the evacuees are resident shall assume the responsibility for the ultimate support or repatriation of such evacuees.

[ARTICLE X]

This compact shall be available to any state, territory or possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia. The term "state" may also include any neighboring foreign country or province or state thereof.

[ARTICLE XI]

The committee established pursuant to Article I of this compact may request the civil defense agency of the United States government to act as an informational and coordinating body under this compact, and representatives of such agency of the United States government may attend meetings of such committee.

[ARTICLE XII]

This compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any state as between it and any other state or states so ratifying and shall be subject to approval by congress unless prior congressional approval has been given. Duly authenticated copies of this compact and of such supplementary agreements as may be entered into shall, at the time of their approval, be deposited with each of the party states and with the civil defense agency and other appropriate agencies of the United States government.

[ARTICLE XIII]

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding on each party state until the legislature or the governor of such party state takes action to withdraw therefrom. Such action shall not be effective until 30 days after notice thereof has been sent by the governor of the party state desiring to withdraw to the governors of all other party states.

[ARTICLE XIV]

This compact shall be construed to effectuate the purposes stated in Article I hereof. If any provision of this compact is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Article XV

(1) This Article shall be in effect only as among those states which have enacted it into law or in which the governors have adopted it pursuant to constitutional or statutory authority sufficient to give it the force of law as part of this compact. Nothing contained in this Article or in any supplementary agreement made in implementation thereof shall be construed to abridge, impair or supersede any other provision of this compact or any obligation undertaken by a state pursuant thereto, except that if its terms so provide, a supplementary agreement in implementation of this Article may modify, expand or add to any such obligation as among the parties to the supplementary agreement.

(2) In addition to the occurrences, circumstances and subject matters to which preceding articles of this compact make it applicable, this compact and the authorizations, entitlements and procedures thereof shall apply to:

(a) Searches for and rescue of persons who are lost, marooned, or otherwise in danger.

(b) Action useful in coping with disasters arising from any cause or designed to increase the capability to cope with any such disasters.

(c) Incidents, or the imminence thereof, which endanger the health or safety of the public and which require the use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in larger numbers than are locally available in order to reduce, counteract or remove the danger.

(d) The giving and receiving of aid by subdivisions of party states.

(e) Exercises, drills or other training or practice activities designed to aid personnel to prepare for, cope with or prevent any disaster or other emergency to which this compact applies.

(3) Except as expressly limited by this compact or a supplementary agreement in force pursuant thereto, any aid authorized by this compact or such supplementary agreement may be furnished by any agency of a party state, a subdivision of such state, or by a joint agency providing such aid shall be entitled to reimbursement therefor to the same extent and in the same manner as a state. The personnel of such joint agency, when rendering aid pursuant to this compact shall have the same rights, authority and immunity as personnel of party states.

(4) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to exclude from the coverage of Articles I-XIV of this compact any matter which, in the absence of this Article, could reasonably be construed to be covered thereby.

Section 24. The governor is hereby authorized to take such actions as are necessary to effectuate the provisions of the compact set forth in KRS 39.950.

Section 25. KRS 39.406 and 39.428 are repealed.

The Committee on Appropriations and Revenue reported SB 206, with Committee Substitute and Committee Amendment to the Committee Substitute for SB 206 attached thereto, with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Calendar.

SB 206, AN ACT relating to occupational license fees in counties of 300,000 or more inhabitants.

WHEREAS, the General Assembly, in granting home rule to counties and to cities of the first class, recognizes that local problems cannot be solved by actions of the General Assembly alone and that the most effective agency for the solution of these problems is local government; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly, in legislation relating to home rule of counties, delegates to fiscal courts all authority within its power to delegate in order that fiscal courts may better provide for the health, education, safety, welfare and convenience of the inhabitants of counties; and

WHEREAS, the General Assembly, in authorizing occupational license fees for counties having 300,000 or more inhabitants, finds and declares that in any such county there are special problems besetting public education and delegates to the fiscal court and the boards of education the power to levy such fees pursuant to the solution of these problems; and

WHEREAS, the sense of the General Assembly continues to be that government must be responsive to the people and that, whenever possible, local problems should be solved by local people through their elected local officials; and, moreover, that local officials with the power to spend the people's money should be required to face squarely the responsibility for their acts;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 160.483 is amended to read as follows:

The license fees imposed under KRS 160.482 to 160.488 on businesses, trades, occupations, and professions shall be at a single, uniform percentage rate not to exceed one-half of one per cent (.5%) of (a) salaries, wages and commissions, and other compensations earned by persons within the county for work done and services performed or rendered in the county, and (b) the net profits of all businesses, trades, occupations, and professions, for activities conducted in the county. The license fees, once imposed, shall continue from year to year until changed as prescribed in KRS 160.484. No public service company which pays an ad valorem tax is required to pay a license fee hereunder. No license fee shall be imposed upon or collected from any bank, trust company, combined bank and trust company or combined trust, banking and title business in this state. No license tax shall be collected from any individual who is not a resident of the county of the tax-levying authority imposing the tax.

Section 2. KRS 160.484 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) the fiscal court has discretion to impose or not impose the license fees authorized by KRS 160.482 to 160.488 at a percentage rate, not to exceed one-half of one per cent (.5%), determined by the fiscal court. A fiscal court shall not proceed under this subsection without first giving all boards of education in the county thirty (30) days notice of its intention.

(2) If one or more boards of education of school districts within the county which contain at least ninety per cent (90%) of county's inhabitants, in the same calendar year certify to the fiscal court requests for a license fee at an identical percentage rate, not to exceed one-half of one per cent (.5%), then the fiscal court shall impose such license fees at the requested rate.

(3) Any license fees imposed under subsections (1) or (2) shall remain in full effect from year to year until all boards of education within the county have certified to the fiscal court requests for a reduction in the percentage rate theretofore imposed. Thereafter, the fiscal court shall reduce the rate to the highest rate certified as yet necessary by any board of education in the county. The fiscal court may require each board of education to make no more than one (1) certificate annually.

(4) In any calendar year in which one or more boards of education of school districts containing at least ninety per cent (90%) of the county's inhabitants make a certification pursuant to subsection (2) for a rate which is at a higher percentage than any currently imposed, the fiscal court shall impose the license fee at the higher rate and any rate imposed pursuant to subsections (1), (2), or (3) shall be rescinded upon the date the new rate takes effect.

Section 3. KRS 160.485 is amended to read as follows:

(1) The imposition of license fees authorized hereby shall be by order or resolution of the fiscal court. There shall be no more than one (1) such order or resolution passed in any (1) one calendar year. In the case of license fees required to be imposed pursuant to subsection (2) of KRS 160.484 the fiscal court shall make the order or resolution within ten (10) days following receipt of the first request which makes subsection (2) of KRS 160.484 effective.

(2) The order or resolution of the fiscal court imposing license fees pursuant to subsections (1), (2), or (4) of KRS 160.484 shall go into effect thirty (30) days after its passage. If during the thirty (30) days next following the passage of the order or resolution a petition signed by a number of registered and qualified voters equal to fifteen per cent (15%) of the votes cast in the county for the office receiving the greatest total vote at the last preceding presidential election is presented to the fiscal court protesting against passage of the order or resolution, the order or resolution shall be suspended from going into effect until after the election referred to in subsection (3) of this section. Each sheet of the petition shall contain the names and addresses of voters in but one (1) voting precinct, and each sheet shall state the name, number, or designation of the precinct and, where applicable, the name, designation, or number of the district or ward wherein the precinct is situated. Each voter shall sign his name in the same manner as he signed the current registration form described in KRS 117.630 or subsection (2) of KRS 117.720, as the case may be. If the signature is difficult to read, the voter shall, on the same line legibly write or print his name in the same fashion as he signed it. One or more persons shall verify by affidavit the signatures and addresses of the signers of the petition. The board or boards of registration in the county shall give necessary and appropriate aid to the fiscal court so that the latter body may make the initial, but not conclusive, determination of whether the petition contains enough signatures of qualified voters to suspend the effect of the order or resolution.

(3) Thereupon the fiscal court shall submit to the voters of the county at the next regular election or called common school district election, either of which to be held not less than sixty (60) days from the date of passage of said order or resolution, the question as to whether such license fees for common school purposes shall be levied. The question shall be so framed that the voter may by his vote answer, "for" or "against." If a majority of the votes cast upon the question oppose its passage, the order or resolution shall not go into effect. If a majority of the votes cast upon the question favor its passage, the order or resolution shall go into effect.

(4) License fees imposed pursuant to KRS 160.482 to 160.488 shall become applicable upon the date specified in the order or resolution, but in no event later than the first day of the calendar year first beginning after the day upon which the said order or resolution is made.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

Any county having 300,000 or more inhabitants is authorized to increase the school rate for occupational license fees provided for in KRS 160.482 to 160.488 to exceed the maximum rate set in KRS 160.483 and 160.484 by one-quarter of one per cent (.25%) after compliance with KRS 160.484 and 160.485, except that the petition protesting the exceeding rate shall be signed by a number of registered and qualified voters equal to seven per cent (7%) of the votes cast in the county for the office receiving the greatest total vote at the last preceding presidential election.

The Committee Amendment to the Committee Substitute for SB 206 is as follows:

Amend printed copy of Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 206 on page 1, by amending the title to read as follows: "AN ACT relating to occupational license fees in counties containing a city of the first class."

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 160 is created to read as follows:

(f) To each parent, if actually dependent, 25 percent.

(g) To the brothers, sisters, grandparents, and grandchildren, if actually dependent, 25 percent to each such dependent. If there should be more than one of such dependents, the total income benefits payable on account of such dependents shall be divided share and share alike.

(h) The income benefits of each beneficiary under paragraphs (f) and (g) above shall be paid until he, if a parent or grandparent, dies, marries, or ceases to be actually dependent, or, if a brother, sister, or grandchild, dies, marries, or reaches the age of eighteen or if over that age ceases to be physically or mentally incapable of self-support, or ceases to be actually dependent.

(i) A person ceases to be actually dependent when his income from all sources exclusive of workmen's compensation income benefits is such that, if it had existed at the time as of which the original determination of actual dependency was made, it would not have supported a finding of dependency. In any event, if the present annual income of an actual dependent person including workmen's compensation income benefits at any time exceeds the total annual support received by the person from the deceased employe, the workmen's compensation benefits shall be reduced so that the total annual income is no greater than such amount of annual support received from the deceased employe. In all cases, a person found to be actually dependent shall be presumed to be no longer actually dependent three years after each time as of which the person was found to be actually dependent. This presumption may be overcome by proof of continued actual dependency as defined in this subsection, but full payments shall not be suspended during the pendency of any proceeding to determine dependency.

(j) If there are no dependents surviving said deceased worker, 50% of the average weekly wage of the deceased for three years, shall be paid to his estate in one lump sum.

(2) Upon the cessation of income benefits under this section to or on account of any person, the income benefits of the remaining persons entitled to income benefits for the unexpired part of the period during which their income benefits are payable shall be that which such persons would have received if they had been the only persons entitled to income benefits at the time of the decedent's death.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the average weekly wage of the employe shall be taken as not more than the average weekly wage of the state as determined in KRS 342.740. In no case shall the aggregate weekly income benefits payable to all beneficiaries under this section exceed the maximum income benefit that was or would have been payable for total disability to the deceased, including benefits to his dependents.

(4) The maximum weekly income benefits payable for all beneficiaries in case of death shall not exceed 75 percent of the average weekly wage of the deceased as calculated under KRS 342.140, subject to the maximum limits in subsection (3) above. The maximum aggregate limitation shall not operate in case of payment of two years' income benefits to the widow or widower upon remarriage as provided under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, to prevent the immediate recalculation and payments of benefits to the remaining beneficiaries as provided under subsection (2) of this section, but the weekly income benefits as to such remaining beneficiaries shall not exceed the weekly income benefit that was or would have been payable for total disability to the deceased. The classes of beneficiaries specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (d) of subsection (1) shall have priority over all other beneficiaries in the apportionment of income benefits. If the provisions of this subsection should prevent payment to other beneficiaries of the income benefits to the full extent otherwise provided for by this section, the gross remaining amount of income benefits payable to such other beneficiaries shall be apportioned by class, proportionate to the interest of each class in the remaining amount. Parents shall be considered to be in one class and those specified in paragraph (f) of subsection (1) in another class.

(5) All relations of dependency referred to in this section shall mean dependency existing at the time of the accident to the employe or at the time his disability from an occupational disease began.

(5) In the standards established by Subsections (1) through (4), every person as defined in KRS 224.010 shall remove from their discharges those substances described in Subsections (1) through (4) to the lowest practicable level attainable under current technology.

Section 3. Stream use classification. In addition to the minimum conditions set forth in Section 2, the following specific stream use classification shall govern where applicable:

(1) Public water supply and food processing industries. The following criteria are applicable to surface water at the point at which water is withdrawn for use for a public water supply or by a food processing industry.

(a) Bacteria: Coliform group not to exceed 5,000 per 100 ml as a monthly arithmetical average value (either MPN or MF count); nor exceed this number in more than 20 percent of the samples examined during any month; nor exceed 20,000 per 100 ml in more than 5 percent of such samples.

(3) °Aquatic life. The following criteria are for evaluation of conditions for the maintenance of well balanced, indigenous fish population. The aquatic use standards shall not apply to areas immediately adjacent to outfalls. Areas immediately adjacent to outfalls shall be as small as possible, be provided for mixing only, and shall not prevent the free passage of fish and drift organisms.

(a) Dissolved oxygen. Concentrations shall average at least 5.0 mg/l per calendar day and shall not be less than 4.0 mg/l at any time or any place outside the mixing zone.

April	70
May	80
June	87
July	89
August	89
September	87
October	78
November	70
December	57

(v) The allowable temperature increase in public water impoundments will be limited to 3[. IN THE EPILIMNION IF THERMAL STRATIFICATION EXISTS. PUBLIC WATER IMPOUNDMENTS

INCLUDE ALL IMPOUNDED WATERS OF THE COMMONWEALTH WHICH ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC AND USED BY THE PUBLIC.

(D)]Toxic substances: Not to exceed one-tenth of the 96-hour median tolerance limit of fish; where there are substances that are toxic because of their cumulative characteristics other limiting concentrations may be used in specific cases as presently approved by the Federal Environmental Protection Agency, or as later adopted by the Water Pollution Control Commission.

(e) Put-and-take trout streams: The following criteria are applicable to those waters designated by the Commission as put-and-take trout streams:

(i) Dissolved oxygen: Concentrations shall not be less than 6.0 mg/l at any time or any place. Spawning areas (during the spawning season) shall be protected by a minimum DO concentration of 7.0 mg/l.

(ii) Temperature: Stream temperatures shall not be increased artificially above the natural temperature at any time in cold water trout streams.

Bacteria: The total coliform level shall not exceed an average 1,000 per 100 ml. Total coliform shall not exceed this number in 20 percent of the samples in a month, nor exceed 2400/100 ml on any day. If the level of total coliform is exceeded, then a fecal coliform standard shall be used. There shall be a reduction of fecal coliform to such degree that (i) during the months of May through October fecal coliform density in the discharge does not exceed 200 per 100 ml as a monthly geometric mean (based on not less than ten samples per month), nor exceed 400 per 100 ml in more than ten percent of the samples examined during a month, and (ii) during the months of November through April the density does not exceed 1,000 per 100 ml as a monthly geometric mean (based on not less than ten samples per month), nor exceed 2,000 per 100 ml in more than ten percent of the samples examined during a month.

(5) Agricultural: No criteria in addition to the minimum conditions enumerated in Section 2 are proposed for the evaluation of stream quality at the point at which water is withdrawn for agricultural and stock watering use.

Section 4. Multiple uses. One or more uses established in Section 3 may apply to the same waters. The use criteria shall apply to those waters suitable for the use or uses provided in Section 3. In the event there is a conflict between or among the applicable uses, the more stringent use criteria shall apply.

WP-6-2. Use Classification of Waters, Treatment Requirements, and Compliance.

Section 1. (1) Except as otherwise provided by law, all waters shown on the map "Streams of Kentucky" prepared by the Kentucky Department of Commerce, Frankfort, Kentucky 1973, (Scale 1" = 10 miles) are classified for all uses in accord with WP-4-1, Sections 3 and 4.

(2) All discharges to waters not shown on the map described in (1) of this section shall meet all use classifications set forth in WP-4-1, Sections 3 and 4, at the point where those waters join with waters shown on the map.

Section 2. (1) All persons who discharge through point sources, including but not limited to any discernible, confined and discrete conveyance, including but not limited to any pipe, ditch, channel, tunnel, conduit, well, discrete fissure, container, rolling stock, concentrated animal feeding operation, or vessel or other floating craft, from which pollutants are or may be discharged, shall satisfy the requirements of this section.

(2) All persons who discharge through a point source shall apply the best practicable control technology considering such factors as the total cost of the application of such technology in relation to the effluent reduction benefits to be achieved from such application, the age of the equipment and facilities involved, the process employed, the engineering aspects of the application of various types of control techniques, process changes, non-water quality environmental impact and such other factors as the Department considers appropriate to treatment facilities not later than July 1, 1977.

(3) All persons who discharge through a point source shall apply the best available technology economically achievable by July 1, 1983. In determining what is the best available technology economically achievable, the factors in (2), of this section, shall be considered, and in addition, any control measures and practices available to eliminate the discharge of pollutants, taking into account the cost of eliminating the discharge of pollutants.

(4) Where coliform bacteria are present in a discharge, disinfection shall be required in accord with WP-4-1, Section 3(4).

Section 3. All existing facilities shall satisfy applicable sections of this regulation or be committed to a compliance schedule which will achieve the same result. New facilities shall satisfy Sections 1 and 2 upon commencing operations.

Section 4. (1) All permits on existing facilities shall be reviewed to insure that they shall satisfy the requirements of Sections 1, 2, and 3. When the permit for an existing facility is reviewed, the person(s) responsible shall be notified to submit an application for a permit anew with such supporting information as may be required by the Department.

(2) Upon notice of review, persons failing to submit a complete application within 60 days shall be in violation of this regulation unless an extension is granted by the Department.

Section 5. (1) The Department shall refuse to issue a permit to any applicant where the discharge, in the judgment of the Department, does not conform to the Policy of the Commonwealth as set forth in KRS Chapter 224.

(2) This ratification and approval of the foregoing water pollution regulations WP-4-1 and WP-6-2 shall not operate to prohibit the Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Protection from making such charges or modifications in the foregoing regulations as it deems advisable and in the furtherance of the quality of the waters of the Commonwealth.

Section 6. Whereas, it is imperative that water pollution and water quality standards are adopted without delay, an emergency is declared to exist, and this Act shall become effective upon its passage and approval by the Governor.

This percentage shall be computed by taking as a basis the value of the individual apartment in relation to the value of the property as a whole.

(b) The percentage shall be expressed at the time the horizontal property regime is constituted, shall have a permanent character, and except as provided in Section 4 of this Act, shall not be altered without the acquiescence of the co-owners representing all the apartments of the building. The master deed may, however, contain provisions relating to the appropriation, taking or condemnation by eminent domain by the federal, state or local government, or an instrumentality thereof, including, but not limited to, reapportionment or other change of the common interest appurtenant to each apartment, or part thereof, remaining after a partial appropriation, taking or condemnation.

(c) The basic value, which shall be fixed for the sole purpose of this chapter and irrespective of the actual value, shall not prevent each co-owner from fixing a different circumstantial value to his apartment in all types of acts and contracts.

(2) Each co-owner may use the elements held in common in accordance with the purpose for which they are intended, without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other co-owners.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 381 is created to read as follows:

(1) The owner of an apartment designed for office or commercial use may divide his apartment into two or more smaller apartments, or may combine his apartment with all or a part of one or more apartments to form a larger apartment. No interest in the apartment shall be conveyed until the declaration and floor plans have been modified as provided in this section.

(2) Prior to subdividing or expanding his apartment, the owner shall prepare a set of floor plans which shall show the changes being made in the apartment or apartments involved. The plans shall bear the verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer that they accurately portray the apartment involved and the changes being made, and the apartment owner shall attach to the plans a verified statement which shall contain:

elements of the apartment or apartments being formed. The percentage of interest in the common elements of the apartment or apartments being formed shall be in proportion to the fair value of the original apartment or apartments;

(f) Any further provisions that would serve to clarify the changes being made.

(2) The floor plans and verified statement shall be approved in writing by the council of co-owners, by the owners of each apartment located on the same floor or floors of the building in which the apartment or apartments being altered are located, and by any person holding a lien on such apartment or apartments, and shall be filed for record with the county clerk in the county in which the land described in the declaration is situated as provided in KRS 381.835. The floor plans and verified statement shall be considered as an amendment to the original declaration and floor plans for the sole purpose of altering the size of an apartment or apartments and the corresponding percentage of interest in the common elements.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 381 is created to read as follows:

(1) Where a judgment arising from a risk common to all of the co-owners is in excess of the liability insurance in force, the liability of any co-owner shall not exceed his pro rata share as determined by the percentage the value of his individual apartment bears to the value of the property as a whole. An uncollected share of a judgment shall not be reassessed among the other co-owners.

(2) Any apartment owner shall be individually liable for injuries or damages which result from his own conduct or which occur within his individual apartment to the same extent and degree as the individual owner of any other residential or commercial property.

If a condominium does not contain any unit which is designed for occupancy by only one family or household, or if the floor area of all those units which are designed for occupancy by only one family or household does not in the aggregate exceed ten percent of the floor area of all units in the condominium, then the following provisions shall be applicable notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter:

(1) The by-laws may provide:

(a) That to any extent specified in the by-laws the common profits shall be distributed among, and the common expenses shall be charged to, the unit owners in proportions other than according to their respective percentages of the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities;

(b) That to any extent specified in the by-laws the unit owners shall not be personally liable for sums assessed for their share of common expenses, but such provisions shall not adversely affect any lien for said share;

(c) For limitations upon the first mortgages of record or the types or categories thereof which shall have priority over the liens provided for in KRS 381.883(2) which may be dependent on the person or entity to whom such mortgages are given or upon such other criteria as may be specified in the by-laws;

(d) A procedure for submitting the disputes arising from the administration of the condominium to arbitration or other impartial determination;

(e) Provisions giving a particular apartment owner or owners voting rights with respect to election of directors, trustees or members of a managing board less than, or in excess of, the voting rights which such owner or owners would otherwise have had, and provisions requiring or permitting approval of any matter, or any specified category or categories of matters, by a proportion greater than a majority, which proportion may be as great as one hundred percent;

(f) Terms and conditions differing from those set forth in KRS 381.830, 381.890 or 381.895 regarding rebuilding made necessary by fire or other casualty loss, the making of improvements and allocation of the costs of such rebuilding or improvements, and the removal of the condominium or portion thereof from the provisions of this chapter; and in such case the terms and conditions of the by-laws shall take precedence over the provisions of KRS 381.830, 381.890 or 381.895 to the extent they are inconsistent.

(2) The master deed need not contain a statement of the number of rooms in any unit designed for purposes other than dwelling.

(3) The plans or drawings required by KRS 381.815 need not include non-structural walls by which the interior of an apartment is divided.

[(c) The basic value, which shall be fixed for the sole purpose of this chapter and irrespective of the actual value, shall not prevent each co-owner from fixing a different circumstantial value to his apartment in all types of acts and contracts.]

(2) Each co-owner may use the general common elements [held in common] in accordance with the purpose for which they are intended, without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other co-owners.

Section 6. KRS 381.835 is amended to read as follows:

The county clerk shall immediately set up the mechanics and methods by which recordation of a master deed or lease and of the individual units [apartments] may be made. Provisions shall be made for the recordation of the individual units [apartments] on subsequent re-sales, mortgages and other encumbrances, as is done with all other real estate recordation. The master deed or lease to which KRS 381.815 refers shall express the following particulars:

(1) The description of the land, whether leased or in fee simple, and the building, expressing their respective areas;

(2) The general description and the number of each unit [apartment], expressing its area, location and any other data necessary for its identification;

(3) The description of the general common elements of the building; and

(4) The common elements, both general and limited, shall remain undivided and shall not be the object of an action for partition or division of the co-ownership. Any covenant to the contrary shall be void.

(5) Simultaneously with the recording of the declaration, there shall be filed in the office of the recording officer a set of the floor plans of the building or buildings, showing the layout, location, unit [apartment] numbers and dimensions of the units [apartments], stating the name of the property or that it has no name, and bearing the verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer certifying that it is an accurate copy of portions of the plans of the building(s) [building] as filed with and approved by the county or city and county officer having jurisdiction over the issuance of permits for the construction of buildings, or, in the alternative, certifying that the plans fully and accurately depict the layout, location, unit numbers and dimensions of the units as built. If the plans do not include a verified statement by such architect or engineer that such plans fully and accurately depict the layout, location, unit [apartment] numbers and dimensions of the units [apartments] as built, there shall be recorded prior to the first conveyance of any unit [apartment] an amendment to the declaration to which shall be attached a verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer so certifying [that] as to the plans theretofore filed, or being filed simultaneously with such amendment[, fully and accurately depict the layout, location, apartment numbers and dimensions of the apartments as built]. Correspondingly, the record of the declaration, shall contain a reference to the file number of the floor plans of the building or buildings on the property affected thereby.

Section 7. KRS 381.840 is amended to read as follows:

The deed of each individual unit shall describe such unit by making reference to the applicable master deed and floor plans required under KRS 381.835, designating the letter or number or other appropriate designation of the unit, followed by the words "a condominium unit". Any conveyance of an individual unit shall be deemed to also convey the undivided interest of the owner in the common elements, both general and limited, appertaining to said unit without specifically or particularly referring to same.

[The deed of each individual apartment shall express the particulars prescribed under subsections (1) and (2) of KRS 381.835 relative to the apartments concerned and shall also express all encumbrances thereon.]

Section 8. KRS 381.860 is amended to read as follows:

The administration of the [every] building or buildings constituted into a condominium [horizontal] property regime shall be governed by bylaws approved and adopted by the council of co-owners. The bylaws may be amended from time to time by vote of a majority of the council.

Section 9. KRS 381.865 is amended to read as follows:

The administrator, or board of administration, or the person appointed pursuant to [by] the by-laws of the regime, shall keep a book with a detailed account of the receipts and expenditures affecting the project [building] and its administration and specifying the maintenance and repair expenses of the common elements and any other common expenses incurred by or in behalf of the regime. Both the book and vouchers accrediting the entries made thereon shall be available for examination by all the co-owners at convenient hours on working days that shall be set and announced for general knowledge. All books and records shall be kept in accordance with good accounting procedures and be audited at least once a year by an auditor outside of the organization.

Section 10. KRS 381.870 is amended to read as follows:

All co-owners are bound to contribute in accordance with their percentage of common interest [pro rata] toward the expenses of administration and of maintenance, repairs and replacement reserves of the general common elements, and, in the proper case, of the limited common elements of the regime, and toward any other expenses lawfully assessed under the master deed and/or [agreed upon] by the council of co-owners. Provided, however, that the master deed may provide for adjustments by the council of co-owners for contributions proportioned upon a consideration of a combination of floor area, the number of occupants, demand on public utilities and accessibility to limited common elements. No owner shall be exempt from contributing toward such expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of the common elements, both general and limited, or by abandonment of the unit [apartment] belonging to him; provided, abatement or reduction in an owner's contribution may be granted by the council of co-owners for a reasonable period of time, during which a unit is uninhabitable as the result of damage or destruction.

The laws relating to exemptions as set out in KRS Chapter 427 are applicable to the individual units [apartments] which shall have the benefit of said exemption in those cases the same as in ownership of any other property.

Section 12. KRS 381.883 is amended to read as follows:

All sums assessed by the council of co-owners but unpaid for the unit's share of the common expenses [chargeable to any apartment] constitute a lien on such unit [apartment] prior to all other liens, except only (1) liens for taxes and assessments lawfully imposed by governmental authority against such unit [apartment], and (2) all sums unpaid on first mortgages of record. Such lien may be enforced [foreclosed] by suit by the administrator or board of administration, acting on behalf of the unit [apartment] owners, in like manner as a mortgage of real property. In any such enforcement action [foreclosure] the unit [apartment] owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the unit [apartment], if so provided in the bylaws, and the plaintiff in such enforcement action [forclosure] shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The administrator or board of administration, acting on behalf of the unit [apartment] owners, shall have power, unless prohibited by the declaration, to bid in the unit [apartment] at court [foreclosure] sale, and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses of an owner shall be maintainable without lien enforcement [foreclosing] or waiving the lien securing the same.

Section 13. KRS 381.885 is amended to read as follows:

The council of co-owners may acquire insurance protection for the regime, including, but not exclusively, casualty, liability and employee workman's compensation insurance, without prejudice to the right of each co-owner to insure his own unit on his own account and for his own benefit. The premiums on such insurance shall be considered common expenses, enforceable under lien rights, provided, should the amount of any insurance premium be affected by a particular use of a unit or units, the owners of such units shall be required to pay any increase in premium resulting from such use.

[The co-owners may, upon resolution of a majority, insure the building against risks, without prejudice to the right of each co-owner to insure his apartment on his own account and for his own benefit.]

Section 14. KRS 381.890 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In case of fire or other destruction or damage the regime's insurance indemnity, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, shall be applied to reconstruct and repair the common elements affected.

(2) Where the destruction and damage is not insured or where the insurance indemnity is not sufficient to cover the cost of reconstruction or repair, the cost (or added cost) shall be paid by the co-owners as a common expense, the council by a majority vote being authorized to borrow funds therefor and to amortize the repayment of same over a period of time, not exceeding the reasonable life of the reconstruction or repairs.

(3) Reconstruction shall not be compulsory where two-thirds or more of a building is destroyed provided there are provisions in the master deed or bylaws of the regime making adequate provision for reasonable compensation to those co-owners who are deprived of their interest as the result of the failure to reconstruct and further providing for the recalculation and redistribution of the percentage of common interest.

[(1) In case of fire or any other disaster the insurance indemnity shall, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, be applied to reconstruct the building.

(2) Reconstruction shall not be compulsory where it comprises the whole or more than two-thirds of the building. In such case, and unless otherwise unanimously agreed upon by the co-owners, the indemnity shall be delivered pro rata to the co-owners entitled to it in accordance with provision made in the bylaws or in accordance with a decision of three-fourths of the co-owners if there is no bylaw provision.

(3) Should it be proper to proceed with the reconstruction, the provisions for such eventuality made in the bylaws shall be observed, or in lieu thereof, the decision of the council of co-owners shall prevail.]

Section 15. KRS 381.900 is amended to read as follows:

Taxes, assessments and other charges of this State, or of any political subdivision, or of any special improvement district, or any other taxing or assessing authority shall be assessed against and collected on each individual unit [apartment], each of which shall be carried on the tax books as a separate and distinct entity for that purpose, and not on the [building or] property as a whole. The valuation of the general and limited common elements shall be assessed proportionately among the co-owners thereof. No forfeiture or sale of the improvements [building] or property as a whole for delinquent taxes, assessments or charges shall ever divest or in anywise affect the title to an individual unit [apartment] so long as taxes, assessments and charges to said individual unit [apartment] are currently paid.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 381 is created to read as follows:

(1) The owner of a unit designed for office, industrial or business use may divide his unit into two or more smaller units. No interest in the unit shall be conveyed until the master deed and floor plans have been modified as provided in this section.

(2) Prior to subdividing his unit, the owner shall prepare a set of floor plans which shall show the changes being made in the unit involved. The plans shall bear the verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer that they accurately portray the unit involved and the changes being made, and the unit owner shall attach to the plans a verified statement which shall contain:

(a) The name by which the property is known;

(b) A reference to the book and page of the recorded master deed and floor plans of the property and any amendments thereto in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the land described in the master deed is situated;

(c) The original unit number of each unit involved in the division, a description or designation of the building in which the unit is located, and the new unit number of each unit being formed;

(d) A statement of the location, approximate area, number of rooms and the structural changes in the perimeter and interior walls, floors, ceilings, windows and doors of the unit being formed and the immediate common element or limited common element to which the unit has access, and any other data necessary for the proper identification of the units being formed by changes to the original unit;

(e) A description of the percentage of interest of the original unit in the common elements, and a description of the new percentage or percentages of interest in the common elements of the units being formed. The percentage of interest in the common elements of the units being formed shall be in proportion to the floor area of the original unit and shall, when taken cumulatively, total the same percentage of interest in the common elements as that of the original unit;

(f) Any further provisions that would serve to clarify the changes being made.

(3) The floor plans and verified statement shall be approved in writing by a majority, unless otherwise provided by the master deed, of the council of co-owners, and by any person holding a lien on such units, and shall be filed for record with the county clerk in the county in which the land described in the master deed is situated as provided in KRS 381.835. The floor plans and verified statement shall be considered as an amendment to the original master deed and floor plans for the sole purpose of dividing a unit and the corresponding percentage of interest in the common elements.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 381 is created to read as follows:

(1) Where a judgment arising from a risk common to all of the co-owners is in excess of the liability insurance in force, the liability of any co-owner shall not exceed his pro rata share as determined by the percentage the value of his individual unit bears to the value of the property as a whole. An uncollected share of a judgment shall not be reassessed among the other co-owners.

(2) Any unit owner shall be individually liable for injuries or damages which result from his own negligence or willful misconduct or which occur within his individual unit to the same extent and degree as the individual owner of any other residential, office, industrial or business property.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 381 is created to read as follows:

If a condominium does not contain any unit which is designed for occupancy by only one family or household, or if the floor area of all those units which are designed for occupancy by only one family or household does not in the aggregate exceed ten percent of the floor area of all units in the condominium, then the following provisions shall be applicable notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter:

The master deed may provide:

(1) That to any extent specified in the master deed the common profits shall be distributed among, and the common expenses shall be charged to, the unit owners in proportions other than according to their respective percentages of the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities;

(2) That to any extent specified in the master deed the unit owners shall not be personally liable for sums assessed for their share of common expenses, but such provisions shall not adversely affect any lien for said share;

(3) That the priority provided in KRS 381.883(2) shall not prohibit subordination of a mortgage lien to the lien for common expenses;

(4) A procedure for submitting the disputes arising from the administration of the condominium to arbitration or other impartial determination;

(6) Terms and conditions differing from those set forth in KRS 381.830 or 381.890 regarding rebuilding made necessary by fire or other casualty loss, the making of improvements and allocation of the costs of such rebuilding or improvements, and the removal of the condominium or portion thereof from the provisions of this chapter; and in such case the terms and conditions of the master deed shall take precedence over the provisions of KRS 381.830 or 381.890 to the extent they are inconsistent.

(1) In this Act, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Administrative or directorial position" means the head of a department or other executive unit other than those excluded under subsection (1)(f) of this section of an urban county government. It is hereby provided that (i) in any urban government in a county wherein there had existed, just prior to the effective date of the urban county form of government, a city of the second class which had theretofore elected to operate under KRS 90.310 to 90.410, any such city's administrative or directorial employes who had not been included in the class of employes subject to civil service, and (ii) in any urban county government where the charter thereof so provides, any person holding an administrative or directorial position, who is, on the effective date of the urban county form of government, past the age of forty-five years and who has filled such position for a period of not less than one year next prior to December 31, 1973, may, if he elects, continue in said position without taking the competitive examination required by this Act.

(b) "Appointing authority" means the officer, commission, board or body having the power of appointment or removal in any office, department, commission, board or institution.

(d) "Commission" means the board of civil service commissioners as established under this Act.

(e) "Dismissal" means the discharge of an employe.

(g) "Pension fund" means the moneys derived from the urban county government, and employes and the levy of a special tax, and any other sum derived from any other source, to be used for the retirement of employes after the prescribed years of service and for the benefit of disabled employes, and widows and dependent children in the case of death of an employe within the scope of his employment according to the terms of this Act, the urban county charter and the ordinance of the urban county government.

(h) "Seniority" for purposes of this Act refers to length of service as defined in the charter or ordinance, but shall in each case include such service under cities, counties or other municipalities which have been merged into the urban county government; except that the charter may limit seniority to seniority under such municipalities as had in effect, prior to the adoption of urban county government, a merit civil service system. Seniority and length of service for purposes of this Act shall be in accordance with rules established by the charter or ordinance, but shall in each case include service or seniority obtained under pension plans described in such section existing in municipalities prior to the adoption of urban county government, and shall in no case give credit to any service or seniority except in respect to such prior service in municipalities having such pension plans, or under urban county governments.

(2) The provisions of this Act are independent of and do not affect the laws governing the police and fire departments, nor their pension funds.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any urban county government shall operate under the provisions of this Act, and, by charter or ordinance, create a civil service commission, which shall hold examinations as to the qualifications of applicants for municipal employment within the urban county government that are designated by charter or ordinance. The urban county government shall, by ordinance, create civil service classifications for all employes consistent with the actual work to be performed by such employes.

(2) The mayor, or other appointing authority, as determined by the charter, subject to the approval of the urban county government legislative body, shall appoint five persons who shall constitute the civil service commission of that urban county government. Each appointee shall be at least thirty years of age and not related by either blood or marriage to the mayor or any member of the urban county government. The appointees shall originally be appointed, two for a term of two years and three for a term of four years, and the successors to these appointees shall be appointed in like manner, each for a period of four years and until his successor is appointed and qualified. A vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as original appointments. There shall be chosen by the commission from among its members a secretary of the commission. The secretary shall be an employe of the urban county legislative body who is covered by the provisions of this Act, and the appointing authority shall appoint at least one such person to membership in the commission at all times. Each appointee shall qualify by taking an oath of office as required by law. The salaries of the members of the commission may be fixed by the urban county government legislative body in accordance with its charter.

(3) If the appointing authority of any urban county government fails to appoint a civil service commission within thirty days after he has the power to so appoint or after a vacancy exists, the vice mayor, or the second ranking elected executive officer of the urban county government, however designated, shall make the appointment and the appointee shall hold office until the expiration of the term and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

(4) The civil service commission shall make and enforce rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the charter or the ordinances of the urban county government, for examinations and registrations therefor.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) The civil service commission shall prescribe and propound such examinations as are proper, commensurate with vacant positions within the various departments of the urban county government, according to classification prescribed by ordinance, shall set such times and places for holding examinations as may be proper and shall give public notice of examinations by publication pursuant to KRS Chapter 424.

(2) The civil service commission shall, as soon after examinations as is practicable, certify to the mayor or other appointing authority, a list of the applicants so examined, with the one having the highest average ranked first, and all others ranked numerically according to the result of the examination.

(3) Every soldier, sailor, marine, members of the air forces, army nurses' corps and members of other branches of the military services and Red Cross nurses who served during the period of hostilities between the United States and the Central Powers in World War I and between the United States and Japan and Germany in World War II, or the Korean or Vietnam conflict who has not been dishonorably discharged, who is a resident voter of the urban county government and who is an applicant for any position of civil service of that urban county government shall be entitled to five percent increase on his examination mark.

(4) The civil service commission of urban county governments shall maintain an eligible list of not less than three for each position to be filled.

(5) The appointing authority may designate certain civil service positions and prescribe that for such positions the examinations shall first be given exclusively to current employes; provided, however, that if less than three employes with a minimum of two years' seniority achieve a passing grade, the examination shall be held in accordance with subsection (1) of this section.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

The civil service commission shall examine all applicants as to their physical and mental qualification for the particular classification wherein they seek employment. To be eligible for examination a person must not be less than eighteen nor have passed his or her forty-sixth birthday, a law-abiding citizen of sobriety and integrity, and must be able to read and write and understand the English language; provided, however, that any present employe who is over forty-five years of age and who is otherwise qualified shall be eligible to take any promotional examinations.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

Employes, and only employes, who at the time the provisions of this Act become effective have been in the employ of the urban county government, or any city or county or other municipality merged into such urban county government, for one year last past or having been employed after taking a merit system examination, shall not be required to stand an original examination, and shall be eligible for all the benefits provided by Section 2 through Section 10 of this Act unless the charter otherwise provides.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) The appointing authority shall make all civil service appointments, and the appointments shall be made only from the list of applicants certified to him by the civil service commission after examination. Appointments shall be made only by the selection of one of the three holding the highest averages in the particular class and grade wherein the vacancy exists, except as provided in subsection (6) of this section.

(2) Whenever it is imperative to fill a vacancy in classified civil service before the commission can certify a list of as many as three persons eligible for appointment after competitive examination, the appointing authority shall nominate a competent person from the same class or next lower rank to the commission for noncompetitive examination, and if certified by the commission as qualified after the noncompetitive examination he may be appointed provisionally to fill the vacancy until an appointment can be made after competitive examination. This provisional appointment shall continue only until a regular appointment can be made from the eligible list prepared by the commission which eligible list shall be prepared within thirty days after a vacancy occurs.

(3) In case of great emergency and when no one upon the eligible list or by promotion from a lower rank is available, an appointment may be made by the appointing authority without examination, but in no case shall such appointment continue longer than thirty days, and in no case shall successive appointments be made of the same person, or other persons, to such vacancy.

(4) Temporary appointments made necessary by reason of illness or disability of regular employes shall continue only during such period of disability.

(5) The death of an employe shall not authorize an appointment without examination in urban county governments.

(6) Whenever, from any cause, there shall be a vacancy in any of the classified services, the employe in said classification ranking next highest in seniority, if he chooses, shall succeed to and fill the vacancy, unless upon charges made by the urban county government that the employe is not qualified to fill the vacancy, and after notice and upon trial to determine his qualifications in the same manner as is now required for the dismissal, suspension or reduction in grade or pay of an employe, it be established by the urban county government that the employe has not the necessary qualifications to enable him to discharge the duties of the office or position in which the vacancy occurs. Provided that in case of a vacancy in the classified service, where peculiar and exceptional qualifications of a particular professional or educational character are required, upon satisfactory evidence that for reasons stated in writing by the appointing authority, competitive examination in such case has failed to provide an eligible list; the commission may suspend the provisions requiring competitive examination under civil service.

(7) Where the service to be rendered by an appointee in the classified service is for a temporary period not to exceed thirty days, and the need of such service is imperative, the appointing authority may select for that temporary service any person on the list of those eligible for permanent appointment. Successive temporary appointments to the same position shall not be made under this provision. The acceptance or refusal by an eligible applicant of a temporary appointment shall not affect his standing on the register for permanent employment, nor shall temporary service be counted as part of the probationary service in case of subsequent appointment to a permanent position.

(8) No person shall be certified by the commission from an eligible list more than four times to the same appointing authority for the same or similar positions.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) No employe in the classified service of urban county government shall be dismissed, suspended or reduced in grade or pay for any reason except inefficiency, misconduct, insubordination or violation of law involving moral turpitude.

(2) Any person may prefer charges in writing against any employe by filing them with the mayor or other appointing authority who shall communicate the charges without delay to the civil service commission. The charges must be signed by the person making them and must set out clearly each charge. The appointing authority shall, whenever probable cause appears, prefer charges against any employe whom he believes guilty of conduct justifying his removal. Upon the filing of charges the secretary of the civil service commission shall notify its members and serve a copy of the charges upon the accused employe with a statement of the date, place and hour at which the hearing of charges will begin, this hearing not to be held within three days of the date of the service of charges upon the accused employe. The day on which the charges are served on the accused employe shall count as one of the days of notice. The person accused may in writing waive the service of charges and demand trial within three days after they have been filed with the secretary of the civil service commission.

(3) Upon the hearing, the charges shall be considered traversed and put in issue, and the trial shall be limited to the issues presented by the written charges.

(4) The civil service commission may summon and compel attendance of witnesses at all hearings by subpoena issued by the secretary of that body and served upon the witnesses by members of the police department of the urban county government or any officer authorized to serve subpoenas, and the civil service commission shall have the power of a justice of the peace to punish for contempt. The accused employe may have subpoenaed any witnesses he may desire, upon furnishing their names to the secretary. As many as ten subpoenas may be served on the request of the accused employe without charge but each additional subpoena requested by him shall be issued by the secretary and served by the police department only upon payment of fifty cents to the secretary by the employe. The action and decision of the civil service commission on the charges shall be reduced to writing and kept in a book for that purpose and the written charge shall be attached to the book containing the body's decision.

(5) In cases where the head of the department or executive unit or the appointing authority has probable cause to believe an employe has been guilty of conduct justifying his removal or punishment, he shall immediately suspend that employe from duty or from both pay and duty pending trial and the employe shall not be placed on duty or allowed pay thereafter until the charges are heard by the civil service commission.

(6) The civil service commission shall punish any employe found guilty by reprimand or a suspension for any length of time not to exceed six months, or by reducing the grade, if the employe's classification warrants, or by combining any two or more of these punishments, or by dismissal. No employe shall be reprimanded, removed, suspended or dismissed except as provided in this section.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any employe of the urban county government found guilty by the civil service commission of any charge as provided by Section 7 of this Act may appeal to the circuit court of the county in which the urban county government is located, if the punishment is a suspension of more than thirty days, a reduction in grade, or dismissal, but the enforcement of the judgment of the civil service commission shall not be suspended pending appeal.

(2) Upon request in writing by the accused and the payment of costs therefor, the secretary of the civil service commission shall file a certified copy of the charges and the judgment of that body in the circuit court. Upon the transcript being filed the case shall be docketed in the circuit court and tried de novo.

(3) If the secretary fails to certify the transcript to the circuit court within five days after the request is made, then the aggrieved person may file an affidavit in that court setting out as fully as possible the charges made at the time of trial and judgment, together with a statement that demand for the transcript had been made of the secretary more than five days prior to the filing of the affidavit. Upon filing of this affidavit in the circuit court, the case shall be docketed in that court and the court may compel the filing of the transcript by the secretary by entering proper mandatory order, and upon failure of the secretary so to do, he shall be liable to fine and imprisonment for contempt. Such appeal shall have precedence over other business and be determined speedily.

(4) An appeal will lie from the judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals as in other cases, if the original punishment fixed by the civil service commission was dismissal of the accused. An appeal will also lie from the judgment of a circuit court in any controversy arising under this section or any other section of the statutes relating to civil service for urban county governments.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) The urban county legislative body shall fix by ordinance the number and classification of urban county employes, and the salaries for each classification. When the number of employes and their classification has been fixed by charter or ordinance, including any ordinance of a city or other municipality existing prior to the adoption of the urban county form of government, which prior ordinance is adopted for any period of time by the urban county government under its charter or ordinance, no employe shall be dismissed, suspended or reduced in grade or pay for any reason except that set out in Section 7 of this Act.

(2) Provided, further, that whenever in the exercise of a reasonable discretion, it shall be the judgment of the legislative body of the urban county government that economic necessity requires it, or that there is no longer a need for a particular office or position to exist, the legislative body may abolish the office or position and any officer or employe occupying the office or position may be laid off or suspended until and if such office or position is recreated or reestablished. The abolition of any office or position must not be a subterfuge to effect another purpose, but must be actual and bona fide and must not amount to the mere alteration, modification or abolition of title only.

(3) Should any officer or employe conceive that he has been aggrieved by the abolition or the proposed abolition of the office or position, he may, at any time within ninety days, file a petition in the circuit court of the county wherein the urban county government is located, stating his reason why it should not be abolished, and upon issue joined thereon by the urban county government, the burden shall be on the latter to establish the necessity for and the good faith of the urban county government in abolishing the office or position. The right to abolish and the right to have the office or position recreated shall be determined as other equitable actions are determined.

(4) If the office or position is recreated or reestablished within five years, then any person who was deprived of his office or position shall be restored to the office or position he formerly held or occupied in the order of his seniority if he shall elect to do so, and the urban county government shall advise the officer or employe at his last known address and advertise pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, that the office or position has been recreated or reestablished.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) No person shall be appointed to any position because of political, partisan service rendered by him or his family, or because of political sentiment or affiliation nor shall any person be dismissed or reduced in grade because of any political opinion.

(2) No employe shall coerce or persuade another to actively participate in any way in any election.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any urban county government in which there existed a municipality which had in effect an employes' pension fund prior to its merger into the urban county form of government shall provide by charter or ordinance for the creation and maintenance of a pension fund for employes covered by the pension fund by a levy of a tax of not exceeding five cents ($.05) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) value of taxable property in the area of the urban county government, the proceeds of that tax to be paid to the pension fund in cash, and shall in each case provide, by such tax or otherwise, for the payment to the pension fund in each month of the sum necessary to establish and maintain the fund in accordance with the actuarial principles established by the actuarial studies described hereafter, and may assess monthly such amount or percent of the salary of the employes as may be equitably determined on a fair actuarial basis, and in any case not in excess of six percent (6%) of the monthly salary of each employe, the assessment to be deducted from the employes' salaries and paid in cash into the pension fund. Within six months after the effective date of the urban county form of government, or within six months after the effective date of this statute, whichever shall be later, the trustees of the board shall, at the expense of the urban county government, provide for the performance of an actuarial study, which study shall be completed within six months thereafter, and which study shall describe the amounts necessary to be contributed by the urban county government or other sources to fund on an actuarially sound basis the benefits promised or described in the fund, including any payments required to bring the fund to an actuarially sound position in the event that it was not so at the time of the performance of the study, in which latter event the study shall also determine a reasonable period over which such additional funding shall be made, which period shall not exceed thirty years. A similar study shall be arranged by the board at the cost of the urban county government at least once in every five year period thereafter. In the event that the fund created by this Act is extended to cover employes not described in the first sentence hereof, the actuarial study shall determine the required payments so as to keep the expanded fund on an actuarially sound basis, and the urban county government shall maintain the fund as set out herein, and shall assess against the additional covered employes the same monthly contribution as is required for other government employes.

(2) There is hereby created a board for the pension fund and trustees of that board. Trustees from the pension fund board shall consist of the mayor, four members of the legislative body of the urban county government selected by the legislative body, the commissioner of the department of finance, the director of the division of personnel, and three civil service employes to be elected to the board by those employes covered by the employes' pension fund. In the event that there is no commissioner of the department of finance or director of the division of personnel, the appointed officer of the urban county government exercising the functions most closely resembling such office shall serve as trustee.

(3) Temporary employes appointed without examination shall not be compelled to contribute to any pension fund and shall not be eligible to benefits.

(4) In no year shall the contribution by the urban county government to the pension fund, in the manner provided in this section, be less than the total amount assessed upon and deducted from the salary of the employes.

(5) The trustees of the pension fund shall, at least once every three months, report in writing to the mayor the receipts, expenditures and financial status of the pension fund, stating the places of deposit of funds, or the character of investments made, and the mayor shall cause copies of the report to be posted in at least three places where urban county employes frequent and report.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

From and after the adoption of the urban county form of government there shall be, with respect to each employe, an inviolable contract between the urban county government as employer and such employe; and the urban county government and its employees shall continue to operate under the provisions of this Act, and the ordinance first adopted hereunder. A repeal or modification of that ordinance by the urban county government shall in no way affect the contract, unless by the mutual consent of the urban county government and each affected employe. The contract and right shall not be affected, either directly or indirectly, by any action of the urban county government, its legislative body, executive officers, citizens or voters, whether under the guise of altering its form of government, adopting a new form of government or classification, abolishing any governmental or municipal entity and substituting same with another governmental or municipal entity, or any other means whatsoever. The first ordinance referred to in this paragraph shall include, if applicable, any ordinance of a city, county or other municipality existing prior to the adoption of the urban county form of government which is adopted by the urban county government for any period of time by its charter or ordinance. The contract shall include, and such actions shall not affect any substantial matter, including procedures and structures, for both pension and merit systems.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

The legislative body of the urban county government is hereby authorized and empowered to establish and provide such other pension systems, Social Security programs or other retirement benefits allowable as may be deemed necessary or desirable for those employes not covered by the pension provisions of Sections 11 and 12 of this Act, and for the benefit of the employes covered by the provisions of these Sections.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

All retirement allowances and other benefits accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this Act and the accumulated contributions and cash securities in the fund created under this Act, are hereby exempted from any state, county, or municipality tax, and shall not be subject to execution, attachment, garnishment, or any other process whatsoever, nor shall any assignment thereof be enforceable in any court.

An urban county government may by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance establish an executive unit charged with personnel matters. In the event such a unit is established, the urban county government shall by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance delegate to such unit, in addition to its regular functions not related to this statute, the initial performance of all or a part of the functions described as functions of the Commission in sections 3, 4, 5 and 7 of this Act, but no other sections hereof, except that in any event the decisions of the said unit shall be subject to review, amendment or change by the Commission. In the case of the certification of lists of eligible applicants for employment, such lists may be prepared by the executive unit, but shall be submitted to the appointing authority only after approval of the Commission; and in respect of all other matters delegated, periodic reports shall be made by the unit to the commission, not less than monthly, and any directions of the commission, or any proposed alterations or changes in the action of the unit shall be promptly complied with by the unit. The legislative body of the urban county government, subject to its Comprehensive Plan, may from time to time, revoke such delegation of authority to the executive unit, and may establish reasonable procedures for review of the actions of the executive unit, not in conflict with the provisions hereof, and not in conflict with the principle that personnel policy should in the first instance be determined by professional and trained personnel experts, but subject to the control of the civil service commission. All other provisions of this section notwithstanding, in the event that the Commission amends, alters or changes any action of the unit, or in the event that the Commission gives any directions to the unit as provided herein, or in any way acts to control the unit as provided herein, such amendment, change, alteration, direction or control shall be in writing and shall be supported by findings, which findings shall be supported by substantial evidence of the error of the unit.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any urban county government shall operate under sections 3 to 15 of this Act, and, by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance, create a Civil Service Commission, which shall hold culture-fair, open examinations or evaluations to determine the relative fitness of applicants for municipal employment within the urban county government that are designated by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance. The urban county government shall, by ordinance, create civil service classifications for all employees consistent with the actual work to be performed by such employees.

(2) The mayor, or other appointing authority, as determined by the Comprehensive Plan, subject to the approval of the urban county government legislative body, shall appoint five persons who shall constitute the Civil Service Commission of that urban county government. No appointee shall be related by either blood or marriage to the mayor or any member of the urban county legislative body. The appointees shall originally be appointed, two for a term of two years and three for a term of four years, and the successors to these appointees shall be appointed in like manner, each for a period of four years and until his successor is appointed and qualified. A vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as original appointments. There shall be chosen by the Commission a Secretary of the Commission. The Secretary shall be an employee of the urban county government who is covered by the provisions of sections 2 to 11 of this Act. Each appointee shall qualify by taking an oath of office as required by law. The salaries, if any, of the members of the commission may be fixed by the urban county government legislative body in accordance with its Comprehensive Plan.

(3) If the appointing authority of any urban county government fails to appoint a Civil Service Commission within ninety days after he has the power to so appoint or after a vacancy exists, the Vice Mayor, or the second ranking elected executive officer of the urban county government, however designated, shall make the appointment and the appointee shall hold office until the expiration of the term and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

(4) The Civil Service Commission shall make and enforce culture-fair rules, not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 2 to 11 of this Act, or the Comprehensive Plan or the ordinance of the urban county government, for examinations and registrations therefor.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) The Civil Service Commission shall prescribe and propound such said examinations as are proper, commensurate with vacant positions within the various departments of the urban county government, according to classification prescribed by ordinance, shall set such times and places for holding examinations as may be proper and shall give public notice of vacancies by publication pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, and shall give actual notice to all eligible applicants of time and place of examinations. Provided, however, that the civil service commission may prescribe and propound job descriptions which reasonably establish minimum qualifications and standards for eligibility to take such examinations, but in no event shall such job descriptions be a subterfuge for the evasion of the requirement that employment be determined on the basis of the principles set out herein.

(2) The Civil Service Commission shall, as soon after examinations as is practicable, certify to the appointing authority, a list of the applicants so examined, with the one having the highest average ranked first, and all others ranked numerically according to the result of the examination. After the compilation of such a list the Commission may provide for further, substantially identical examinations, given on the same basis as the original examination, to supplement the list so compiled, and the results of each such subsequent examination shall be consolidated with the results of the prior examinations to provide an eligible list from among all of those who have taken such several examinations.

(3) Every soldier, sailor, marine, members of the air forces, Army Nurses Corps and members of other branches of the military services and Red Cross nurses who served during a period of hostilities between the United States and another power in World War II or the Korean or Vietnam conflict who has not been dishonorably discharged, is a resident voter of the urban county government and who is an applicant for any position of civil service of that urban county government shall be entitled to five percent increase on his examination mark on entrance into civil service employment.

(4) The Civil Service Commission of urban county governments shall maintain an eligible list of not less than three for each position to be filled.

(5) The legislative body may designate certain civil service positions and prescribe that for such positions the examinations shall first be given exclusively to current employees; provided, however, that if no employee with a minimum of six months seniority achieves a passing grade, an examination shall be held in accordance with Subsection (1) of this section, and shall be held, if less than three such persons achieve a passing grade if the appointing authority so determines.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

The Civil Service Commission shall examine all eligible applicants as to their physical and mental qualification for the particular classification wherein they seek employment. To be eligible for examination a person must satisfy the minimum standards established under section 4 of this Act.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

Employees, who at the time the provisions of sections 3 to 15 of this Act become effective have been in the employ of the urban county government, or any city or county or other municipality merged into such urban county government, (a) for six months last past or (b) having been employed after taking a merit system examination, shall not be required to stand an original examination, unless the Conprehensive Plan otherwise provides, and shall be eligible for all the benefits provided by sections 3 to 11 of this Act, unless the Comprehensive Plan otherwise provides.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) The appointing authority shall make all civil service appointments, and the appointments shall be made only from the list of applicants certified by the Civil Service Commission after examination. Appointments shall be made only by the selection of one of the three holding the highest averages in the particular class and grade wherein the vacancy exists, except as provided in subsection (6) and (7) of this section.

(2) Whenever it is imperative to fill a vacancy in classified civil service before the commission can certify a list of as many as three persons eligible for appointment after competitive examination, the appointing authority shall nominate a competent person from the same class or next lower rank to the Commission and if certified by the Commission as qualified he may be appointed temporarily to fill the vacancy until an appointment can be made after competitive examination. Temporary appointments hereunder and under subparagraph (3) hereof shall continue only until a regular appointment can be made from the eligible list prepared by the Commission.

(3) In the circumstances described in subparagraph (2) hereof, when no one upon the eligible list, or by promotion from the same class or the next lower rank is available, competent and qualified, a temporary appointment may be made by the appointing authority without examination. In no case shall appointment hereunder or under subparagraph (2) hereof continue longer than ninety days; and in no case shall successive appointments be made of the same person or other persons, to such vacancies, except hereunder or under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) Where the service to be rendered by an appointee in the classified service is for a temporary period as provided herein, the appointing authority shall select for that temporary service a person on the list of those eligible for permanent appointment, if such person accepts such appointment. Successive temporary appointments to the same position shall not be made under this provision. The acceptance or refusal by an eligible applicant of a temporary appointment shall not affect his standing on the register for permanent employment, nor shall temporary service be counted as part of the probationary service in case of subsequent appointment to a permanent position.

(5) Temporary appointments made by reason of these provisions, made necessary by reason of illness or disability of regular employees, may continue during such period of disability, but shall continue only during such period of disability and in no case longer than nine months. No other temporary appointments other than those provided for herein may be made, except that seasonal appointments may be made for periods not in excess of six months.

(6) Seniority, in the executive unit in which the vacancy occurs, and seniority in the level or rank of employment nearest the level or rank in which the vacancy occurs, shall each be given material consideration in filling such vacancies as shall occur in the classified civil service. Within six months after the effective date hereof, or within six months after the effective date of the urban county government, there shall be established by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance (which function may be delegated to the commission, or to the executive unit charged with personnel matters subject to the control of the commission), a plan which in definite terms complies with this subsection. The said plan may be amended from time to time in accordance with the Comprehensive Plan or ordinance, but the effective date of any alteration therein shall be no sooner than 180 days after its adoption. Such plan shall provide for and describe in reasonable detail the circumstances, if any, under which the seniority described therein shall be the sole criteria for promotion, and the circumstances in which it will not, and in the latter case, shall provide a reasonably definite method by which applicants shall be entitled to an increase on their examination or evaluation scores by reason of such seniority, the relative importance of each such type of seniority in such determination, and the percentage increase in such scores for such seniority. The Circuit Court of the county in which the urban county government is located shall have jurisdiction to determine the reasonableness of such plan and alterations thereto, and its compliance with the principles set out in this subsection.

(7) In case of vacancy in the classified service, where peculiar and exceptional qualifications of a particular professional or educational character are required, upon satisfactory evidence that for reasons stated in writing by the appointing authority the commission may suspend the provisions requiring competitive examination under civil service.

(8) No person shall be certified by the commission from an eligible list more than two times to the same appointing authority for the same or similar positions.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) No employee in the classified service of urban county government, after serving a probationary period provided by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance for his class, which shall not be in excess of six months, shall be dismissed, suspended or reduced in grade or pay for any reason except inefficiency, misconduct, insubordination or violation of law involving moral turpitude.

(2) Any person may prefer charges in writing against any employee by filing them with the appointing authority who shall communicate the charges without delay to the head of the executive unit in charge of personnel matters, and to the civil service commission. The charges must be signed by the person making them and must set out clearly each charge. The appointing authority shall, whenever probable cause appears, prefer charges against any employee whom he believes guilty of conduct justifying his removal or disciplinary action. Upon the filing of charges the Secretary of the civil service commission shall notify its members and serve a copy of the charges upon the accused employee with a statement of the date, place and hour at which the hearing of charges will begin, this hearing not to be held within three days of the date of the service of charges upon the accused employee. The day on which the charges are served on the accused employee shall count as one of the days of notice. The person accused may in writing waive the service of charges and demand trial within three days after they have been filed with the Secretary of the civil service commission.

(3) Upon the hearing the charges shall be considered traversed and put in issue, and the trial shall be limited to the issues presented by the written charges, provided, however, that the charges may be amended prior to trial, in which event the notice procedures hereinabove described shall be again complied with, and reasonable opportunity given for the preparation for trial on the amended charges.

(4) The civil service commission shall have the power to summon and compel attendance of witnesses at all hearings by subpoena issued by the Secretary of that body and served upon the witnesses by members of the police department of the urban county government or any officer authorized to serve subpoenas, and the civil service commission shall have the power of a justice of the peace to punish for contempt. The accused employee shall have the right to have subpoenaed any witnesses he may desire, upon furnishing their names to the Secretary. Subpoenas may be served on the request of the accused employee without charge. They shall be issued by the Secretary and served by the police department. The action and decision of the civil service commission on the charges shall be reduced to writing and kept in a book for that purpose and the written charge shall be attached to the book containing the body's decision.

(5) In cases where the head of the department or executive unit or the appointing authority has probable cause to believe an employee has been guilty of conduct justifying his removal or punishment he shall immediately suspend that employee from duty or from both pay and duty pending trial and the employee shall not be placed on duty or allowed pay thereafter until the charges are heard by the civil service commission.

(6) The civil service commission shall punish any employee found guilty by reprimand or a suspension for any length of time not to exceed six months, or by reducing the grade, if the employee's classification warrants, or by combining any two or more of these punishments, or by dismissal. No employee shall be reprimanded, removed, suspended or dismissed except as provided in this section.

(7) Irrespective of the other provisions of sections 3 to 11 of this Act, an employee may be suspended by the head of the executive unit in which he is employed, or by the appointing authority, but only as provided by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance, for a period not exceeding 30 days in any twelve month period, and may be reprimanded by such head or authority not more than twice in any twelve month period. In such event, the actions of such head or appointing authority shall be subject to appeal to the commission. Such appeal shall be filed with the Secretary of the commission within ten days of the action of the unit head or appointing authority, and may be reviewed, reduced, or revoked by the commission after a hearing in which the unit head or appointing authority shall have reasonable opportunity under rules established by the commission, to support his charges. The grounds of suspension or reprimand under this subsection shall be only those set out by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance. The Commission shall further have the power, in the event it finds that the unit head or appointing officer acted in error, to take such action as shall be necessary to compensate the appealing employee for such error. An appeal by an employee shall not suspend the operation of the action of the unit head or appointing authority pending action of the commission.

(8) Nothing herein shall prevent the Comprehensive Plan or ordinance from providing additional remedies and rights to employees.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any employee of the urban county government found guilty by the civil service commission of any charge as provided by section 8 of this Act or any action upheld under subsection (7) of the said section, or any amendment thereto, may appeal to the circuit court of the county in which the urban county government is located within thirty days after such action becomes final, but the enforcement of the judgment of the civil service commission shall not be suspended pending appeal.

(2) Upon request in writing by the accused and the payment of costs therefor, the Secretary of the civil service commission shall file a certified copy of the charges and the judgment of that body in the circuit court. Upon the transcript being filed the case shall be docketed in the circuit court and tried de novo.

(3) If the Secretary fails to certify the transcript to the circuit court within five days after the request is made, then the aggrieved person may file an affidavit in that court setting out as fully as possible the charges made at the time of trial and judgment, together with a statement that demand for the transcript had been made of the Secretary more than five days prior to the filing of the affidavit. Upon filing of this affidavit in the circuit court, the case shall be docketed in that court and the court may compel the filing of the transcript by the Secretary by entering proper mandatory order, and upon failure of the Secretary so to do, he shall be liable to fine and imprisonment for contempt. Such appeal shall have precedence over other business and be determined speedily.

(4) An appeal will lie from the judgment of the circuit court to the Court of Appeals as in other cases, if the original punishment fixed by the civil service commission was dismissal of the accused. An appeal will also lie from the judgment of a circuit court in any controversy arising under this section or any other section of the statutes relating to civil service for urban county governments.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) The urban county legislative body shall fix by ordinance the number and classification of urban county employees, and the salaries for each classification. When the number of employees and their classification has been fixed by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance, including any ordinance of a city or other municipality existing prior to the adoption of the urban county form of government, which prior ordinance is adopted for any period of time by the urban county govenment under its Comprehensive Plan or ordinance, no employee shall be dismissed, suspended or reduced in grade or pay for any reason except that set out in section 8 of this Act.

(2) Provided, further, that: Whenever in the exercise of a reasonable discretion, it shall be the judgment of the legislative body of the urban county government that economic necessity requires it, or that there is no longer a need for a particular office or position to exist, the legislative body may abolish said office or position and any officer or employee occupying said office or position may be laid off or suspended until and if such office or position is recreated or reestablished. The abolition of any office or position must not be a subterfuge to effect another purpose, but must be actual and bona fide and must not amount to the mere alteration, modification or abolition of title only.

(3) Should any officer or employee conceive that he has been aggrieved by the abolition or the proposed abolition of said office or position, he may, at any time within ninety days, file a petition in the circuit court of the county wherein the urban county government is located, stating his reason why it should not be abolished, and upon issue joined thereon by the urban county government, the burden shall be on the latter to establish the necessity for and the good faith of the urban county government in abolishing said office or position. The right to abolish and the right to have the office or position recreated shall be determined as other equitable actions are determined.

(4) If the office or position is recreated or reestablished within one year, then any person who was deprived of his office or position shall be restored to the office or position he formerly held or occupied in the order of his seniority if he shall elect to do so, and the urban county government shall advise said officer or employee at his last known address and advertise pursuant to KRS Chapter 424, that the office or position has been recreated or reestablished.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 created to read as follows:

(1) No person shall be appointed to any position because of political, partisan service rendered by him or his family, or because of political sentiment or affiliation nor shall any person be dismissed or reduced in grade because of any political opinion.

(2) No employee shall coerce or persuade another or in any way to actively participate in any election, or cause others to do so.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

(1) Any urban county government in which there existed a municipality which had in effect an employees' pension fund prior to its merger into the urban county form of government shall provide by Comprehensive Plan or ordinance for the maintenance of the said pension fund for those employees covered by the said pension fund by a levy of a tax of not exceeding five cents ($.05) on each One Hundred Dollars value of taxable property in the urban area of the urban county government, as established in the Comprehensive Plan or by ordinance, the proceeds of that tax to be paid to the pension fund in cash, and shall in each case provide, by such tax or otherwise, for the payment to the pension fund in each month of the sum necessary to maintain such fund in accordance with the actuarial principles established by the actuarial studies described hereafter, and may assess monthly such amount or percent of the salary of the employees as may be equitably determined on a fair actuarial basis, and in any case not in excess of 6% of the monthly salary of each employee unless a higher rate was charged prior to the merger of governments, in which case the higher rate may be charged, the assessment to be deducted from the employees' salaries and paid in cash into the pension fund. Within six months after the effective date of the urban county form of government, or within six months after the effective date of this statute, whichever shall be later, the trustees of the board shall, at the expense of the urban county government, provide for the performance of an actuarial study, which study shall be completed within six months thereafter, and which study shall describe the amounts necessary to be contributed by the urban county government or other sources to fund on an actuarially sound basis the benefits promised or described in the said fund, including any payments required to bring said fund to an actuarially sound position in the event that it was not so at the time of the performance of the study, in which latter event the legislative body shall also determine a reasonable period over which such additional funding shall be made, which period shall not exceed thirty years. A similar study shall be arranged by the Board at the cost of the urban county government at least once in every five year period thereafter. In the event that fund created by section 12 of this Act is extended to cover employees not described in the first sentence hereof, the actuarial study shall determine the required payments so as to keep the expanded fund on an actuarially sound basis, and the urban county government shall maintain such fund as set out herein, and shall assess against the additional covered employees the same monthly contribution as is required for other government employees.

(2) There is hereby created a Board for the existing employees pension fund and trustees of that Board. Trustees from the Pension Fund Board shall consist of the Mayor, four members of the legislative body of the urban county government selected by the legislative body, the Commissioner of the Department of Finance, the Director of the Division of Personnel, and three civil service employees to be elected to the Board by those employees covered by the Employees Pension Fund. In the event that there is no position in the urban county government denominated Commissioner of the Department of Finance and/or Director of the Division of Personnel, the appointed office of the urban county government exercising the functions most closely resembling such office shall serve as trustee.

(3) Temporary employees appointed without examination shall not be compelled to contribute to any pension fund and shall not be eligible to benefits.

(4) In no year shall the contribution by the urban county government to the pension fund, in the manner provided in this section, be less than the total amount assessed upon and deducted from the salary of the employees.

(5) The trustees of the pension fund shall, at least once every three months, report in writing to the mayor the receipts, expenditures and financial status of the pension fund, stating the places of deposit of funds, or the character of investments made, and the mayor shall cause copies of the report to be posted in at least three places where urban county employees frequent and report.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

From and after the effective date of the urban county form of government there shall be, with respect to each employee, and inviolable contract between the urban county government as employer and such employee; and the urban county government and its employees shall continue to operate under sections 3 to 13 of this Act and all substantial matters contained in the ordinance first adopted hereunder. A repeal or modification of substantial provisions of that ordinance by the urban county government shall in no wise affect such contract, unless by the mutual consent of the urban county government and the affected employee. Such contract and right shall not be affected, either directly or indirectly, by an action of the urban county government, its legislative body, executive officers, citizens or voters, whether under the guise of altering its form of government, adopting a new form of government or classification, abolishing any governmental or municipal entity, and substituting same with another governmental or municipal entity, or any other means whatsoever. The first ordinance referred to in this paragraph shall include, if applicable, any ordinance of a city, county or other municipality existing prior to the adoption of the urban county form of government which is adopted by the urban county government for any period of time by its Comprehensive Plan or ordinance. The said contract shall include, and such actions shall not affect any substantial matter, including procedures and structures, for both pension and merit systems.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

The legislative body of the urban county government is hereby authorized and empowered to establish and provide such other pension funds, systems, Social Security programs or other retirement benefits allowable as may be deemed necessary or desirable for those employees not covered by the pension provisions of sections 12 and 13 of this Act, or for the benefit of the employees covered by the provisions of sections 12 and 13 of this Act.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 90 is created to read as follows:

All retirement allowances and other benefits accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of sections 2 to 14 of this Act and accumulated contributions and cash securities in the fund created under sections 2 to 14 of this Act are hereby exempted from any state tax, and shall not be subject to execution, attachment, garnishment, or any other process whatsoever, nor shall any assignment thereof be enforceable in any court.

HB 699, AN ACT changing the classification of the city of Sandy Hook, in Elliott County.

WHEREAS, satisfactory information has been presented to the General Assembly that the population of the city of Sandy Hook, in Elliott County, is such as to justify its being classified as a city of the fifth class,

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

The city of Sandy Hook, in Elliott County, is transferred from the sixth to the fifth class of cities.

HB 722, AN ACT relating to the creation and establishment of development authorities.

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth of Kentucky shares in common with all states problems affecting the development of central and suburban areas of its cities, the historically high interest rates, inflation in the cost of building materials, environmental deterioration resulting from suburban expansion, the high cost of commuting resulting from shortages of fuel, and the high cost of utilities and public services in areas newly subject to "urban sprawl", make necessary the wise use and reuse of urban land areas; and

WHEREAS, the Federal government presently does not have funds available for the continued assistance to local communities in financing community redevelopment projects, it is imperative to devise and establish an alternative local vehicle for financing a community's necessary revitalization projects; and

WHEREAS, there is a high degree of concern on the part of architects, planners and engineers to plan and design the restoration, redevelopment and development of viable neighborhoods in keeping with local esthetic standards and local historical and economic integrity; and

WHEREAS, cities of the first and second class and counties governed under Urban County Government statutes, as a result of rapidly expanding suburban growth, are finding areas of local economic or historical significance, including urban fringe open space as well as core areas, are being threatened by the demands of this growth; and

WHEREAS, the central or core areas of said cities and counties which are of local historical significance are becoming deteriorated and are not being restored and revitalized into viable and attractive neighborhoods because of the lack of authority for said cities and counties to act and because of the lack of federal funds for such purposes; and

WHEREAS, many open space areas of said cities and counties, in addition to their inherent agricultural productiveness, also possess an economic importance to the entire community and the Commonwealth as tourist attractions, thereby giving rise to an important business in such areas, that of feeding, housing and amusing such tourists; and

WHEREAS, preservation of such open spaces, revitalization of such central city areas and the promotion of desirable suburban and urban growth may be accomplished by the creation and operation of an appropriate Development Authority in each of said cities and counties;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 99 is created to read as follows:

HB 723, AN ACT relating to the distribution of ad valorem tax revenues received by or on behalf of certain governmental agencies in development areas as defined in urban renewal and urban development statutes and in project areas as defined in the Local Development Authority Act; and pertaining to contracts which may be entered into relative to the aforesaid by cities, counties, taxing districts, and boards of education.

WHEREAS, it is apparent that all units of government imposing, or benefiting by the imposition of, ad valorem taxes on property in any given area are benefited by the increase in value of the property in the area, in that such increase of value automatically increases ad valorem tax income; and

WHEREAS, it is equally apparent that all such governmental units operating in an area may be beneficially affected by acts of any one unit which tend to increase the value of property in the area, and all governmental units are thereby necessarily inter-related, and should be encouraged to cooperate with each other in the adoption of policies which will have the effect of benefiting all of such units; and

WHEREAS, each such unit should be encouraged to assist in the promotion of projects which will have the result of benefiting all such units, and each such unit should be authorized to expend reasonable portions of its funds if, by such expenditure, it can benefit itself in a degree reasonably consonant with its contributions; and

WHEREAS, urban renewal and redevelopment, and local development projects, if they can be financed, can and do result in great increases in revenues to all of the aforesaid units in the area, and said units should be permitted and authorized to release portions of such benefits for limited periods in reasonable payment for benefits derived; and

WHEREAS, the aforesaid benefits are peculiarly available in the more urbanized areas, principally in those areas in which there are located cities of the first and second classes and in areas governed by urban county governments;

Section 1. KRS 342.020 is amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to all other compensation provided in this chapter, the employer shall pay for the cure and relief from the effects of an injury or occupational disease such medical, chiropractic fees and services, surgical and hospital treatment, including nursing, medical and surgical supplies and appliances, as may reasonably be required at the time of the injury and thereafter during disability, or as may be required for the cure and treatment of an occupational disease. The employe may select the physician to treat his injury, and

(3) Upon motion of the employer, with sufficient notice to the employe for a response to be filed, if it is shown to the satisfaction of the board by affidavits or testimony that because of the physician selected by the employe to treat his injury or disease, or because of the hospital selected by the employe in which he is being treated, that the employe is not receiving proper medical treatment and his recovery is being substantially affected or delayed; or that the funds for his medical expenses are being spent without reasonable benefit to the employes; or that because of the physician selected by the employe or because of the type of medical treatment being received by the employe that the employer will substantially be prejudiced in any compensation proceedings resulting from the employe's injury or disease; then the board may allow the employer to select a physician to treat the employe and the hospital or hospitals in which the employe is treated for his injury or disease. The Committee on Highways and Traffic Safety reported SB 37, with Committee Amendment attached thereto, and HB 557 with the expression of opinion that the same should pass. Read at length for the first time and ordered placed in the Calendar.

SB 37, AN ACT relating to traffic control.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS 189 is created to read as follows:

Whenever traffic is controlled by traffic-control signals exhibiting different colored lights, or colored lighted arrows, successively one at a time or in combination, only the colors green, red and yellow shall be used, except for special pedestrian signals carrying a word legend, and said lights shall indicate and apply to drivers of vehicles and pedestrians as follows:

(1) Green indication.

(a) Vehicular traffic facing a circular green signal may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless a sign at such place prohibits either such turn. But vehicular traffic, including vehicles turning right or left, shall yield the right of way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection or an adjacent cross walk at the time such signal is exhibited.

(b) Vehicular traffic facing a green arrow signal, shown alone or in combination with another indication, may cautiously enter the intersection only to make the movement indicated by such arrow, or such other movement as is permitted by other indications shown at the same time. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right of way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent cross walk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection.

(c) Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal, pedestrians facing any green signal, except when the sole green signal is a turn arrow, may proceed across the roadway within any marked or unmarked cross walk.

(2) Steady yellow indication.

(a) Vehicular traffic facing a steady yellow signal is thereby warned that the related green movement is being terminated or that a red indication will be exhibited immediately thereafter when vehicular traffic shall not enter the intersection.

(b) Pedestrians facing a steady yellow signal, unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal, are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway before a red indication is shown and no pedestrian shall then start to cross the roadway.

(3) Steady red indication.

(a) Vehicular traffic facing a circular red signal alone shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, then before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection, or if none, then before entering the intersection and shall remain standing until a green indication is shown, except as follows: the driver of a vehicle which is stopped as close as practicable at the entrance to the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if none, then at the entrance to the intersection in obedience to a red or stop signal, and with the intention of making a right turn, may make such right turn, after stopping, unless an official sign has been erected prohibiting such movement, but shall yield the right of way to pedestrians and other traffic lawfully proceeding through the intersection. Cities and counties may, by ordinance, and the Department of Highways may, by regulation, prohibit any such right turn against a steady red signal at any intersection, which prohibition shall be effective when an official sign prohibiting such movement is erected at the intersection.

(b) Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian-control signal, pedestrians facing a steady red signal alone shall not enter the roadway.

(4) In the event an official traffic-control signal is erected and maintained at a place other than an intersection, the provisions of this section shall be applicable except as to those provisions which by their nature can have no application. Any stop required shall be made at a sign or marking on the pavement indicating where the stop shall be made, but in the absence of any such sign or marking the stop shall be made at the signal.

HB 506, AN ACT relating to descent and distribution providing for the enactment of the Uniform Disposition of Community Property Rights at Death Act.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 363 is created to read as follows:

(1) This Act applies to the disposition at death of the following property acquired by a married person:

(a) All personal property, wherever situated:

(i) which was acquired as or became, and remained, community property under the laws of another jurisdiction; or

ii) all or the proportionate part of that property acquired with the rents, issues, or income of, or the proceeds from, or in exchange for, that community property; or

iii) traceable to that community property;

(b) All or the proportionate part of any real property situated in this state which was acquired with the rents, issues or income of, the proceeds from, or in exchange for, property acquired as or which became, and remained, community property under the laws of another jurisdiction, or property traceable to that community property.

(2) In determining whether this Act applies to specific property the following rebuttable presumptions apply:

(a) Property acquired during marriage by a spouse of that marriage while domiciled in a jurisdiction under whose laws property could then be acquired as community property is presumed to have been acquired as or to have become, and remained, property to which this Act applies; and

(b) Real property situated in this commonwealth and personal property wherever situated acquired by a married person while domiciled in a jurisdiction under whose laws property could not then be acquired as community property, title to which was taken in a form which created rights of survivorship, is presumed not to be property to which this Act applies.

(3) Upon death of a married person, one-half of the property to which this Act applies is the property of the surviving spouse and is not subject to testamentary disposition by the decedent or distribution under the laws of succession of this commonwealth. One-half of that property is the property of the decedent and is subject to testamentary disposition or distribution under the laws of succession of this commonwealth. With respect to property to which this Act applies, the one-half of the property which is the property of the decedent is not subject to the surviving spouse's right to elect against the will.

(4) If the title to any property to which this Act applies was held by the decedent at the time of death, title of the surviving spouse may be perfected by an order of the probate court or by execution of an instrument by the personal representative or the heirs or devisees of the decedent with the approval of the probate court. Neither the personal representative nor the court in which the decedent's estate is being administered has a duty to discover or attempt to discover whether property held by the decedent is property to which this Act applies, unless a written demand is made by the surviving spouse or the spouse's successor in interest.

(5) If the title to any property to which this Act applies is held by the surviving spouse at the time of the decedent's death, the personal representative or an heir or devisee of the decedent may institute an action to perfect title to the property. The personal representative has no fiduciary duty to discover or attempt to discover whether any property held by the surviving spouse is property to which this Act applies, unless a written demand is made by an heir, devisee, or creditor of the decedent.

(6) If a surviving spouse has apparent title to property to which this Act applies, a purchaser for value or a lender taking a security interest in the property takes his interest in the property free of any rights of the personal representative or an heir or devisee of the decedent. If a personal representative or an heir or devisee of the decedent has apparent title to property to which this Act applies, a purchaser for value or a lender taking a security interest in the property takes his interest in the property free of any rights of the surviving spouse. A purchaser for value or a lender need not inquire whether a vendor or borrower acted properly. The proceeds of a sale or creation of a security interest shall be treated in the same manner as the property transferred to the purchaser for value or a lender.

(7) This Act does not affect rights of creditors with respect to property to which this Act applies.

(8) This Act does not prevent married persons from serving or altering their interests in property to which this Act applies.

(9) This Act does not authorize a person to dispose of property by will if it is held under limitations imposed by law preventing testamentary dispostion by that person.

(10) This Act shall be so applied and construed as to effectuate the general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this Act among those states which enact it.

(11) This Act may be cited as the Uniform Disposition of Community Property Rights at Death Act.

Section 2. KRS 391.010 is amended to read as follows:

(a) The grandfather and grandmother equally, if both are living; but if one is dead, the entire moiety shall go to the survivor; if there is no grandfather or grandmother, then

(b) To the uncles and aunts and their descendants; if there are none, then

(c) To the great-grandfathers and great-grandmothers, in the same manner prescribed for grandfather and grandmother by subsection (a); if there are none, then

(d) To the brothers and sisters of the grandfathers and grandmothers and their descendants; and so on in other cases without end, passing to the nearest lineal ancestors and their descendants.

(6) If there is no such kindred to one of the parents as is described in subsection (5), the whole to go to the kindred of the other. If there is neither paternal nor maternal kindred, the whole shall go to the kindred of the husband or wife, as if he or she had survived the intestate and died entitled to the estate.

Section 3. KRS 391.030 is amended to read as follows:

(2) The surviving spouse of any deceased person may, at any time before the property or money is set apart by the court, procure on petition from the judge of the county court having jurisdiction over administration of his estate, an order authorizing him to withdraw from any bank or other depository not exceeding $500 belonging to the estate of the deceased. Upon presentation of the order, the bank or depository shall permit him to withdraw the sum and shall lodge the order, endorsing thereon the amount withdrawn, with the clerk of the county court, and he shall retain it in his files to be considered in connection with further proceedings in the estate and the withdrawal shall be treated as a charge against the property of the estate exempt from distribution.

(3) In the application for the setting apart of property or money under this section the surviving spouse may make his selection out of the property of the estate to the extent that the value of the property selected does not exceed the amount of $3500.

(4) This section applies to cases where the husband or wife dies testate and the surviving spouse renounces the provisions of the will as provided by KRS 392.080.

(i)[(g)] None of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to preclude the court from exercising its usual discretion with regard to ordering probation or conditional discharge.

(j)[(h)] In the case of any person who has been convicted of possession of controlled substances in the third degree, the court may set aside and void the conviction upon satisfactory completion of treatment, probation or other sentence, and issue to the person a certificate to that effect. HR 41, A JOINT RESOLUTION directing a study of the financing of transportation in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

WHEREAS, the development of a complete system of transportation, including highways, mass transit, air, rail and water, is essential for the health, welfare and economic well-being of all Kentuckians; and

WHEREAS, the protection of the environment and costs to the taxpayers necessitates the most efficient transportation system possible; and

WHEREAS, the tremendous increase in construction of highways has resulted in a financial burden on the Commonwealth for total maintenance of the system; and

WHEREAS, a sound maintenance program is essential to protect the safety of users and the people's investment; and

WHEREAS, when the road fund was established mass transit was not a major consideration as a state responsibility; and

WHEREAS, the need for a multi-modal system of transportation is now recognized as essential; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Transportation has undertaken a study of transportation needs on a long-range basis; and

WHEREAS, the present road fund taxes may be used for road or road related purposes only; and

WHEREAS, over $70 million each fiscal year is required to meet debt retirement on the highway bonds as a fixed cost to the road fund; and

WHEREAS, the State Road Fund is partially financed by certain revenues generated by the sale and use of motor fuels; and

WHEREAS, the amount of such revenues which may be expected to accrue to the State Road Fund is directly related to the gallonage sale and use of motor fuels; and

WHEREAS, the present and prospective shortage of gasoline and other motor fuels and the attendant rise in the price per gallon detrimentally influences the total revenues expected to accrue to the State Road Fund; and

WHEREAS, a complete evaluation of the financial needs and related tax structure to assure a sound system of transportation in the Commonwealth are major policy questions requiring action by the General Assembly;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. (1) That the Legislative Research Commission undertake a comprehensive study to identify and evaluate all possible and practicable options and alternatives for the future financing and support of the State Road Fund and the Commonwealth's system of transportation including highways, mass transit, airports and air service, railway services and transportation by water.

(2) That the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration shall cooperate with and assist the Legislative Research Commission in the conduct of such study, including the supplying of all relevant and pertinent information and reports as may be requested by the Commission. The Secretary of Transportation and the Commissioner of Revenue shall supply the Commissioner for Finance and Administration with information needed and requested by the Commission.

(3) That the Legislative Research Commission is authorized to supplement the costs of such study by accepting federal funds or support from any source and that the Commission be empowered to engage by contract, or otherwise, the personnel necessary to conduct such study.

Section 2. The Commission shall report its findings and recommendations, together with any proposed legislation, to the General Assembly and the Governor prior to October 1, 1975, so that said findings and recommendations may be fully considered in preparation of budget requests for the 1976 General Assembly.

Section 3. There is hereby appropriated to the Legislative Research Commission from the General Expenditure Fund in the State Treasury the sum of $150,000 for fiscal year 1974-75 for the sole purpose of conducting the study directed by this Resolution. Any unexpended balance remaining at the close of fiscal year 1974-75 shall not lapse but shall continue into the 1975-76 fiscal year.

HB 94, AN ACT relating to juveniles.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 208.060 is amended to read as follows:

(1) All cases involving children brought before the court shall be granted a speedy hearing and shall be dealt with by the juvenile court at separate hearings and without a jury. The hearings may be conducted in an informal manner. The general public shall be excluded and only the immediate families of the parties before the court, witnesses necessary for the prosecution and defense of the case, the probation worker with direct interest in the case, those persons enumerated under KRS 208.040, such persons admitted as the judge shall find have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court, and such other persons as agreed to by the child and his attorney may be admitted to the hearing. The news and broadcast media shall be permitted to attend such hearings but shall be prohibited from reporting the name, or showing pictures or sketches of any juvenile involved in the proceedings. Witnesses shall be admitted to the hearing only for the duration of their testimony.

(2) Juvenile proceedings shall consist of two distinct hearings, an adjudication and a disposition, which may, upon motion of the child, be held on separate days.

(a) The adjudication shall determine the truth or falsity of the allegations in the petition and shall be made on the basis of an admission or confession of the child to the court or by the taking of evidence.

(b) Upon motion by any child brought before the court on a petition under KRS 208.020 (1) (a), (b), or (c), the Rules of Criminal Procedure shall apply to all matters involved in the adjudication of the case. All adjudications shall be supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt.

(c) After adjudication, the court shall determine whether the circumstances surrounding the child are such as to endanger his safety or welfare or that of the community and warrant his detention pending the disposition.

(d) The disposition shall determine the action to be taken by the court on behalf of, and in the best interest of, the child. Unless the provisions of subsections (3) and (4) are observed by the court, the disposition shall be limited to an informal adjustment of the matter between the parties and the court. The provisions of subsections (3) and (4) shall be conditions precedent to any commitment, court-ordered probation, restitution, or other disposition enforceable by the authority of the court. No public or private agency or body, or party before the court, shall be required to participate in any order of the court unless it receives from the court a verified statement, signed by the juvenile judge, that the rights enumerated in subsections (3) and (4) were granted to the child during the proceedings in juvenile court.

(3) Before commencing a hearing and proceeding to determine the truth or falsity of the allegations in a petition filed with the court under KRS 208.020 (1) (a), (b), or (c), the court shall decide, on the basis of a preliminary inquiry made by the court, whether or not the best interest of the child indicates that the petition should be dismissed and the child's case adjusted informally among the parties. An informal adjustment may be made at any time during the proceedings. All petitions brought under KRS 208.020 (1) (a), (b), or (c) shall receive this consideration by the court. No petition shall be brought against the child as a result of information given to the court by the child as part of an informal adjustment. If the court finds it necessary to extend the discussion, during an informal adjustment, beyond the immediate subject matter of the complaint before it, the child and his parents, relative, guardian, or custodian shall be advised of all the rights under this subsection. If the court determines that a formal proceeding is required to determine the truth or falsity of the allegations against the child, a petition, sworn to by the complainant, shall be required pursuant to KRS 208.070 (1) and (2), and the court shall, when the child is brought before the court:

(a) Explain to the child and his parents, relative, guardian, or custodian their respective rights to counsel and, if the child and his parents, relative, guardian, or custodian are unable to obtain counsel, shall appoint counsel for the child and may appoint counsel for the parents, relative, guardian, or custodian; if the person or persons named above are indigent and unable to obtain counsel, the court shall appoint counsel for

A person, or the representative of an incapacitated or protected person, who is an heir, next of kin, devisee, legatee, person succeeding to a disclaimed interest, beneficiary under a testamentary instrument, or appointee under a power of appointment exercised by a testamentary instrument, may disclaim in whole or in part the right of succession to any property or interest therein, including a future interest, by filing a written disclaimer under this Act. The right to disclaim does not survive the death of the person having it. The instrument shall (1) describe the property or interest disclaimed, (2) declare the disclaimer and extent thereof, and (3) be signed by the disclaimant.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 394 is created to read as follows:

(3) The disclaimer shall be filed in the county court of the county in which proceedings have been commenced for the administration of the estate of the deceased owner or deceased donee of the power or, if they have not been commenced, in which they could be commenced. A future interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the estate or interest disclaimed takes effect as if the disclaimant had predeceased the decedent or the donee of the power. (2) The right to disclaim exists notwithstanding any limitation on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of a spendthrift provision or similar restriction.

(3) The disclaimer or the written waiver of the right to disclaim is binding upon the disclaimant or person waiving and all persons claiming through or under him.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 394 is created to read as follows:

(6) If the parties are unable to reach agreement within ten days after the publication of the findings and recommendations from the fact-finding panel or if, where fact-finding has not been requested or ordered, mediation has failed to bring the parties into agreement or the collective bargaining agreement, if one exists, has expired, or thirty days have elapsed since the commissioner was notified that the parties cannot reach an agreement, then the public employes shall submit the matter to final and binding arbitration by an arbitrator selected by the parties. If the parties cannot agree upon an arbitrator within five days, the commissioner shall immediately appoint an arbitrator from a list of qualified persons maintained by the commissioner.

(4) "Wages" does not include the amount of any payment made to, or on behalf of, a worker under a plan or system established by an employing unit that makes provision for its workers generally or for a class of its workers, including any amount paid by an employing unit for insurance or annuities, or into a fund, to provide for any such payment, on account of:

2. The right, under the provisions of the plan or system or policy of insurance providing for such death benefit, to assign such benefit, or to receive a cash consideration in lieu of it either upon his withdrawal from the plan or system providing for such benefit or upon termination of such plan or system or policy of insurance or of his employment with such employing unit.

(5) "Wages" does not include the amount of any payment made by an employing unit without deduction from the remuneration of the worker of the tax imposed under Section 3101 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code.

For the purpose of this subsection, the term "covered employment" shall include service constituting covered employment under any unemployment compensation law of another state.

(1) According to the circumstances in each case, a worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits or serving a waiting period:

(a) For not less than one (1) nor more than sixteen (16) weeks immediately following the commission of the disqualifying act, if, subsequent to his most recent work, he has failed without good cause either to apply for available, suitable work when so directed by the employment office or the commissioner or to accept suitable work when offered him, or to return to his customary self-employment when so directed by the commissioner; or

(b) For not less than six (6) nor more than sixteen (16) weeks immediately following the commission of the disqualifying act, if he has been discharged for misconduct connected with his most recent work, but legitimate activity in connection with labor organizations or failure to join a company union shall not be construed as misconduct.

(2) A worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits or serving a waiting period for the duration of any period of unemployment with respect to which:

(a) He was discharged for dishonesty in connection with his most recent work;

(b) He voluntarily quit his most recent work to marry or for the purpose of attending school, or to become self-employed; or

(c) He has left his most recent suitable work voluntarily without good cause.

(3) A spouse who leaves his most recent suitable work voluntarily in order to move to another city where his spouse has been transferred or has acquired new employment, and the city moved to is more than 25 miles from his most recent city of employment, shall be deemed to have good cause under this section.

(4) [(3)] A worker shall be disqualified from receiving benefits for any week with respect to which he knowingly made a false statement to establish his right to or the amount of his benefits; and, within the succeeding twenty-four (24) months, for such additional weeks immediately following the date of discovery, not to exceed a total of fifty-two (52), as may be determined by the commissioner.

(5) [(4)] No worker shall be disqualified under paragraph (b) of subsections (1) or (2) of this section unless the employer, within a reasonable time as prescribed by commission regulation, notifies the division and the worker in writing of the alleged voluntary quitting or the discharge for misconduct; Provided, however, That nothing in this subsection shall restrict the right of the commissioner to disqualify a worker whose employer has refused or failed to notify the division of the alleged voluntary quitting or discharge for misconduct if such alleged voluntary quitting or discharge for misconduct is known to the commissioner prior

Section 1. KRS 160.470 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Each district board of education shall prepare a general school budget on forms prescribed and furnished by the state board of education, showing the amount of money needed for current expenses, debt service, capital outlay, and other necessary expenses of the schools during the succeeding fiscal year, the estimated total amount that will be received from the common school fund and other sources, the assessed valuation of property subject to local taxation in the school district furnished as provided in subsection (3) of KRS 160.460, an estimate made by the department of revenue of public service company assessments and assessments of other property in the school district not furnished under the provisions of subsection (3) of KRS 160.460, and the amount that will be needed to be raised by local taxation, including the rate of levy necessary to raise such an amount.

(2) Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, no district board of education shall submit a budget which would require more revenue from local ad valorem taxes than would be produced by application of the preceding year's rate to the preceding year's assessment, exclusive of voted levies and net assessment growth as defined in KRS 132.425, except as provided in subsection (3) of KRS 157.380 and as provided in subsection (4) of this section. In the event of a merger of school districts, the limitations contained in this section shall be based upon the combined revenue of the merging districts, as computed under the provisions of this section.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall certify to each district board of education, by June 1 of each year, the maximum permissible local ad valorem tax revenue. This amount shall be computed as follows:

(a) The superintendent of public instruction shall determine the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue which would be produced by application of the preceding year's rate to the preceding year's assessment.

(b) The superintendent of public instruction shall determine the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue which would be produced by application of the preceding year's effective tax rate to the net assessment growth in each school district. The net assessment growth as determined in accordance with KRS 132.425 shall be certified to the superintendent of public instruction by the department of revenue by May 20 of each year.

[(c) The superintendent of public instruction shall compile a list of those school districts in which the general fund ad valorem tax for the 1965-1966 school year was levied at a rate less than the $1.50 maximum then authorized by KRS 160.475. The superintendent of public instruction shall then calculate for each such district the revenue that would have been produced for the 1965-1966 school year if such tax had been levied at the $1.50 rate. He shall then re-calculate the maximum permissible local ad valorem tax revenue that would have been authorized for each such district for the 1966-1967, 1967-1968, 1968-1969 and 1969-1970 school years as though the 1965-1966 tax had been levied at the $1.50 rate, including in such re-calculation the revenue that would have been derived from taxation of net assessment growth under paragraph (b) of this subsection and the revenue that would have been derived from any percentage increases actually adopted by the district under subsection (4) of this section. The maximum permissible local ad valorem tax revenue so re-calculated for the 1969-1970 school year shall, for such districts, be deemed the total amount of ad valorem tax revenue to be determined by the superintendent for the 1970-1971 school year under paragraph (a) of this subsection.]

(c)[(d)] The sum of the amounts computed under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection shall be the maximum permissible local ad valorem tax revenue for purposes of subsection (2) of this section, except as otherwise therein prescribed.

[(e) Any school district which is not contemplating capital construction and which is eligible for the increase allowed in paragraph (c) of this subsection may elect to take advantage of the increase in equal stages over a period of three years.]

(4) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection (2) of this section, any district board of education which in preparing its proposed budget deems that it will require an amount of revenue greater than that permitted in subsection (2) of this section and has a tax levy for school purposes excluding special voted and sinking fund levies of less than fifty cents may submit to the levying authority for the school years 1974-1975 and 1975-1976 [1966-1967 and 1967-1968] a budget which could require an increase in such ad valorem tax levy of up to five cents annually on each one hundred dollars of property subject to local taxation providing such levy does not cause the total tax rate for school purposes other than special voted and sinking fund levies to exceed fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of property subject to school taxation. [revenue of not more than 10 per cent after compliance with the following:]

[(a) The district board of education shall give notice of any proposed increase in revenue. Notwithstanding any statutory provisions to the contrary, notice shall be given by causing to be published, at least one (1) time in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or by posting at the courthouse door if there be no such newspaper, the fact that said increase of not exceeding 10 per cent is being proposed. Said advertisement shall state that the district board of education will meet at a place and on a day fixed in the advertisement, not earlier than one (1) week and not later than two (2) weeks from the date of the advertisement, for the purpose of hearing comments and complaints regarding the proposed increase and explaining the reasons for such proposal.]

(4) The sheriff shall by December 15 each year file a notice of lien for the state, county and taxing districts, with the county clerk on any delinquent tax bill for motor vehicle or other vehicle assessed by the property valuation administrator on forms prescribed by the Department of Revenue, in the same manner as certificates of delinquency against tax claims containing real property are filed. The sheriff shall add the filing fees provided in subsections (5) and (6) of this section to each tax bill and retain such bills in his possession until paid or, if they remain unpaid, until the time of his annual settlement with the county and state. (7) When a motor vehicle as defined in KRS 186.010 or vehicle defined in KRS 186.650, subject to taxation as of January 1 of the current year is transferred before the taxes for the current year are due the purchaser shall become liable for the tax.

(2) For purposes of this Act, when the sheriff has filed the liens and made the proper certification as required by subsection (4) of Section 3 of this Act, the absence of a lien shall be prima facie evidence that the taxes have been paid.

(3) When the owner of a motor vehicle or other vehicle requests registration of said vehicle in a county other than that in which the vehicle was registered for the preceding year the county clerk shall require proof of residence of the person seeking registration and such other evidence as may be necessary to determine that there is no outstanding tax lien on such vehicle in this state.

(4) Attempts to register any vehicle in any county in Kentucky other than that in which the vehicle was registered for the preceding year without proof that there are no outstanding tax liens on such vehicle shall be considered as an attempt to evade the tax and the person attempting such registration shall be fined no less than ten dollars or more than five hundred dollars.

The board of aldermen may by ordinance direct the time and manner of sale. The city shall not hold any such property acquired through a tax sale, except such as is proper and necessary for public purposes, for more than five (5) years from the time it acquires title, and if it does not sell and convey the property within that time the title shall escheat to the state.

(4) Upon the sale of any real property sold for city taxes, the Department of Building and Housing Inspection shall immediately inspect the property to determine if it is in compliance with applicable building and housing codes. In the case of an adult owner the redemption must be made within two (2) years from the date of sale, and in the case of an infant owner it must be made within one (1) year after he becomes of age. During the period allowed for redemption, or until redemption, the property shall be assessed for subsequent tax levies in the name of the delinquent taxpayer, and during that time the property shall not be sold for the collection of such later tax bills, but the delinquent taxpayer shall be required, on redeeming the property, to pay those bills, with interest and penalties, in addition to paying the purchase price, with interest and penalties, and for the value of improvements, as above required.

(2) All money paid in redemption of real property sold for city taxes shall be paid to the tax receiver, who shall account for the money in the same manner and to the same officer as in the case of regular tax collections, except that when the purchaser at a tax sale is not the city the tax receiver shall pay over to the purchaser, upon proper receipt, the amount of the purchase price, with interest and penalties thereon, and the amount of the improvements made pursuant to KRS 91.500(4). All money paid by the delinquent taxpayer at the time of redemption in discharge of tax bills on assessments made against the property subsequent to the tax for which the sale was had shall be accounted for by the tax receiver as other tax collections.

(3) The tax receiver shall, by postpaid letter or card, promptly notify the purchaser at a tax sale of the redemption of the land purchased by him.

This prohibition does not extend to information required in prosecutions for making false reports or returns of property for taxation, or any other infraction of the tax laws, nor does it extend to any matter properly entered upon any assessment record, or in any way made a matter of public record, nor does it preclude furnishing any taxpayer or his properly authorized agent with information respecting his own return.

(2) Every person subject to the provisions of this chapter shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the department from time to time may prescribe. Whenever the department judges it necessary, it may require such person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records, as the department deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable for tax, and the extent of such liability.

(3) The commissioner or his authorized agent or representative, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purposes of making an estimate of the taxable income of any taxpayers, may require the attendance of the taxpayer, the preparer of the return if other than the taxpayer, or of any other person having knowledge in the premises.

(4) The department shall prescribe the forms and reports necessary to the proper administration of any and all provisions of this chapter, and shall promulgate such rules and regulations necessary to effectively carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Section 8. KRS 141.990 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If any taxpayer fails or refuses to file a return or furnish any information requested in writing by the department, the department may make an estimate of the net income from any information in its possession, assess the tax at not more than twice the amount estimated to be due and add a penalty of twenty-five percent of the amount of any deficiency tax assessed concerning such failure or refusal to file a return or furnish any information. This penalty shall be in addition to all other applicable penalties in this section.

(2) If any taxpayer fails to make and file a return required by this chapter on or before the due date of the return or the due date as extended by the department, then, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the department that the failure is due to reasonable cause, five percent of the tax found to be due by the department shall be added to the tax for each thirty days or fraction thereof elapsing between the due date of the return and the date on which filed, but the total penalty shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the tax.

(3) If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, five percent of the total amount of the deficiency, in addition to the deficiency and other penalties provided in this section, shall apply.

(4) If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax fifty percent of the total amount of the deficiency, in addition to the deficiency and other penalties provided in this section, shall apply.

(5) (a) If the tax imposed by this chapter, whether assessed by the department, or the taxpayer, or any installment or portion of the tax is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of eight percent per annum from the date prescribed for its payment until payment is actually made to the department. If any assessment made by the department is not paid within the time prescribed, or protested in accordance with KRS 131.110, the department may assess and the taxpayer shall pay as a penalty, in addition to the amount of the tax and other applicable penalties, one percent of the tax for each month the tax remains unpaid.

(b) If any taxpayer fails to pay the tax imposed by this chapter within the time prescribed, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the department that the failure is due to reasonable cause, the department may assess a penalty of ten percent of the tax due, plus interest on the tax and penalty from the due date at one percent a month or fraction thereof until paid.

(6) Any person required under the provisions of KRS 141.150 or 141.335 to furnish a statement required under that section who willfully furnishes a false or fraudulent statement, or who willfully fails to furnish a statement in the manner at the time and showing the information required under KRS 141.150 and 141.335, may for each such failure be subject to a civil penalty of ten dollars. Such penalty may be assessed and collected by the department, and the assessment of such penalty may be reviewed only in the manner provided in KRS 131.110.

(7) (a) Any employer required under the provisions of KRS 141.310, 141.315 or 141.330 to withhold taxes on wages, file returns, and make payment of amounts withheld to the department, who fails to withhold such taxes, or to file such returns when due, or who fails to remit amounts collected to the department when due, or when filing the returns understates the amount due shall, unless such failure to comply is shown to the satisfaction of the department to be due to reasonable cause, be subject to a civil penalty equal to five percent per month or fraction thereof not to exceed twenty-five percent, of the amount of taxes that should have been properly withheld and paid over to the department, or five dollars, whichever is greater, for each such failure. However, where such failure is shown to be due to reasonable cause the department may reduce the penalty provided herein to an amount equal to five percent of the amount of taxes that should have been properly withheld and paid over to the department but not to exceed one hundred dollars, or five dollars, whichever is greater, for each such penalty. Each penalty shall be assessed and collected by the department and the assessment of such penalty may be reviewed only in the manner provided in KRS 131.110. The penalty may be waived if the return and payment are received within thirty days after the due date and the employer has no previous record of late filing or late payment within two years next preceding such due date.

(b) Any employer required to file a return under the provisions of KRS 141.330 (1) when no tax should have been properly withheld, and who fails to file the same when due, shall be subject to a civil penalty of five dollars for each violation. Such penalty shall be assessed and collected by the department and the assessment of such penalty may be reviewed only in the manner provided in KRS 131.110. The penalty may be waived if the return is received within thirty days after the due date and the employer has no previous record of late filing within two years next preceding such due date.

(8) Any individual required by KRS 141.300 to file a declaration of estimated tax and required by KRS 141.305 to pay such declaration of estimated tax may be subject to a penalty of ten percent of any underpayment or any late payment. Underpayment, for purposes of this subsection, is determined by subtracting applicable credits allowed by KRS 141.070, 141.300 and 141.310 from seventy percent of the tax liability as shown on the return for the taxable year. This subsection shall not apply to the taxable year in which the death of the taxpayer occurs nor in the case of a farmer exercising an election under subsection (5) of KRS 141.305.

(9) Any corporation required by KRS 141.042 to file a declaration of estimated tax and required to pay such declaration of estimated tax by the installment method prescribed by subsection (1) of KRS 141.044, may be subject to a penalty of ten percent of any installment underpayment or any installment not paid on time. Installment underpayment is the installment determined by subsection (1) of KRS 141.044, less the installment actually paid, based upon seventy percent of the income tax shown to be due on the final return for the year reduced by $5,000. Provided, however, that no corporation which filed declarations on the basis of its taxable income for the immediately preceding fiscal year and pays the amount thus computed when due shall be liable for any penalty under this subsection; and provided further that the levy of any penalty under this subsection shall preclude the levy of the penalty under paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of this section.

(10) Any penalty imposed by subsections (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8) or (9) of this section shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency.

(11) Every tax imposed by this chapter, and all increases, interest and penalties thereon, shall become, from the time it is due and payable, a personal debt to the state from the taxpayer or other person liable therefor.

(12) In addition to the penalties herein prescribed, any taxpayer or employer, who willfully fails to make a return or willfully makes a false return, or who willfully fails to pay taxes owing or collected, with intent to evade payment of the tax or amount collected, or any part thereof, shall upon conviction thereof be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, or confined in the penitentiary for not less than twelve months or more than five years, or both.

(13) Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under KRS Chapter 141 of a return, affidavit, claim, or other document, which is fraudulent or is false as to any material matter, whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim, or document shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars, or imprisoned not more than three years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(14) A return for the purpose of this section shall mean and include any return, declaration or form prescribed by the department and required to be filed with the department by the provisions of this chapter, or by the rules and regulations of the department or by written request for information to the taxpayer by the department.

(15) (a) Any person who violates sections 1 or 6 of this Act shall be fined no more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

(b) Any person who prepares the income tax returns of another for a fee and who is required to register and does not register in accordance with the provisions of this Act or who violates any of the provisions of sections 2, 3, or 4 shall be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for ninety (90) days or both.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

As used in this Act, unless the context requires otherwise.

(1) "Contracting agency" means the person or persons, board, commission, court, council, governing body, employe or official which is authorized by law to purchase or contract for supplies, materials, services, or equipment for the state, county city, town, school district, water district, hospital district, or other political subdivision of the state.

Section 2. A new section of KRS Chapter 344 is created to read as follows:

All government contracting agencies of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, any county, city, town, school district, water district, hospital district, or other political subdivision of the state shall include provisions in every directly or indirectly publicly funded contract for supplies, materials, services, or equipment whereby the contractor, during the performance of the contract, agrees:

(1) not to discriminate against any employe or applicant for employment because of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin;

(2) to take affirmative action in regard to employment, upgrading, demotion, transfer, recruitment, recruitment advertising, layoff, termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training, so as to ensure that applicants are employed and that employes during employment are treated without regard to their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin;

(3) to state in all solicitations or advertisements for employes placed by or on behalf of the contractor that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin;

(4) to post notices in conspicuous places, available to employes and applicants for employment, setting forth the provisions of the nondiscrimination clauses required by this Act; and

(5) to send a notice to each labor union or representative of workers with which he has a collective bargaining agreement or other contract or understanding advising the labor union or workers' representative of the contractor's commitments under the nondiscrimination clauses.

Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 344 is created to read as follows:

A contractor subject to the provisions of this Act shall include the provisions required by Section 1 of this Act in every subcontract or purchase order so that the provisions are binding upon the subcontractor or vendor.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 344 is created to read as follows:

(1) A contractor having a contract containing the provisions of Section 1 shall file, and shall require each of his subcontractors to file, compliance reports with the contracting agency. Compliance reports shall be filed at the times and shall be in the form and contain the information as to the employment practices, policies, and programs of the contractor and each subcontractor which the contracting agency may prescribe.

(2) Whenever the contractor or subcontractor has a collective bargaining agreement or other contract or understanding with a labor union or an agency referring workers, the compliance report shall include such relevant information as to the labor union's or agency's practices and policies as the contracting agency may prescribe. If the information is within the exclusive possession of a labor union or an agency referring workers and the labor union or agency refuses to furnish the information to the contractor, the contractor shall so certify to the contracting agency as part of its compliance reports and shall set forth what efforts it has made to obtain the information.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 344 is created to read as follows:

(1) In the event of the contractor's noncompliance with the nondiscrimination clauses of the contract, the contract may be cancelled or terminated, or continuance of the contract may be conditioned upon a program for future compliance approved by the contracting agency. Any debarment from further contracts with the agency by reason of noncompliance with the nondiscrimination provisions of the contract may be rescinded by the contracting agency which imposed the sanction.

(2) Each contracting agency shall make reasonable efforts within a reasonable period of time to secure compliance with the contract provisions of this Act by methods of conference, conciliation, mediation, and persuasion before a contract is cancelled or terminated for failure of a contractor or subcontractor to comply with the contract provisions of this Act.

For the provisions of this Act a minority contractor or subcontractor shall mean a business that is owned and controlled by one or more socially or economically disadvantaged persons. Such disadvantages may arise from cultural, racial or chronic economic circumstances, physical handicap, or similar background or cause.

(2) Application for examination as an inspector of elevators shall be in writing, accompanied by a fee of $10.00, upon a blank to be furnished by the department, stating the school education of the applicant, a list of his employers, his period of employment, and the position held with each. An applicant shall also submit a letter from one or more of his previous employers certifying as to his character and experience.

(3) Applications shall be rejected which contain any wilful falsification or untruthful statements. Such applicant, if the department deems his history and experience sufficient, shall be tested by means of a written examination dealing with the construction, installation, operation, maintenance, and repair of elevators and their appurtenances, and the applicant shall be accepted or rejected on the merits of his application and examination.

(4) The department shall issue a certificate of competency in the inspection of elevators to any applicant found competent upon examination. A rejected applicant shall be entitled, after the expiration of ninety days, and upon payment of an examination fee of $10.00, to another examination. Section 3. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

(1) There is hereby established inside the Department of Labor a "Division of Elevator Inspection" which shall administer all aspects of state elevator inspection.

(2) The chief of the division of elevator inspection shall be a person with at least five years experience in the construction, installation, maintenance, and repair of elevators and their appurtenances.

(3) The chief, with the consent of the Commissioner of Labor, may appoint and hire from the holders of certificates of competency, no more than five general inspectors of elevators.

Section 4. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

From the holders of certificates of competency in the inspection of elevators, any company which is authorized to insure elevators in the state may designate persons to inspect elevators covered by such company's policies, and the municipal government of any city may designate such persons to inspect elevators in such city.

Section 5. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

A certificate to serve as an inspector may be suspended or revoked by the chief of the division of elevator inspection for the incompetence or untrustworthiness of the holder thereof, or for the falsification of any matter or statement contained in his application or in a report of any inspection.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

If a certificate is lost or destroyed a new one shall be issued in its place by the Department of Labor without another examination, upon the payment of a fee of $1.00.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

If an elevator is insured by a company authorized to insure elevators in the state, the inspection may be made by a special inspector of such company.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

The owner or user of any elevator shall register with the division of elevator inspection every elevator operated by him, giving the type, capacity, and description, name of manufacturer, and purpose for which each is used. Such registration shall be made on a form to be furnished by the division.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

Every passenger elevator, escalator, and freight elevator, including gravity elevators, shall be inspected once every twelve months. Power dumb-waiters, hoists, and other lifting or lowering apparatus permanently installed, between rails or guides, shall be inspected at least once every eighteen months.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

(1) Every inspector shall forward to the division of elevator inspection a full report of each inspection made of any elevator, showing the exact condition of the said elevator, and said inspector shall leave a copy of said report at the elevator on the day the inspection is completed.

(2) If any elevator requires certain changes or repairs to make it reasonably safe to operate, such recommendations shall be made by the inspector upon his report and a copy of such report as approved by the chief of the division of elevator inspection shall be given to the owner or operator of such elevator, and unless appealed, upon compliance therewith, and upon the payment of the fees required by law, the chief shall issue a certificate of operation for a capacity not to exceed that named in the said report of inspection, which certificate shall be valid for one year after the date of inspection.

(3) If construction plans or an application of specifications is not approved, the chief shall state in writing the necessary changes to obtain approval and the owner or operator shall be given a copy thereof, and unless appealed, upon compliance therewith, the chief shall approve such plans or specifications and issue a permit for construction.

(4) Such owner or operator, within twenty days from receipt of the copy of such report or statement of changes in plans or specifications, may make written application to the division, upon forms to be furnished by the division for a hearing on the report or the statement regarding changes in plans or specifications as to whether the elevator in question is reasonably safe, or whether the elevator if constructed in accordance with such plans and specifications would be reasonably safe. The division shall promptly consider such application and proceedings consistent with the provisions of this section.

If it appears from the evidence that said elevator will be reasonably safe to operate without such changes or repairs as shown in such report or by making only a part or all thereof, or if none or only a part of all the changes in the plans or specifications are found necessary to make the elevator reasonably safe, the division shall make its finding and order accordingly. If such finding and order requires changes or repairs to be made in the elevator or changes in the plans or specifications, the chief shall upon the payment of the required fees, issue a certificate of operation when such order has been executed, or issue his approval of the plans or specifications. If the finding and order of the division has been affirmed or modified by appeal, on the grounds of reasonable safety considered by the division, then the chief shall, upon compliance with such order, and the payment of required fees, issue such certificate of operation or issue his approval of the plans and specifications but, if such finding and order of the division has been vacated such certificate of operation, upon the payment of fees or such approval of plans and specifications shall be issued forthwith. No elevator shall be operated after being inspected without having such certificate of operation conspicuously posted thereon, except pending a hearing on the issuance thereof.

The Commissioner of Labor shall make, alter, amend, and repeal rules and regulations exclusively for the safety and inspection of elevators, and in no way relating to the construction of such elevators.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

Every elevator shall be equipped, maintained, and operated, with respect to the supporting members, elevator car, shaftways, guides, cables, doors, and gates, safety stops and mechanism, electrical apparatus and wiring, mechanical apparatus, counterweights, and all other appurtenances, in accordance with the regulations as are authorized in respect thereto. Where reasonable safety is obtained without complying to the literal requirements of such regulations as in cases of practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship, the literal requirements of such regulations shall not be required.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

No certificate of operation for any elevator shall be issued until such elevator has been inspected and the report thereof filed with the chief of the division of elevator inspection. Such certificate of operation, when issued, shall bear the date of inspection, and shall be renewed as of the date of the subsequent inspection, provided such inspection is made at least one year after the issuance of such certificate. If such inspection is made during the year such certificate is in force, the renewal date shall be one year from the date of the certificate being renewed and the renewal certificate shall show the date of inspection.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

Before any new installation of an elevator of permanent nature shall be erected or before any existing elevator is removed to a different location, an application of specifications in duplicate shall be submitted to the division of elevator inspection giving such information concerning the construction, installation, and operation of said elevator as the division may require on forms to be furnished by said division, together with complete construction plans in duplicate. In all cases where any changes or repairs are made which alter its construction or classification, grade or rated lifting capacity, except when made pursuant to a report of an inspector, an application of specifications in duplicate shall be submitted to the division, containing such information, for approval, except in those municipal corporations which maintain their own elevator inspection departments, in which event such specifications shall be submitted to the elevator department of the municipal corporation for its approval, and if approved, a permit for the erection or repair of such elevator shall be issued by the municipal corporation. Upon approval of such application and construction plans the chief of the division of elevator inspection shall issue a permit for the erection or repair of such elevator. No new elevator shall be operated until completion in accordance with the approved plans and specifications, unless a temporary permit is granted by the division.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

(1) The fee for the initial certificate of operation for all elevators, insured and uninsured, shall be $10.00, and shall be paid to the chief of the division of elevator inspection before the certificate is issued.

(2) The fee for each renewal of a certificate of operation shall be $5.00, and shall be paid to the chief before the certificate is renewed. When an elevator is inspected by a general inspector, there shall be charged for each elevator a fee of $5.00 for each inspection.

(3) An additional fee of $10.00 shall be charged for each inspection by a general inspector made on request of the owner or user of the elevator, whether or not the required number of inspections of the elevator in question have already been made. The final inspection, before operation, of a permanent, new, or repaired elevator, shall be classed as a special inspection. Such final inspection shall be made by a general inspector, but the chief of the division of elevator inspection may designate a special inspector of a municipal corporation to make such final inspection of any permanent elevator located in his municipal corporation.

No person shall violate any law relative to the operation, construction, maintenance, and repair of elevators. All fines collected for a violation of this section shall be forwarded to the chief of the division of elevator inspection, who shall pay the same into the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund.

Section 18. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

If the chief of the division of elevator inspection or a general inspector of elevators finds that an elevator or a part thereof does not afford reasonable safety, the chief or the general inspector may post a notice upon such elevator prohibiting further use of the elevator until the changes or alterations set forth in the notice have been made to the satisfaction of the chief or the inspector. Said notice shall contain a statement that operators or passengers are subject to injury by its continued use, a description of the alteration or other change necessary to be made in order to secure safety of operation, date of such notice, name and signature of the chief or inspector issuing the notice.

Section 19. A new section of KRS Chapter 336 is created to read as follows:

Any person who violates any provision of this Act or regulation issued thereunder shall be fined a sum of $500 for each offense.

Upon the request of the board, the Department of Labor, shall furnish an attorney who [attorney general, or, under his direction, the commonwealth's attorney or county attorney of any county,] shall institute and prosecute the necessary actions or proceedings for the enforcement of any of the provisions of this chapter arising within his jurisdiction, and shall defend in like manner all actions or proceedings brought against the board or the members thereof in their official capacity.

SB 186, AN ACT relating to workmen's compensation.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 342.270 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If the parties fail to reach an agreement in regard to compensation under this chapter, either party may make written application to the board for a hearing in regard to the matter at issue and for a ruling thereon. Such application must be filed within two years [one (1) year] after the accident, or, in case of death, within two years [one (1) year] after such death, or within one (1) year after the cessation of voluntary payments, if any have been made.

(2) Except with respect to uncontested claims for disability or death by reason of occupational diseases, as soon as possible after the application has been received the board shall set the date for a hearing, to be held as soon as practicable in view of the matter involved, and shall notify the parties at issue of the time and place of such hearing.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties and authorized by the board, the hearing shall be held at or convenient to the place where the injury was sustained or the ground for disagreement occurred. Before directing a hearing, the board, a member thereof, the director or a hearing officer authorized by the board, may confer informally with the parties at issue in an attempt to assist in adjusting their differences, but may not delay the granting of a hearing, over the objection of either party, for such purpose.

(4) If the parties have previously filed an agreement which has been approved by the board and compensation has been paid or is due in accordance therewith and the parties thereafter disagree either party may invoke the provisions of KRS 342.125 which remedy shall be exclusive.

(5) An application for adjustment of claim shall be held in abeyance by the board during any period voluntary payments of compensation are being made under any benefit sections of this chapter to the maximum which the employe's wages shall entitle him, unless it shall be shown that the prosecution of the employe's claim would be prejudiced by delay.

Section 2. KRS 342.670 is amended to read as follows:

(1) If an employe, while working outside the territorial limits of this state, suffers an injury on account of which he, or in the event of his death, his dependents, would have been entitled to the benefits provided by this chapter had such injury occurred within this state, such employe, or in the event of his death resulting from such injury, his dependents, shall be entitled to the benefits provided by this chapter, provided that at the time of such injury:

(a) His employment is principally localized in this state, or

(b) He is working under a contract or hire made in this state in employment not principally localized in any state, or

(c) He is working under a contract of hire made in this state in employment principally localized in another state whose workmen's compensation law is not applicable to his employer, or

(d) He is working under a contract of hire made in this state for employment outside the United States and Canada.

(2) The payment or award of benefits under the workmen's compensation law of another state, territory, province or foreign nation to an employe or his dependents otherwise entitled on account of such injury or death to the benefits of this chapter shall not be a bar to a claim for benefits under this chapter, provided that claim under this chapter is filed within [one year] two years after such injury or death. If compensation is paid or awarded under this chapter:

(a) The medical and related benefits furnished or paid for by the employer under such other workmen's compensation law on account of such injury or death shall be credited against the medical and related benefits to which the employe would have been entitled under this chapter had claim been made solely under this chapter;

(b) The total amount of all income benefits paid or awarded the employe under such other workmen's compensation law shall be credited against the total amount of income benefits which would have been due the employe under this chapter, had claim been made solely under this chapter;

(c) The total amount of death benefits paid or awarded under such other workmen's compensation law shall be credited against the total amount of death benefits due under this chapter;

(3) If any employe is entitled to the benefits of this chapter by reason of an injury sustained in this state in employment by an employer who is domiciled in another state and who has not secured the payment of compensation as required by this chapter, the employer or his carrier may file with the board a certificate, issued by the commission or agency of such other state having jurisdiction over workmen's compensation claims, certifying that such employer has secured the payment of compensation under the workmen's compensation law of such other state and that with respect to said injury such employe is entitled to the benefits provided under such law, and that the benefits to which such employe or his dependents is entitled are at least as great as those to which he would be entitled if the injury occurred and was processed under Kentucky law, under Kentucky coverage. In such event:

(a) The filing of such certificate shall constitute an appointment by such employer or his carrier of the board as his agent for acceptance of the service of process in any proceeding brought by such employe or his dependents to enforce his or their rights under this chapter on account of such injury;

(b) The board shall send to such employer or carrier, by registered or certified mail to the address shown on such certificate, a true copy of any notice of claim or other process served on the board by the employe or his dependents in any proceeding brought to enforce his or their rights under this chapter;

(c) 1. If such employer is a qualified self-insurer under the workmen's compensation law of such other state, such employer shall, upon submission of evidence satisfactory to the board, of his ability to meet his liability to such employe under this chapter, be deemed to be a qualified self-insurer under this chapter;

2. If such employer's liability under the workmen's compensation law of such other state is insured, such employer's carrier, as to such employe or his dependents only, shall be deemed to be an insurer authorized to write insurance under and be subject to this chapter; provided, however, that unless its contract with said employer requires it to pay an amount equivalent to the compensation benefits provided by this chapter, its liability for income benefits or medical and related benefits shall not exceed the amounts of such benefits for which such insurer would have been liable under the workmen's compensation law of such other state;

(d) If the total amount for which such employer's insurance is liable under (c) above is less than the total of the compensation benefits to which such employe is entitled under this chapter, the board may, if it deems it necessary, require the employer to file security, satisfactory to the board, to secure the payment of benefits due such employe or his dependents under this chapter, and

(e) Upon compliance with the preceding requirements of this subsection (3), such employer, as to such employe only, shall be deemed to have secured the payment of compensation under this chapter.

(4) As used in this section:

(a) "United States" includes only the states of the United States and the District of Columbia;

(b) "State" includes any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any Province of Canada;

(c) "Carrier" includes any insurance company licensed to write workmen's compensation insurance in any state of the United States or any state or provincial fund which insures employers against their liabilities under a workmen's compensation law;

(d) A person's employment is principally localized in this or another state when 1. his employer has a place of business in this or such other state and he regularly works at or from such place of business, or 2. if subparagraph 1. foregoing is not applicable, he is domiciled and spends a substantial part of his working time in the service of his employer in this or such other state;

(e) An employe whose duties require him to travel regularly in the service of his employer in this and one or more other states may, by written agreement with his employer, provide that his employment is principally localized in this or another such state, and, unless such other state refuses jurisdiction, such agreement shall be given effect under this chapter;

(f) "Workmen's compensation law" includes "occupational disease law."

Written application shall be made to the Commission and accompanied by the examination fee or fees at least 30 days prior to the next scheduled examination. Every applicant shall then be examined by the Commission at its next meeting. An examination for one or more fields of structural pest control may be taken at the same time. However, a subsequent application for license in any additional field requires the payment of an additional $25.00 dollar fee. If an applicant fails to pass an examination in one or more fields of structural pest control, he shall have the right to take one additional examination at a regularly scheduled date upon payment of a $25.00 dollar fee for each field of structural pest control which he specified on his application. If an applicant fails to pass the second examination in any field or fields in which he is examined, he may then submit a new application for examination after the expiration of 1 year from the date of his last failure.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 249 is created to read as follows:

The Southern Growth Policies Agreement is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state, in the form substantially as follows:

Article I. Findings and Purposes

(1) The party states find that the South has a sense of community based on common social, cultural and economic needs and fostered by a regional tradition. There are vast potentialities for mutual improvement of each state in the region by cooperative planning for the development, conservation and efficient utilization of human and natural resources in a geographic area large enough to afford a high degree of flexibility in identifying and taking maximum advantage of opportunities for healthy and beneficial growth. The independence of each state and the special needs of subregions are recognized and are to be safeguarded. Accordingly, the cooperation resulting from this Agreement is intended to assist the states in meeting their own problems by enhancing their abilities to recognize and analyze regional opportunities and take account of regional influences in planning and implementing their public policies.

(2) The purposes of this Agreement are to provide:

(a) Improved facilities and procedures for study, analysis and planning of governmental policies, programs and activities of regional significance.

(b) Assistance in the prevention of interstate conflicts and the promotion of regional cooperation.

(c) Mechanisms for the coordination of state and local interests on a regional basis.

(d) An agency to assist the states in accomplishing the foregoing.

Article II. The Board

(1) There is hereby created the Southern Growth Policies Board, hereinafter called "the Board."

(2) The Board shall consist of five members from each party state, as follows:

(a) The Governor.

(b) Two members of the State Legislature, one appointed by the presiding officer of each house of the Legislature or in such other manner as the Legislature may provide.

(c) Two residents of the state who shall be appointed by the Governor to serve at his pleasure.

(3) In making appoitments pursuant to paragraph (2) (c), a Governor shall, to the greatest extent practicable, select persons who, along with the other members serving pursuant to paragraph (2), will make the state's representation on the Board broadly representative of the several socio-economic elements within his state.

(4) A Governor may be represented by an alternate with power to act in his place and stead, if notice of the designation of such alternate is given to the Board in such manner as its Bylaws may provide.

(5) A legislative member of the Board may be represented by an alternate with power to act in his place and stead, unless the laws of his state prohibit such representation and if notice of the designation of such alternate is given to the Board in such manner as its By laws may provide. An alternate for a legislative member of the Board shall be selected by the member from among the members of the legislative house in which he serves.

(6) A member of the Board serving pursuant to paragraph (2) (c) of this Article may be represented by another resident of his state who may participate in his place and stead, except that he shall not vote: provided that notice of the identity and designation of the representative selected by the member is given to the Board in such manner as its Bylaws may provide.

Article III. Powers.

(1) The Board shall prepare and keep current a Statement of Regional Objectives, including recommended approaches to regional problems. The Statement may also identify projects deemed by the Board to be of regional significance. The Statement shall be available in its initial form two years from the effective date of this Agreement and shall be amended or revised no less frequently than once every six years. The Statement shall be in such detail as the Board may prescribe. Amendments, revisions, supplements or evaluations may be transmitted at any time. An annual Commentary on the Statement shall be submitted at a regular time to be determined by the Board.

(2) In addition to powers conferred on the Board elsewhere in this Agreement, the Board shall have the power to make or commission studies, investigations and recommendations with respect to:

(a) The planning and programming of projects of interstate or regional significance.

(b) Planning and scheduling of governmental services and programs which would be of assistance to the orderly growth and prosperity of the region, and to the well-being of its population.

(c) Effective utilization of such federal assistance as may be available on a regional basis or as may have an interstate or regional impact.

(d) Measures for influencing population distribution, land use, development of new communities and redevelopment of existing ones.

(e) Transportation patterns and systems of interstate and regional significance.

(f) Improved utilization of human and natural resources for the advancement of the region as a whole.

(g) Any other matters of a planning, data collection or informational character that the Board may determine to be of value to the party states.

Article IV. Avoidance of Duplication.

(1) To avoid duplication of effort and in the interest of economy, the Board shall make use of existing studies, surveys, plans and data and other materials in the possession of the governmental agencies of the party states and their respective subdivisions or in the possession of other interstate agencies. Each such agency, within available appropriations and if not expressly prevented or limited by law, is hereby authorized to make such materials available to the Board and to otherwise assist it in the performance of its functions. At the request of the Board, each such agency is further authorized to provide information regarding plans and programs affecting the region, or any subarea thereof, so that the Board may have available to it current information with respect thereto.

(2) The Board shall use qualified public and private agencies to make investigations and conduct research, but if it is unable to secure the undertaking of such investigations or original research by a qualified public or private agency, it shall have the power to make its own investigations and conduct its own research. The board may make contracts with any public or private agencies or private persons or entities for the undertaking of such investigations or original research within its purview.

(3) In general, the policy of paragraph (2) of this Article shall apply to the activities of the Board relating to its Statement of Regional Objectives, but nothing herein shall be construed to require the Board to rely on the services of other persons or agencies in developing the Statement of Regional Objectives, or any amendment, supplement or revision thereof.

Article V. Advisory Committees.

The Board shall establish a Local Governments Advisory Committee. In addition, the Board may establish advisory committees representative of subregions of the South, civic and community interests, industry, agriculture, labor or other categories or any combinations thereof. Unless the laws of a party state contain a contrary requirement, any public official of the party state or a subdivision thereof may serve on an advisory committee established pursuant hereto and such service may be considered as a duty of his regular office or employment.

Article VI. Internal Management of the Board.

(1) The members of the Board shall be entitled to one vote each. Article VII. Finance.

(1) The Board shall advise the Governor or designated officer or officers of each party state of its budget of estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that party state. (2) The total amount of appropriation requests under any budget shall be apportioned among the party states. Such apportionment shall be in accordance with the following formula:

(a) One-third in equal shares,

(b) One-third in the proportion that the population of a party state bears to the population of all party states, and

(c) One-third in the proportion that the per capita income in a party state bears to the per capita income in all party states.

In implementing this formula, the Board shall employ the most recent authoritative sources of information and shall specify the sources used.

(3) The Board shall not pledge the credit of any party state. The Board may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it pursuant to Article VI (8) of this Agreement, provided that the Board takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring an obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the Board makes use of funds available to it pursuant to Article VI (8), or borrows pursuant to this paragraph, the Board shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same. The Board may borrow against anticipated revenues for terms not to exceed two years, but in any such event the credit pledged shall be that of the Board and not of a party state.

(4) The Board shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the Board shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established by its Bylaws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the Board shall be audited yearly by a certified

(5) The accounts of the Board shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the Board.

Article VIII. Cooperation With the Federal Government and Other Governmental Entities.

Each party state is hereby authorized to participate in cooperative or joint planning undertakings with the Federal Government, and any appropriate agency or agencies thereof, or with any interstate agency or agencies. Such participation shall be at the instance of the Governor or in such manner as state law may provide or authorize. The Board may facilitate the work of state representatives in any joint interstate or cooperative federal-state undertaking authorized by this Article, and each such state shall keep the Board advised of its activities in respect of such undertakings, to the extent that they have interstate or regional significance.

Article IX. Subregional Activities.

The Board may undertake studies or investigations centering on the problems of one or more selected subareas within the region; provided that in its judgment, such studies or investigations will have value as demonstrations for similar or other areas within the region. If a study or investigation that would be of primary benefit to a given state, unit of local government, or intrastate or interstate area is proposed, and if the Board finds that it is not justified in undertaking the work for its regional value as a demonstration, the Board may undertake the study or investigation as a special project. In any such event, it shall be a condition precedent that satisfactory financing and personnel arrangements be concluded to assure that the party or parties benefited bear all costs which the Board determines that it would be inequitable for it to assume. Prior to undertaking any study or investigation pursuant to this Article as a special project, the Board shall make reasonable efforts to secure the undertaking of the work by another responsible public or private entity in accordance with the policy set for in Article IV (2).

Article X. Comprehensive Land Use Planning.

If any two or more contiguous party states desire to prepare a single or consolidated comprehensive land use plan, or a land use plan for any interstate area lying partly within each such state, the Governors of the states involved may designate the Board as their joint agency for the purpose. The Board Shall accept such designation and carry out such responsibility: provided that the states involved make arrangements satisfactory to the Board to reimburse it or otherwise provide the resources with which the land use plan is to be prepared. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to deny the availability for use in the preparation of any such plan of data and information already in the possession of the Board or to require payment on account of the use thereof in addition to payments otherwise required to be made pursuant to other provisions of this Agreement.

Article XI. Compacts and Agencies Unaffected.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to:

(1) Affect the powers of jurisdiction of any agency of a party state or any subdivision thereof.

(2) Affect the rights or obligations of any governmental units, agencies or officials, or of any private persons or entities conferred or imposed by any interstate or interstate-federal compacts to which any one or more states participating herein are parties.

(2) Any eligible state may enter into this Agreement and it shall become binding thereon when it has adopted the same: provided that in order to enter into initial effect, adoption by at least five states shall be required.

(3) Adoption of the Agreement may be either by enactment thereof or by adherence thereto by the Governor; provided that in the absence of enactment, adherence by the Governor shall be sufficient to make his state a party only until December 31, 1973. During any period when a state is participating in this Agreement through gubernatorial action, the Governor may provide to the Board an equitable share of the financial support of the Board from any source available to him. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to require a Governor to take action contrary to the constitution or laws of his state.

(4) Except for a withdrawal effective on December 31, 1973, in accordance with paragraph (3) of this Article, any party state may withdraw from this Agreement by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the Governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the Governors of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

Article XIII. Construction and Severability.

This Agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this Agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this Agreement is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States, or the application thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this Agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this Agreement shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

Each district which meets the following requirements shall be eligible to share in the distribution of funds from the public common school foundation program fund:

(1) Employs and compensates all teachers for not fewer than 185 days, provided, that the State Board of Education upon recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall prescribe procedures whereby this requirement may be reduced during any year for any district which employs teachers for less than 185 days, in which case the eligibility of a district for participation in the public common school foundation program fund shall be in proportion to the length of time teachers are employed.

(2) Operates all schools for a term as provided in KRS 158.070 and regulations of the State Board of Education, provided, however, that if the school term is less than 185 days for any reason approved by the State Board of Education on recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the eligibility of a district for participation in the public common school foundation program fund shall be in proportion to the length of term the schools actually operate.

(3) Compensates all teachers on the basis of a single salary schedule and in conformity with the provisions of this Act.

(4) Makes the required local tax effort as otherwise provided by Section 3 of this Act.

(5) Includes no non-resident pupils in its average daily attendance or average daily membership except by written agreement with the district of the pupils' legal residence. This subsection does not apply to those pupils enrolled in an approved class conducted in hospitals.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall calculate and allot pupil units in the following manner:

(1) On or before December 1 of each year, each local school district shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the average daily full-time equivalent attendance of all eligible pupils enrolled in that district for the first three school months. This attendance shall be reported by the following grade levels: kindergarten, grades 1 through 2, grades 3 through 8, and grades 9 through 12. These full-time equivalent attendants will then be multiplied by the following weights and added to give the pupil units for the basic program:

Levels	Weights
Kindergarten	1.10
Grades 1-2	1.30
Grades 3-8	1.00
Grades 9-12	1.20

(2) On or before December 1 of each year, each local school district shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the average daily full-time equivalent attendance of all eligible pupils enrolled for the first three school months in an approved program for exceptional children. The full-time equivalent attendance units shall be reported by the categories of exceptional children classes in which they are enrolled. An "add-on-weight" for the following categories will be multiplied by the full-time equivalent attendance in each category. The sum of these will give the additional pupil units for exceptional children.

Categories	"Add-on Weight"
Physically Handicapped	1.50
Hard of Hearing	1.40
Deaf	2.00
Mentally Retarded Educable	1.10
Emotionally Disturbed	2.70
Neurologically Impaired	2.30
Visually Handicapped	2.70
Mentally Retarded Trainable	2.30

(3) On or before December 1 of each year, each local school district shall certify to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the average daily full-time equivalent attendance of all eligible pupils enrolled for the first three school months in an approved program of vocational education. This full-time equivalent attendance will be reported by the categories of vocational education in which they are enrolled. An "add-on weight" for the following categories will be multiplied by the full-time equivalent attendance in each category. The sum of these will give the additional pupil units for vocational education.

(4) The State Board of Education on recommendation of the Superintendent of Public Instruction may approve a category and/or a class not included in subsection (2) or (3) of this section.

(5) The total pupil units allocated to each district is the sum of subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section.

Section 7. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the value of the pupil unit in the following manner:

(1) The amount appropriated by the General Assembly for the public common school foundation program during fiscal 1976 plus any funds available from other sources shall be allotted under the public common school foundation program fund. The amount to be allotted for current operation shall include the amounts appropriated under the public common school foundation program for instruction salaries and current expense after the adjustment for transportation and required local effort has been completed. This amount will be divided by the pupil units to establish the value of a "Pupil Unit." In subsequent fiscal years, the value of a "Pupil Unit" shall be set for each year of the biennium by the General Assembly.

(2) The amount to be included for capital outlay shall be the amount appropriated by the General Assembly under the public common school foundation program for fiscal 1976. This amount will be divided by the total pupil units to establish the value of a "capital outlay unit." In subsequent fiscal years, the value of a "capital outlay unit" shall be set each year of the biennium by the General Assembly.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

(1) The Superintendent of Public Instruction, under regulations of the State Board of Education, shall classify teachers in rank as follows:

Rank I. Those holding regular certificates and who have a masters degree or its equivalent and who have earned thirty semester hours of approved graduate work or its equivalent, and those teachers who, as of September 1, 1962, were included in Rank I, having earned twenty-four semester hours of additional approved graduate work.

Rank II. Those holding regular certificates and who have a masters degree or its equivalent.

Rank III. Those holding regular certificates and who have an approved four-year college degree or the equivalent.

Rank IV. Those holding certificates and who have ninety-six to 128 semester hours of approved college training or the equivalent; provided, however, that persons holding emergency certificates shall not be classified higher than this rank for calculation of the amount to be included in public common school foundation program.

Rank V. Those holding certificates and who have sixty-four to ninety-five semester hours of approved college training or the equivalent.

(2) In determining ranks, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, under regulations of the State Board of Education, shall classify teachers who hold valid certificates in the respective ranks according to approved college semester hours of credit. The Superintendent of Public Instruction, in defining preparation for certain types of vocational teachers as equivalent to college training, shall give consideration to apprenticeship training and industrial experience.

(3) Experience under this section shall be defined by regulations of the State Board of Education.

(4) A factor for teacher rank and experience shall be determined for each district. A district shall not receive a rank and experience factor for any teacher improperly assigned in accordance with regulations of the State Board of Education. The rank and experience factor shall be obtained by multiplying the number of eligible teachers in each rank and years of experience by the following factors:

RANK	I	II	III	IV	V
EXPERIENCE
0-3 years	.98	.91	.84	.34	.30
4-9 years	1.12	1.05	.98	.34	.30

10+years 1.20 1.13 1.06 .34 .30

The sum of these are then divided by the number of teachers employed by the local board to obtain a district factor for rank and experience.

(5) The adjusted pupil units will be obtained by multiplying the factor for rank and experience for that district by the total pupil units in subsection (5) of Section 6 of this Act.

(6) The total adjusted pupil units for the public common schools shall equal the total pupil units in subsection (5) of Section 6 of this Act.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

(1) In determining the cost of the public common school foundation program for each district, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the average cost per pupil per day of transporting pupils in districts having a similar density of transported pupils per square mile of area served by not less than nine different density groups.

(2) The annual cost of transportation shall include all current costs for each district plus annual depreciation of pupil transportation vehicles calculated in accordance with the regulations of the State Board of Education for such districts that operate district-owned vehicles.

(3) The aggregate and average daily attendance of transported pupils shall include all public common school pupils transported at public expense who live one mile or more from school, provided that handicapped pupils may be included who live less than this distance from school. The aggregate and average daily attendance referred to in this subsection shall be the aggregate and average daily attendance of transported pupils the prior year adjusted for current year increases in accordance with State Board of Education Regulations.

(4) The State Board of Education, by regulation, shall determine the type of handicapped pupil that qualifies for special transportation to and from school. Those qualified pupils for which the district provides special transportation shall have their aggregate days attendance multiplied by 5.0 and added to that part of the district's aggregate days attendance that is multiplied by the district's adjusted cost per pupil per day in determining the district's pupil transportation program cost for allotment purposes.

(5) The square miles of area served by transportation shall be determined by subtracting from the total area in square miles of the district the area not served by transportation, determined in accordance with the regulations of the State Board of Education provided that if one district authorizes another district to provide transportation for a part of its area, such area served shall be deducted from the area served by that district and added to the area served by the district providing the transportation.

(6) The density of transported pupils per square mile of area served for each district shall be determined by dividing the average daily attendance of transported pupils by the number of square miles of area served by transportation.

(7) The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the average cost per pupil per day of transporting pupils in districts having a similar density by constructing a smoothed graph of cost for all density groups as provided in subsection (1) of this section. This graph shall be used to construct a scale showing the average costs of transportation for districts having a similar density of transported pupils. Such costs shall be determined separately for county school districts and independent school districts, provided that no independent school district will receive an average cost per pupil per day in excess of the minimum received by any county district or districts. These costs shall be the costs per pupil per day of transported pupils included in the foundation program and such costs shall be recalculated each year.

(8) The cost of transporting a district's pupils from the parent school to a State Vocational-Technical School or to a Vocational Education Center shall be calculated separately from the calculation required by subsections (1) through (8) of this section. The amount calculated shall be paid separately to each district from public common school foundation program funds budgeted for vocational pupil transportation, as a reimbursement based on the district's cost for providing this service. The amount of reimbursement shall be calculated in accordance with State Board of Education Regulations. In the event that the appropriation for vocational pupil transportation in the biennial budget is insufficient to meet the total calculated cost of this service for all districts, the amount paid to each district shall be ratably reduced. For the purpose of this subsection, the parent school shall be interpreted to mean that school in which the pupil is officially enrolled in a district's public common school system.

Section 10. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

(1) On or before March 1 of each year the Department of Revenue shall determine the assessed value of all property subject to taxation for school purposes, including a separate listing of the part of such assessment represented by "net assessment growth" as defined in KRS 132.425, and shall determine the percentage that the assessed value in each district is of the total assessed value of all property in the Commonwealth subject to taxation for school purposes, and shall certify such information to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for use in determining the required local tax effort for each district for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, next after such certification.

(2) The aggregate required local tax effort for the Commonwealth shall be the sum of the aggregate required local tax effort for the preceding year plus the amount obtained by multiplying the percentage of net assessment growth, as defined in KRS 132.425, by the aggregate local required tax effort for the preceding year; and the required local tax effort for each district shall be obtained by multiplying each district's percentage of the total assessed value of all property in the Commonwealth subject to taxation for school purposes by the aggregate required local tax effort of the Commonwealth.

(3) Any district's levy under KRS 160.470 shall be at such rate as is necessary to provide the required local tax effort.

Section 11. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the amount distributable to each district from the public common school foundation program fund in the following manner:

(1) The amount included for each district for current operations shall be the adjusted pupil units times the value of a pupil unit as calculated in subsection (1) of Section 7 of this Act in fiscal 1976 and as appropriated by the legislature each year thereafter.

(2) The amount included for each district for capital outlay shall be the total pupil units times the value of a capital outlay unit as calculated in subsection (2) of Section 7 of this Act in fiscal 1976 and as appropriated by the legislature each year thereafter.

(3) The amount included for each district for transportation shall be the aggregate attendance of transported pupils multiplied by the formula adjusted cost.

(4) The calculated foundation program level of funding for each district shall be the sum of subsection (1), (2), and (3) of this section.

(5) The amount of money distributable to each district from the public common school foundation program fund shall be determined by subtracting the required local tax effort as determined in subsection (2) of Section 10 of this Act from the calculated level of foundation program funding for each district as determined in subsection (4) of this section.

(6) If it is determined in subsection (5) of this section that the amount of money distributed to a school district for the school year 1975-76 shall be less than the allotment under subsection (1) of KRS 157.400, then the apportionment for that district shall be increased to the allotment under subsection (1) of KRS 157.400.

Section 12. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

(1) For each school year the Executive Department for Finance and Administration, on the certification of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall draw warrants as specified hereinafter on the State Treasurer for the amount of the public common school foundation program fund due each district. Checks shall be issued by the State Treasurer and transmitted to the Department of Education for distribution to the proper officials of the several school districts when the districts have fully complied with the school laws and rules and regulations of the State Board of Education. The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine on or before August 15 of each year the tentative allotment of public common school foundation program funds to which each district is entitled under the provisions of this Act. On July 1, August 1, and September 1, of each fiscal year, one-twelfth of the prior year's allotment minus the capital outlay shall be paid each school district. On the first of each month thereafter until the final calculation is completed, one-twelfth of each district's share of the tentative calculation for current operation and transportation of the public common school foundation program fund shall be distributed. On or before May 1 of each year the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall determine the exact amount of the public common school foundation program fund to which each district is entitled and the remainder of the amount due each district for the year shall be distributed in equal installments beginning the first month after completion of final calculation and for each successive month thereafter.

(2) Capital outlay shall be made in two payments. The first, on or before October 1, shall be one-half of the amount calculated on the tentative allocation for capital outlay. The balance due shall be paid on or before May 1.

Section 13. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

Public common school foundation program funds made available to the credit of each district during any year, together with the funds required from local tax effort, shall be received, held and expended by the district board, subject to the regulations of the State Board of Education and the following provisions:

(1) Public common school foundation program funds shall be used only for teachers holding a valid Kentucky teaching certificate.

(2) The capital outlay allotment for each district from the public common school foundation program fund and from local sources shall be kept in a separate fund and may be used by the district only for capital outlay projects approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in accordance with requirements of law, and based on a survey made in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the State Board of Education. These funds shall be used for the following capital outlay purposes:

(a) For direct payment of construction costs;

(b) For debt service on voted and funding bonds;

(c) For payment or lease-rental agreements under which the board eventually will acquire ownership of a school plant;

(d) For the retirement of any deficit resulting from overexpenditure for capital construction, if such deficit resulted from an emergency declared by the State Board of Education under KRS 160.550, and

(e) As a reserve fund for the above-named purposes, to be carried forward in ensuing budgets; provided, however, if any district has a special levy for capital outlay or debt service that is equal to the capital outlay allotment or a proportionate fraction thereof, and spends the proceeds of that levy for the above-named purposes, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, under regulations of the State Board of Education, may authorize the district to use all or a proportionate fraction of its capital outlay allotment for current expenses.

(3) If a survey shows that a school district has no capital outlay needs as described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (2) of this section, upon approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, capital outlay funds may be used for school plant maintenance, repair, insurance on buildings, replacement of equipment, and purchase of school buses.

(4) In the expenditure of foundation program funds, with the exception of transportation funds, each district shall spend for the education of the children of each classification and weighting category set forth in Section 6 of this Act an amount equal to that amount calculated in each classification and weighting category provided in Section 6 of this Act.

(5) The State Board of Education, upon recommendation of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, shall promulgate regulations to carry out the provisions of subsection (4) of this Section.

Section 14. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

If, when the apportionments are being determined under the provisions of this Act, funds appropriated by the General Assembly to the public common school foundation program fund plus that portion of the funds required from local tax effort are insufficient to provide the amount of money required under Section 11 of this Act, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall make a percentage reduction in the allotments determined in these subsections for each district to the extent necessary to reduce the total of these allotments to funds available.

Section 15. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

The Superintendent of Public Instruction shall evaluate the effectiveness and equity of the weight assigned to each category in subsections (1), (2), and (3) of Section 6 of this Act, and shall report to the Governor and the Interim Committee on Education his findings and recommendations not later than November 15 of the year immediately prior to the convening of the Regular Session of the General Assembly.

Section 16. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

This Act shall become operable for the 1975-76 school year, or any school year subsequent thereto, when the Governor, after consultation with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and other appropriate state officials, certifies to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction that there are sufficient funds available to meet the requirements of subsection 6 of Section 11 of this Act. Once this certification is made, this program shall remain in full force and effect for all subsequent school years until modified or repealed by the General Assembly.

Section 17. A new section of KRS Chapter 157A is created to read as follows:

(1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of KRS 157.100 to 157.180 shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

(2) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this Act shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

Section 18. Sections 157.310, 157.312, 157.315, 157.320, 157.330, 157.350, 157.360, 157.370, 157.380, 157.390, 157.400, 157.410, 157.420, 157.430, and 157.990 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes are repealed effective June 30, 1976.

(2) Summary statements of the financial condition of the state, accompanied by such detailed schedules of assets and liabilities as the governor deems desirable, and to include:

(a) A comparative consolidated current account balance sheet showing all the current assets and liabilities of the state and the current account surplus or deficit, as the case may be, at the close of each of the two (2) fiscal years last concluded.

(b) Summary statements of fund balances showing in detail for each fund the current account surplus or deficit at the beginning of each of the two (2) fiscal years last concluded, the actual income of that year, the total net appropriation of that year and the total expenditures of that year.

(c) Similar summary statements of the estimated fund balances for the current fiscal year and each of the next two (2) fiscal years.

(3) Statements of income and receipts for each of the two (2) fiscal years last concluded, and the estimated income and receipts of the current fiscal year and of each of the next two (2) fiscal years. The statements of income and estimated income shall be itemized by sources, by organization units and sources, and by funds and sources. The statements of receipts and estimated receipts shall be itemized by organization units and sources, and by funds and sources, and shall show separately receipts from current income, receipts from refunds and reimbursements of expenditures, receipts from sale of assets, and receipts on account of the income of prior years, all detailed by sources. Existing sources of income and receipts shall be analyzed as to their equity, productivity and need for revision, and any proposed new sources of income or receipts shall be explained.

(4) Summary statements of expenditures and disbursements for each of the two (2) fiscal years last concluded, itemized by budget units under functional heads, and showing the amounts expended and disbursed for each major function of government.

(5) A statement of the surplus account for the general fund and for each special fund. Each surplus account shall show the excess of all current assets over all current liabilities as of the beginning of each of the two (2) fiscal years last concluded, and all changes in each surplus account during each of such two (2) fiscal years.

(6) A statement as of the close of the last completed fiscal year and as of the close of the current fiscal year, showing the total funded debt, the value of sinking fund assets, the net funded debt, the floating liabilities as of the close of the last completed fiscal year and the estimated floating liabilities as of the end of the current fiscal year, and the total debt as of the close of the last completed fiscal year and as of the close of the current fiscal year.

(7) Detailed comparative statements of expenditures and requests for appropriations by funds and [,] budget units [and budget classes], showing [the] expenditures for each of the two (2) fiscal years last concluded, the budget of the current year, and the requests of each budget unit and the governor's recommendations for appropriations for each of the next two (2) fiscal years, by major program area, program, and subprogram, if applicable [all distributed according to budget classes or ordinary recurring expenses of operation and maintenance, and of extraordinary expenses and capital outlays]. Following the lists of actual and proposed expenditures of each budget unit there shall be a brief explanation of the goals of the major program areas and the objectives, beneficiaries, levels of need, and results for each program and subprogram [functions of the unit] and comments on its policies and plans and on any considerable differences among the amounts expended, the amounts requested and the amounts recommended, with such descriptive quantitative, comparative and other data as to work done, unit costs and like information as is considered necessary or desirable. In connection with each budget class of capital outlays involving construction projects to be completed in two (2) or more fiscal years there shall be shown the total estimated cost of each such project and the amount thereof recommended to be appropriated and expended in each ensuing fiscal year until completion of the project.

(8) A summary statement for each fund of the cash resources estimated to be available at the beginning of each of the next two (2) fiscal years, and the estimated cash receipts of the fiscal year, as compared with the total recommended amounts of appropriation for all budget units [classes] for the year, and if the total of the recommended expenditures exceeds the total of the estimated resources, recommendations as to how the deficiency is to be met and estimates of receipts from any proposed additional revenues.

(9) A draft of a proposed appropriation act or acts embodying the governor's recommendations for appropriations for the next two (2) fiscal years, and drafts of such revenue and other acts as may be recommended for putting into effect the proposed financial plan. The recommended appropriations for ordinary recurring expenses shall not be itemized by budget classes in the appropriation acts, but by budget units, and the amount of each of such recommended appropriations shall be the total of the recommended amounts for the budget units [classes] in the group covered by the appropriation. Recommended appropriations for extraordinary expenses and capital outlays shall be itemized in the appropriation act by budget units, [classes,] and the title of each budget unit [class] shall be so worded as to limit each appropriation to the specific use or purpose intended. In connection with each suggested appropriation for capital outlays, the draft of the appropriation act shall specify the total amount to be appropriated for the total estimated cost of each such project, and the amount recommended for appropriation for each fiscal year thereafter until the completion of the project. The recommended appropriation for each budget unit shall be specified in a distinct and separate section of the appropriation act. The total amount of appropriations recommended from any fund shall not exceed the cash resources estimated by the governor to be available and to become available to meet expenditures under such appropriations.

(10) A certificate of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [department of finance] as to the accuracy of the statements of financial condition, of income and receipts, and of expenditures and disbursements.

(11) Such other information as the governor deems desirable or is required by law.

Section 3. KRS 45.140 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Revolving accounts may be established in the operating fund by appropriations for financing activities self-supporting in whole or in part.

(2) Trust and agency accounts may be established in the operating fund to receive and disburse contributions, gifts, donations, devises and federal appropriations, and, when authorized by law, by depositing all of the fees (which include fees for maintenance in state institutions, incidental fees, tuition fees, fees for board and room, athletics, and student activities), rentals, admittance, sales, licenses collected by law, subventions and other miscellaneous receipts of such boards, commissions, departments, agencies, and institutions.

(3) The head of the budget unit or other responsible fiscal agent of the unit [or division] for which a revolving, trust or agency account has been established shall deposit with the state treasury all receipts of the character above described, and the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [department of finance] shall credit all such receipts to the budget unit [or division thereof] as directed in writing by the head of the budget unit [or division thereof], and shall keep separate accounting for each account so established.

(4) The amounts credited to any revolving, trust or agency account so provided, shall be held available for disbursement for the purpose [of the fund in the manner] provided by law and shall not be diverted to any other purpose. Revolving, trust or agency accounts shall be subject to withdrawal from the state treasury by the head of each budget unit [or division thereof] when actually needed, on requisition to the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [department of finance] in the same manner provided by law as other state funds are withdrawn. Funds received from the federal government in the form of grants or otherwise may be expended for the purpose intended even though received in a fiscal year other than that in which the related original encumbrance or expenditure was incurred. Trust and agency funds must be allotted before an expenditure is made; and the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration may withhold allotment of general fund appropriations to the extent trust and agency funds are available.

(5) Subject to prior approval by the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [finance], any agency which, as an incident to its authorized duties and functions, furnishes requested services or materials to any persons outside state government, where such services or materials are not required by law, to be furnished gratuitously, may charge such persons an amount not to exceed the total expense to the agency of the services or materials furnished. The receipts from such approved charges shall be deposited and expended in accordance with subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section or may be deposited as a general fund receipt at the discretion of the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [finance].

Section 4. KRS 45.160 is amended to read as follows:

Except as deviations therefrom are made necessary by changes in conditions of operations, to meet unforeseen contingencies, to correct errors, or to avoid cash deficits, the heads of the budget units, the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [department of finance] and the governor, in allotting appropriations for expenditure, shall be governed by the functions, major program areas, programs, or units of organization [work plans formulated by the heads of the budget units] as shown in the detailed budget estimates as enacted by the general assembly, and the heads of the budget units shall hold to the functions, major program areas, programs or units or organization [work plans and detailed expenditure estimates] as authorized and approved on advices of allotments. The Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [finance] shall make quarterly allotments of appropriations, except in the case of appropriations for the purpose of capital outlay for buildings, roads and bridges, and for printing, as provided in KRS 45.200. In any other cases where periodic allotments as provided for herein are impracticable, the department may prescribe a different period suited to the circumstances, not exceeding one (1) year nor extending beyond the end of the biennium. The department shall have authority at any time to modify or amend any allotment previously made by it, upon application of, or upon notice to, the department or agency concerned, provided that no such modification or amendment shall reduce an allotment below the amount required to meet valid obligations or commitments previously incurred against the allotted funds. In making the allotments the expenditures to be authorized shall be classified according to purpose [or type], and the funds allotted for each purpose [or type] of expenditure shall be used for no other purpose, except that the head of any budget unit, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [finance], may transfer allotted funds from one (1) purpose [or type] of expenditure to another, within the budget unit. In no case shall obligations be incurred or expenditures made in excess of the total amounts allotted. The decision of the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [finance] as to the amount of any allotment for any fiscal quarter or other period or as to the purposes for which money allotted may be expended, shall be final and conclusive. The Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration [finance] is authorized, empowered and directed by the general assembly to reduce any appropriation and withhold allotments therefrom to prevent an overdraft or deficit in any fiscal year for which any appropriation is made; Provided, however, That the power vested shall not permit any reduction of the appropriation of any officer, board, commission, institution or subdivision of state government that will actually impair the necessary constitutional functions of any agency whose operations and functions are determined to be necessary constitutional functions of government.

Section 5. KRS 45.230 is amended to read as follows:

(1) No state officer or agency shall, after the close of any fiscal year, incur, or vote, order or approve the incurring of, any obligation or expenditure under any appropriation for that fiscal year, and no expenditure shall be made from or charged to any appropriation for any fiscal year that has expired at the time the obligation for the expenditure was incurred.

(2) Budget units operating books of account on a full accrual basis, may, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration, incur expenditures from allocated fund balances to the extent they represent assets on the audited fund balance sheet reports.

(3) Budget units operating both from agency funds and general appropriation funds and using an accrual basis of accounting may, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration, incur expenditures from agency funds in excess of the sum of general funds and agency funds.

(4) The Executive Department for Finance and Administration [Department of Finance] may, for a period of three (3) months after the close of any fiscal year, draw warrants against the available balances of appropriations made for that fiscal year, for the payment of expenditures incurred during that year or in fulfillment of contracts properly made during that year, but for no other purpose. After the expiration of three (3) months from the beginning of each fiscal year, all balances of appropriations for the prior fiscal year shall lapse, unless otherwise provided by law, and no further payments shall be made on any claims on account of expenditures of the prior fiscal year.

Section 6. KRS 45.260 is amended to read as follows:

Fees for licenses, permits or certificates of any kind due any budget unit shall be collected by the budget unit at the time such licenses, permits or certificates are issued by it, and all other money accruing to the budget units or to the state through the budget units shall also, as far as practicable, be collected at the time the services are rendered or at the time of accrual by the budget units rendering the services or assessing the charges or otherwise giving rise to the claims in favor of the state. When collections cannot be so made, the budget units concerned shall render bills to the persons liable for the amounts due or accruing, and shall collect such bills. Each bill shall carry notice to the effect that checks and money orders shall be made payable to the state treasurer. [The department of finance shall prescribe the form of the bills, have them numbered, and issue them to the budget units. The department shall record the numbers of those issued to each budget unit and shall hold the administrative head thereof accountable for each bill so issued and recorded. The budget units shall keep copies of all bills rendered, and shall mark the word "Paid" on the copies of bills that have been paid.]

Section 7. Subsection (4) of KRS 45.320 is created to read as follows:

(4) Each department head and cabinet secretary shall, within thirty (30) days following December 31, 1974, June 30, 1975, and each six months thereafter submit to the Governor, with a copy to the Legislative Research Commission and the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration, a report, to be known as the "program status report," showing for each program and, if applicable, for each subprogram, within his areas of responsibility for the preceeding six months the following:

(a) Appropriations, allotments, expenditures, encumbrances, and available balance.

(b) The level of service budgeted, defined in terms of objectives and beneficiaries.

(c) The level of services delivered during the period.

(d) Alternatives for improved service delivery.

(e) Any changes in service authorized or necessary as a result of unanticipated changes in clientele, resources, or for other reasons.

(f) An evaluation of results, including a description of measurements used.

Section 8. A new section of KRS Chapter 45 is created to read as follows:

Budget units having bona fide receivables may, with the permission of the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration, establish receivable accounts with a corresponding credit to an allotment account.

Section 9. A new section of KRS Chapter 45 is created to read as follows:

(1) The accounting system prescribed and installed by the Executive Department for Finance and Administration shall include the following fund structure:

(a) Operating Fund Group. This fund shall consist of all monies, not otherwise restricted, available for general operations of state government. It may include general funds, agency receipts, grants, and federal funds. A separate record of each source of revenue within this fund group shall be maintained.

(b) Transportation Fund Group. This fund shall consist of road fund revenues, agency receipts, federal funds and general funds appropriated by the General Assembly for programs carried out in the Department of Transportation. A separate record of each source of revenue within this fund group shall be maintained.

(c) Capital Construction Fund. This fund shall consist of monies allotted for capital construction projects, except road construction projects, for all agencies of state government.

(d) Bond Debt Related Fund Group. This group of funds shall consist of all outstanding bonded debt liability and related funds of state government, including all revenue bonds issued by or approved by the state property and buildings commission. Accounts necessary to assure integrity of trust indentures shall be maintained. Funds appropriated for debt service shall be allotted to these accounts and any excess of appropriation over net requirements for principle, interest and reserves for any issue shall lapse to the general fund if general funds are a part of the appropriation for that budget unit.

(e) Restricted Fund Group. This fund group shall consist of appropriations and other receipts restricted as to purpose, and which by statute or otherwise may not be included in the operating fund.

(2) Transfers of appropriations, allotments, or receipts between funds shall be permitted, with the permission of the Office for Policy and Management, for the purpose of matching restricted grants, for debt service, for capital construction, or for necessary government expense; provided, however, that no transfers, may be made from other funds to the operating fund to correct errors, except to return excess transfers, to and with the written permission of the Commissioner of the Executive Department for Finance and Administration.

Section 10. KRS 45.141 and KRS 45.270 are hereby repealed.

SB 179, AN ACT relating to the taxation of pollution control equipment.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. A new section of KRS Chapter 224 is created to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of this Section only, "pollution control facility" shall mean and include:

(a) Any property designed, constructed, or installed as a component part of any commercial or industrial premises for the primary purpose of eliminating or reducing the emission of, or ground level concentration of, particulate matter, dust, fumes, gas, mist, smoke, vapor, or odorous substances, or any combination thereof which renders air harmful or inimical to the health of persons or to property within this Commonwealth;

(b) Any disposal system or any treatment works, pre-treatment works, appliance, equipment, machinery, or installation constructed, used, or placed in operation primarily for the purpose of reducing, controlling, or eliminating thermal pollution or water pollution caused by industrial waste, or what would be industrial waste, if discharged into the waters of the Commonwealth;

(c) Any disposal system or any appliance, equipment, machinery or installation constructed, used or placed in operation primarily for disposing of solid waste or converting solid waste into an item of real economic value;

(d) Any property designed, constructed, or installed as a component part of any commercial or industrial premises for the primary purpose of eliminating or reducing the emission of sound which is harmful or inimical to the health of persons or to property, or materially reduces the quality of the environment in this Commonwealth;

(e) Any property designed, constructed, or installed for the primary purpose of removing substances from raw materials, which substances, if permitted to become a component part of the finished product, would have a deleterious effect on the environment when the finished product was utilized.

(2) "Industrial waste" means any liquid, gaseous, or solid waste substance resulting from any process of industry, manufacture, trade, or business, or from the development, processing, or recovery of any natural resource, together with such sewage as is present, which pollutes the waters of the Commonwealth.

(3) "Solid waste" means any residue in a solid or semi-solid form resulting from any process of industry, manufacture, trade or business or from the development, processing, or recovery of any natural resource, which has insignificant economic value.

(4) "Treatment works" means any plant, disposal field, lagoon, dam, pumping station, incinerator, or other works used for the purpose of treating, stabilizing, or holding sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes.

(5) "Water pollution" shall mean the placing of any noxious or deleterious substances in any waters of the Commonwealth which render such waters harmful or inimical to aquatic life, or to the use of such waters for domestic water supply, or industrial or agricultural purposes or for recreation.

(6) "Waters of the Commonwealth" means all streams, lakes, ponds, marshes, watercourses, waterways, wells, springs, irrigation systems, drainage systems, and all other bodies or accumulations of water, surface and underground, natural or artificial, which are situated wholly or partly within, or border upon, this Commonwealth, or are within its jurisdiction, except those private waters which do not combine or effect a junction with natural surface or underground waters.

(7) "Department" shall mean the Kentucky Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection.

(8) "Pollution control tax exemption certificate" shall mean that certificate issued by the Department pursuant to subsection (9) of this Section.

(9) Application for a pollution control tax exemption certificate shall be filed with the Department in such manner and in such form as may be prescribed by regulations issued by the Department and shall contain plans and specifications of the structure or structures including all materials incorporated and to be incorporated therein and a descriptive list of all equipment acquired or to be acquired by the applicant for the purpose of air, noise, solid waste or water pollution control and any additional information deemed necessary by the Department of Revenue for the proper administration of this Act. If the Department finds that the facility qualifies as a pollution control facility as defined in Section 1 of this Act, it shall enter a finding and issue a certificate to that effect. The effective date of said certificate shall be the date of the making of the application for such certificate.

(10) Before issuing a pollution control tax exemption certificate, the Department shall give notice in writing by mail to the Commissioner of Revenue, and shall afford to the applicant and to the Commissioner of Revenue an opportunity for a hearing. On like notice and opportunity for a hearing, the Department shall on its own initiative revoke such certificate whenever any of the following appears:

(a) The certificate was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation;

(b) The holder of the certificate has failed substantially to proceed with the construction, reconstruction, installation, or acquisition of the pollution control facilities;

(c) The structure or equipment or both to which the certificate relates has ceased to be used for the primary purpose of pollution control and is being used for a different purpose.

(11) Provided, however, that where the circumstances so require, the Department in lieu of revoking such certificate may modify the same.

(12) On the mailing of notice of the action of the Department revoking or modifying a certificate as provided in subsection (13) of this Section, such certificate shall cease to be in force or shall remain in force only as modified as the case may require.

(13) A pollution control tax exemption certificate, when issued, shall be sent by certified mail to the applicant and notice of such issuance in the form of certified copies thereof shall be sent to the Commissioner of Revenue. Notice of an order of the Department denying, revoking, or modifying a certificate in the form of certified copies thereof shall be sent by certified mail to the applicant or the holder thereof and shall be sent to the Commissioner of Revenue. The applicant or holder and the Commissioner of Revenue are deemed parties for the purpose of the review afforded by subsection (14) of this Section.

(14) Any party aggrieved by the issuance, refusal to issue, revocation, or modification of a pollution control tax exemption certificate may appeal from the final ruling of the Department to the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals as provided in KRS 131.340.

(15) In the event of the sale, lease, or other transfer of a pollution control facility, not involving a different location or use, the holder of a pollution control tax exemption certificate for such facility may transfer the certificate by written instrument to the person who, except for the transfer of the certificate, would be obligated to pay taxes on such facility. The transferee shall become the holder of the certificate and shall have all rights pertaining thereto, effective as of the date of transfer of the facility or the date of transfer of the certificate, whichever is earlier. The transferee shall give written notice of the effective date of the transfer, together with a copy of the instrument of transfer to the Department and to the Department of Revenue.

(16) In the event a pollution control facility for which an exemption certificate is held ceases to be used for the primary purpose of pollution control or is used for a different purpose than that for which the exemption certificate was granted, the holder of the certificate shall give written notice by certified mail of such change to the Department and to the Department of Revenue.

Section 2. KRS 139.480 is amended to read as follows:

Any other provision of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, the terms "sale at retail," "retail sale," "use," "storage," and "consumption," as used in this chapter do not include the sale, use, storage, or other consumption of:

(1) Locomotives or rolling stock, including materials for the construction, repair, or modification thereof, or fuel or supplies for the direct operation of locomotives and trains, used or to be used in interstate commerce;

(2) Coal for the manufacture of electricity;

(3) All energy or energy-producing fuels used in the course of manufacturing, processing, mining, or refining to the extent that the cost of the energy or energy-producing fuels used exceeds three per cent (3%) of the cost of production;

(4) Livestock of a kind the products of which ordinarily constitute food for human consumption provided the sales are made for breeding or dairy purposes and by or to a person regularly engaged in the business of farming;

(5) Poultry for use in breeding or egg production;

(6) Farm work stock for use in farming operations;

(7) Seeds, the products of which ordinarily constitute food for human consumption or are to be sold in the regular course of business, feed for livestock or poultry of a kind the products of which ordinarily constitute food for human consumption, and commercial fertilizer to be applied on land the products from which are to be used for food for human consumption or are to be sold in the regular course of business; Provided such sales are made to farmers who are regularly engaged in the occupation of tilling and cultivating the soil for the production of crops as a business, or who are regularly engaged in the occupation of raising and feeding livestock or poultry or producing milk for sale; and Provided further That such tangible personal property so sold is to be used only by those persons designated above who are so purchasing;

(8) Machinery for new and expanded industry;

(9) Farm machinery. As used in this section the term "farm machinery" means machinery used exclusively and directly in the occupation of tilling the soil for the production of crops as a business, or in the occupation of raising and feeding livestock or poultry or of producing milk for sale. The term "farm machinery" as used in this section includes machinery, attachments, and replacements therefor which are used or manufactured for use on, or in the operation of farm machinery and which are necessary to the operation of such machinery, and are customarily so used; but this exemption shall not include automobiles, trucks, trailers, and truck-trailer combinations.

(10) Property which has been certified as a pollution control facility as defined in Chapter 224 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

Section 3. KRS 136.070 is amended to read as follows:

(1) With respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1965, every corporation organized under the laws of this state, every corporation having its commercial domicile in this state, and every foreign corporation owning or leasing property located in this state or having one or more individuals receiving compensation in this state, except state and national banks and trust companies, savings and loan associations organized under the laws of this state and under the laws of the United States and making loans to members only, production credit associations, insurance companies, including farmers' or other mutual hail, cyclone, windstorm or fire insurance companies, insurers and reciprocal underwriters, public service companies subject to taxation under KRS 136.120, and religious, educational, charitable and like corporations not organized or conducted for pecuniary profit, shall pay to the state an annual license tax of seventy cents on each one thousand dollars of the capital employed in the business as computed under the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(2) The corporation shall determine its total capital, both within and without Kentucky. The term "capital" as used in this section includes, but is not limited to, capital stock, surplus, monies borrowed for purposes other than current operating expenses and used in lieu of or in addition to invested capital and earned surplus, advances by affiliated companies, intercompany accounts, or any other items representing additional capital used and employed in the business. The term "capital stock" as used in this section, shall be deemed to have such value as is reflected on the books of the corporation whether having par value or not.

(3) The total capital, as determined under subsection (2) of this section, shall be apportioned as follows:

(a) The total capital shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor, plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

(b) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period*; provided, however, that property which has been certified as a pollution control facility as defined in Chapter 224 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes shall be excluded from the property factor.*

1. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. If the original cost of any property is not determinable or is nominal or zero such property shall be valued by the department under regulations promulgated by the department. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals, provided that such rental and such subrentals are reasonable. If the department determines that the annual rental or subrental rate is unreasonable, or if nominal or zero rate is charged, the department may determine and apply such rental rate as will reasonably reflect the value of the property rented by the taxpayer.

2. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the department may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

(c) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid or payable in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid or payable everywhere during the tax period. Compensation is paid or payable in this state if:

1. The individual's service is performed entirely within the state; or

2. The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

3. Some of the service is performed in the state and the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

(d) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

1. The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, or to the designee of the purchaser within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

2. The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and the purchaser is the United States government or the taxpayer is not taxable in the state to which the property is delivered or shipped.

3. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(4) If the apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly measure the taxpayer's capital in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the department may require:

(a) The exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(b) The inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly measure the taxpayer's capital in this state; or

(c) The employment of any other method to produce an equitable apportionment of the taxpayer's capital.

(5) No corporation required to pay an annual license tax under this section shall pay less than ten dollars.

Section 4. KRS 141.120 is amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of a trade or business of the taxpayer and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, or disposition of the property constitutes integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations;

(b) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is managed;

(c) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions, and any other form of remuneration paid or payable to employes for personal services;

(d) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, investment company, or any type of insurance company;

(e) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income;

(f) "Public service company" means any business entity subject to taxation under KRS 136.120;

(g) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under subsections (4) through (8) of this section;

(h) "State" means any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any territory or possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(2) Any corporation having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state shall allocate and apportion its net income as provided in this section.

(3) For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this section, a corporation is taxable in another state if, in that state it is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or corporate stock tax; or that state has jurisdiction to subject the corporation to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or corporate stock tax, regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

(4) Rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains and losses, interest, dividends, or patent or copyright royalties, to the extent that they constitute nonbusiness income, shall be allocated as provided in subsections (5) through (8) of this section.

(5) (a) Net rents and royalties from real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to this state if and to the extent that the property is utilized in this state; or in their entirety if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not organized under the laws of or taxable in the state in which the property is utilized.

(c) The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a state is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the state during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the taxpayer, the tangible personalty is utilized in the state in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

(6) (a) Capital gains and losses from sales or other dispositions of real property located in this state are allocable to this state.

(b) Capital gains and losses from sales or other dispositions of tangible personal property are allocable to this state if the property had a situs in this state at the time of the sale, or the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state and the taxpayer is not taxable in the state in which the property had a situs.

(c) Capital gains and losses from sales or other dispositions of intangible personal property are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(7) Interest and dividends are allocable to this state if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(8) (a) Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to this state if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in this state; or if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this state.

(b) A patent is utilized in a state to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in the state or to the extent that a patented product is produced in the state. If the basis of receipts from patent royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the patent is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(c) A copyright is utilized in a state to the extent that printing or other publication originates in the state. If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to states or if the accounting procedures do not reflect states of utilization, the copyright is utilized in the state in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(9) All business income shall be apportioned to this state by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three (3).

(a) The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this state during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period*; provided, however, that property which has been certified as a pollution control facility as defined in Chapter 224 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes shall be excluded from the property factor*.

1. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. If the original cost of any property is not determinable or is nominal or zero such property shall be valued by the department under regulations promulgated by the department. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight (8) times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from sub-rentals, provided that such rental and such sub-rentals are reasonable. If the department determines that the annual rental or sub-rental rate is unreasonable, or if a nominal or zero rate is charged, the department may determine and apply such rental rate as will reasonably reflect the value of the property rented by the taxpayer.

2. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the department may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

(b) The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid or payable in this state during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation, and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid or payable everywhere during the tax period. Compensation is paid or payable in this state if:

1. The individual's service is performed entirely within the state; or

2. The individual's service is performed both within and without the state, but the service performed without the state is incidental to the individual's service within the state; or

3. Some of the service is performed in the state and the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the state, or the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

(c) The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this state during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period. Sales of tangible personal property are in this state if:

1. The property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States government, or to the designee of the purchaser within this state regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

2. The property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this state and the purchaser is the United States government or the taxpayer is not taxable in the state to which the property is delivered or shipped.

3. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this state if the income-producing activity is performed in this state; or the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than in any other state, based on costs of performance.

(10) If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this section do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this state, the taxpayer may petition for or the department may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) separate accounting;

(b) the exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(c) the inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this state; or

(d) the employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

(11) Public service companies and financial organizations having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this state shall allocate such income as follows:

(a) Nonbusiness income shall be allocated to this state as provided in subsections (5) through (8) of this section.

(b) Business income shall be allocated to this state by multiplying the business income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor and the denominator of which is three (3). The payroll factor shall be determined as provided in subsection (9) (b) of this section. The property factor and sales factor shall be determined as provided by regulations promulgated by the department.

Section 5. KRS 132.200 is amended to read as follows:

All property subject to taxation for state purposes shall also be subject to taxation in the county, city, school or other taxing district in which it has a taxable situs, except the classes of property described in KRS 132.030 and 132.050, and the following classes of property, which shall be subject to taxation for state purposes only:

(1) Farm implements and farm machinery owned by a person actually engaged in farming and used in his farm operation;

(2) Livestock and domestic fowls;

(3) Capital stock of savings and loan associations;

(4) Machinery and products in course of manufacture, of individuals or corporations actually engaged in manufacturing, and their raw material actually on hand at their plant for the purpose of manufacture. Individuals or corporations actually engaged in the printing, publication and distribution of a newspaper or operating a job printing plant shall be deemed to be actually engaged in manufacturing;

(5) Commercial radio, television and telephonic equipment directly used or associated with electronic equipment which broadcasts electronic signals to an antenna; however, radio or television towers not essential to the production of the wave or signal broadcast shall not be included;

(6) Unmanufactured agricultural products (except that the same shall be exempt from taxation for state purposes to the extent of the value, or amount, of any unpaid nonrecourse loans thereon granted by the United States government or any agency thereof), and except that cities and counties may each impose an ad valorem tax of not exceeding one and one-half cents (1 1/2) on each $100 of the fair cash value of all unmanufactured tobacco and not exceeding four and one-half cents (4 1/2) on each $100 of the fair cash value of all other unmanufactured agricultural products, subject to taxation within their limits that are not actually on hand at the plants of manufacturing concerns for the purpose of manufacture, nor in the hands of the producer or any agent of the producer to whom the products have been conveyed or assigned for the purpose of sale;

(7) Money in hand, notes, bonds, accounts and other credits, whether secured by mortgage, pledge or otherwise, or unsecured, and shares of stock, except that nothing in this section shall forbid local taxation of franchises of corporations or of the shares of banks, trust companies or combined banks and trust companies doing business in this state, or domestic life insurance companies.

(8) Property which has been certified as a pollution control facility as defined in Chapter 224 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes.

Section 6. A new section of KRS Chapter 224 is created to read as follows:

Any applicant or certificate holder who fails to provide the information required in Section 1 of this Act or falsifies such information shall be liable for a civil penalty of not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).
